CONVENTION CALL.

To the Republican Electors of Pennsylvania:
After consultation and correspondence with the members of the Republican State Committee, and by their direction, I hereby give notice that the Republicans of Pennsylvania, by their duly chosen representatives, will meet in State Convention at Harrisburg, Wednesday, August 19, 1891, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the offices of State Treasurer and Auditor General, for the nomination of eighteen candidates for Delegates-at-Large to the Constitutional Convention provided for in the Act of Assembly approved June 19, 1891, and for the transaction of such other business as may be presented.
Notice is especially directed to the fact that, in accordance with the provisions of the last mentioned act, each Senatorial district is entitled to a representation of three delegates in said Constitutional Convention, two of whom only can be members of the majority party in said district. The electors of each district are therefore requested to make proper nominations for delegates to said convention, the rules governing the nomination of candidates for State Senator to be applicable.
In this connection the Chairman desires to call the attention of Republican voters to the recommendation of the State Convention of 1882, that "they allow the greatest freedom in the general participation in the primaries consistent with the preservation of the party organization."
WM. H. ANDREWS, Chairman.

COUNTY COMMITTEE MEETING.

The members of the Republican County Committee elected at the primaries held on Saturday, August 1, 1891, are requested to meet at the annual hall, in the Borough of Pittsville, on Tuesday, August 18, at 10 a. m., for the purpose of electing a County Chairman and transacting such other business as may be required.
ELIAS DAVIS,
Chairman County Convention,
August 4, 1891.

Crops Nearly Ruined.

COVENTRY, R. I., Aug. 12.—Long Pond, which supplies many mills here is very low. Crops have been nearly ruined by the long spell of dry weather. Several cases of anastrosis are reported in the farming districts.

THE TRUTH AT LAST.

So the enemy has surrendered. The truth is admitted at last. The McKinley bill is not a foreign instrument, but a wedge by which American manufacturers and Americans are enabled to make a place for themselves among the commercial nations.

England admits that the McKinley bill enables American manufacturers and workmen to supply their own wants and shut out pauper competition.

The St. James Gazette, of London, England, takes a very gloomy view of the condition of British trade and says the decline is due to the operation of the McKinley law in this country. It admits that the people of England have been relying upon the Democratic hoax that the McKinley law would eventually prove a real misfortune to the United States, but that they now realize the truth—the immediate object of McKinley's bill was to hit foreign manufacturers. Concluding, the Gazette tearfully adds "it is plainly evident that this object has been attained."

The London Times, too, the organ of the Government, is likewise sorrowful and says "the McKinley law has been the great cause of the disturbance."

O, if we were only close enough to McKinley to give the hand that drafted that law a congratulatory shake!

Squire, ye American copperheads, and take your medicine.
McKinley did it with his little pen and there is no greater man in America to-day than McKinley.

What a glowing tribute the Gazette and Times pay to him! How frankly they admit that they were resting upon false hopes! And how effectively do they stamp the Democrats of this country as falsifiers!

Cleveland's fall and the passage of the McKinley bill were two of the greatest achievements made in this country since the emancipation. Some have been slow in realizing this, but the truth is gradually dawning and ere many weeks those who still entertain any doubt will be thoroughly convinced.

The condemnation of our tariff law by the foreign press is a signal of success to all Republicans.

A BLACK DAY.

A Period of Mourning in the Synagogues.

To-morrow is the black day in the Hebrew calendar. It commemorates the worst disaster that befell the Jewish nation. On the 9th day of the month of Ab the city of Jerusalem was pillaged by Nebuchadnezzar, King of Babylon, the Holy Temple was burned to the ground, and the inhabitants, comprising those who had been governed by Zedekiah, the King of Judah, were carried into captivity, where they remained until set free by Cyrus, King of the Medes and Persians, who conquered Babylon and permitted the exiled Jews to return and rebuild their temple, which event occurred about seventy years later.

On the same ninth day of Ab, centuries after, Jerusalem was again laid waste by the destroyer, its Temple razed, tens of thousands of its inhabitants put to the sword or delivered over as a prey to wild beasts, and the remainder sent into captivity among heathen nations, by Titus, sward Emperor of Rome.

