PRESIDENTIAL TALK

Senator Carlisle's Views on the Battle Next Year.

NOT AFRAID OF THE ALLIANCE.

Blaine and Cleveland the Strongest Men in Their Parties.

He Says the Maine Statesman Would Sweep the Convention, But Does Not Believe He Will be a Candidate—Harrison the Choice if Blaine Will Not Consent to Stand.

NARRAGANSETT PIER, R. I., Aug. 12.—Senators Aldrich, Carlisle, Harris and Allison are here as members of the Senate Sub-Committee on Finance. Mr. Carlisle talked about the political situation as follows:

"The Farmers' Alliance is a gradual atrophy, a marasmus which indicates that the organization will not, in all probability, be a serious factor in the election next year. The only States it can by any probable chance carry are Kansas and perhaps Nebraska and Colorado.

"The movement in the South has substantially run its course already. There is a spectre which confronts the white man in the Southern States, a shadow of negro supremacy. Rather than have negro domination the whites will bury political differences and unite at the polls in order to prevent that which they regard as a greater evil.

"I do not quite understand the Alliance movement in Ohio. The Democratic candidates may not be helped by the third ticket, but between now and election day difficulties may be smoothed over.

"If the Republicans nominate Harrison and the Democrats Cleveland, both anti-free coinage, the third party would then probably have a ticket of its own.

Speaking of the probable candidates for the Presidency in 1892 Mr. Carlisle said: "The Republicans will nominate President Harrison if Mr. Blaine will not consent to stand. The influence of the ladies of his family may deter Mr. Blaine, but there is a tremendous pressure upon him from his old party friends to run. He would sweep the convention, I think. No Republican is as strong as Blaine. I do not think that he will consent to run.

"Mr. Cleveland, in my judgment, is still the strongest Democratic candidate. He may have offended the extreme pro-silver men by his remarks against free coinage, but he enjoys a wonderful reputation among the people."

AN IMPORTANT REPORT.

Investigating the Effect of the New Tariff on Prices and Wages.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—C. D. Wright, chief of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, is making an important inquiry in regard to the effect of the tariff on prices. He expects to have his work far enough advanced to be able to report to the next Congress in the early part of the session. The Finance Committee of the Senate was instructed just before the close of the last Congress to ascertain the effect of the McKinley bill on prices.

The committee having no machinery with which to prosecute the work, engaged Col. Wright, because of his well-known ability as a statistician and his reputation for accuracy. The department has agents at work collecting information regarding prices and wages on 330 selected articles, which usually enter into general use. The inquiry extends from June 1, 1889, to September 1, 1891.

In securing these figures, monthly quotations have been obtained from retail dealers in sixty-nine different cities and towns distributed in all parts of the country, so that a fair average may be obtained. Wholesale prices will be obtained from six different distributing centers.

An extensive inquiry will be made into the wages paid for a long period of years, which will be made up from original resources and official reports. Mr. Wright says this will be the most extensive inquiry relating to wages and prices ever instituted in any country.

All the Fish in the Lake Died.

NYACK, N.Y., Aug. 12.—People passing the small lake west of here in the morning were mystified at seeing the shores of the lake thickly lined with dead fish. In some unaccountable manner all the fish in this lake had died and millions lie along the edge. Men were employed all day in removing the dead fish from