This evening the synagogues will be open and pious worshippers will gather to hear the lamentations of Jeremiah, the mournful scenes of religious poets, and other sorrowful compositions written for this occasion.

The service to-morrow morning is of a more extended character, some of the most renowned Hebrew writers having contributed to the liturgy of the day. The synagogues are heavily draped in black. The Ark containing the Scroll of the Law is likewise covered; also, the reading desk and a separate table used instead at these two services. The synagogues are darkened on the eve, and each congregant holds a lighted candle. The scene is sombre and impressive.

In this country the fast is, perhaps, most marked among immigrants from Russia, who think of their persecuted brethren in that modern Egypt, and lament national dismemberment with tears coursing down their cheeks and prayers to the God of Israel for a restoration.

Progress.

It is very important in this age of vast material progress that a remedy be pleasing to the taste and to the eye, easily taken, acceptable to the stomach and healthy in its nature and effects. Possessing these qualities, Syrup of Figs is the one perfect laxative and most gentle diuretic known.

Coming Events.

Aug. 15 and 17.—Fan and ice cream festival, Primitive Methodist church.
Aug. 18.—Ice cream and peach festival, in Robbins' opera house, under the auspices of Camp No. 189, P. O. S. of A.
Sept. 2.—Japanese ice cream festival in Robbins' opera house, under the auspices of Shenandoah Commandary, No. 14, Sons of America.

WHAT THE SCRIBES SEE AND HEAR

A Young Man Whose Generosity Over Balanced His Good Judgment and Brought Him to Grief—Personal Notes

On Monday night tickets of admission to the Lakeside esteddfod were stolen from the HERALD office. Circumstances pointed to John Prosser, Jr., of East Lloyd street, as the guilty party. He was arrested by Constable Tally Phillips. After spending the afternoon in the lockup, he admitted having stolen the tickets and named the parties among whom he had distributed them under the representation that they were lithograph complimentaries. Prosser was given a hearing before Squire Shoemaker last night. Another hearing will be given him Saturday evening.

PERSONAL.

R. A. Glover went with the excursionists yesterday over the Pennys.
John Schaffly went to Pottsville on the early train this morning.
Miss Sallie Dunn, of Philadelphia, is in town visiting relatives.

Major E. J. Phillips circled about town yesterday afternoon.
Miss Mary Foster, of Scranton, is visiting friend in town.
Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Davenport are visiting friends in St. Clair.

Howard Kuriz, of Berwick, is visiting friends in town.
Mrs. Jennie Gibson, of Philadelphia, who spent a few days in town last week, returned to the city yesterday.

Our old friend, Harry Bachman, of Mahanoy City, visited the HERALD sanctum this morning.

Constable "Tally" Phillips rejoices. His wife has presented him with a bouncing baby girl.

Arthur Shaw has accepted a good position in Philadelphia and left for that city yesterday.

Miss Emma Williams, who has secured a position as type writer in Philadelphia, spent a few days in town this week.

Tax Collector Higgins went to Wilkes-Barre yesterday to attend the funeral of his sister-in-law, relict of Dr. Higgins, formerly of Tanquetta.

Ex-County Commissioner, George D. Moyer, of Orwigsburg, and A. L. Shay, Esq., of Pottsville, dined at the Ferguson house yesterday.

Conductor "Hen" Sigfried, one of the Lehigh Valley's most popular conductors, who has been ill for quite a spell, is once more on duty.

Clerence Crebaugh, of town, has resigned from the position to which he was elected in the Ringtown school to accept a better one in Berwick.

D. J. Doyle, of the Sunday News, left town this morning for Gettysburg, where he will remain the balance of the week, the guest of relatives.

Miss Jennie Heaton, one of West Mahanoy township's fair school teachers, is spending her vacation with friends in Philadelphia.

Miss Mame Wasley returned to town yesterday from Manorton, N. Y., where she spent a pleasant vacation. Miss Wasley returned earlier than she expected in order to attend the Beyratt-Reese wedding.

D. M. Thomas, of Scranton, is spending a week in town, intending to remain here until after the esteddfod at Lakeside on Saturday next, his interest in musical competitions being of a lively character.—Tri-Weekly Record.

Squire J. J. Coyle, of Mahanoy City, Republican candidate for delegate to the constitutional convention, spent a few minutes in town to-day, and gave J. Harry James, Esq., of Ashland, a friendly grasp at the Lehigh Valley depot.

Caution.

A number of tickets for the grand opening esteddfod, to be held at Lakeside on Saturday, were stolen from the HERALD office on Monday night. The public is given notice that only tickets properly stamped on the back are genuine, and as none of the stolen tickets were stamped purchasers must stand the loss. Tickets will be sold only on the grounds and there are no complimentaries, so the public is warned against persons who may try to make sales of tickets at less than the regular rates on the ground that they were secured from the committee for lithograph or other privileges. The cost to people of Shenandoah, for admission to the grounds and railway fare will be but 70 cents.

HUNTING A MURDERER.

Fred Earnest Wounds Three of His Partners and Escapes.

MOUNT CARMEL, Pa., Aug. 12.—Fred Earnest, who beat his brothers so badly that they cannot recover, and also knifed Bert Cleaver, in a row at the Granger's picnic at Johnston's Grove, is still at large, notwithstanding a desperate effort was made to capture him to-day.

A number of citizens have been searching the surrounding hills for the assassin, and not until 9 a. m., did they get any trace of him.

While walking along the hillside several miles from this place they espied Earnest concealed behind a clump of bushes, and as soon as they set upon him he drew a revolver and fired into the crowd, seriously wounding three of the number, and during the excitement beat a hasty retreat.

The affair has created the greatest consternation, and the air is rife with threats of revenge.

BLEW OUT HIS BRAINS.

A Pittsburg Policeman's Love Affair Discovered by His Wife.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Aug. 12.—Henry M. Dehl, a policeman, married, committed suicide at 9:30 last night in front of 107 First avenue.

Dehl had been keeping company for some time past with a handsome young lady named Maggie Edgar, of whom he had become infatuated.

Last night Dehl's wife met her husband on First avenue in front of where the Edgar girl lives. Mrs. Dehl upbraided him for his unfaithfulness.

Dehl seemingly became very penitent, and sent his wife to the Edgar girl's rooms to get several presents that he had given the Edgar girl. While his wife was after the presents Dehl pulled out a 32 calibre revolver and fired a bullet into his brain, killing himself instantly.

BILL THE SCOUT DEAD.

A Noted Wild West Character Dies Suddenly in Newark.

NEWARK, N. J., Aug. 12.—William Yaupman, who under the sobriquet of Bill Germagne was widely known in the West as a scout and hunter, died in his chair at his home on West Kinney street at 9 a. m., in his 50th year.

Bill conducted the Rufus Hatch party through the Yellowstone Park in the seventies, and during the recent Indian troubles in the Bad Lands of Dakota took a prominent part for the government.

His Museum of Nation A Curiosities of the West, which was known as the "Wild West," has been visited by thousands. A widow and three children survive him.

Found Unconscious in a Boat.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—Yesterday a boat was discovered floating on Rockland Lake, about four miles from Nyack, N. Y., by Louis Winans. In it lay Mary Heinecke, unconscious, and bearing all the indications of having been outraged. The girl was a servant employed by Mrs. Schiller, whose house is situated near the lake. The boat had been hired Friday evening, and it is thought the girl has floated about the lake in a state of insensibility since that time. The girl is still unconscious and she will probably die.

Mysterious Drowning Accident.

CAPE MAY, N. J., Aug. 12.—In the bath house of the steamboat landing is an unclaimed suit of cloth, light trousers, black derby hat, black diagonal coat, left there yesterday by an unknown bather. A memorandum in the pockets contains the name "W. W. Bardell." The man was accompanied by two women, all of whom came down on the Republic. His companions left without giving any account of the accident.

Still Deadlocked.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 11.—The Fourth Judicial District Republican convention continued its adjourned session here last night. The first ballot indicated that there was no change from the Malone deadlock, the vote standing: Tappan, 7; Badger, 7. After taking eleven ballots with the same result the convention adjourned until to-day.

Resumed Work With Non-Union Men.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Aug. 12.—The Pottsville Steel and Iron Company, which shut down some time ago on account of a strike among the employes, has started two furnaces with non-union men.

Drowned While Bathing.

BORNESTOWS, N. J., Aug. 12.—John Irwin of Chester, Pa., was drowned at Burlington while bathing. His body was recovered.
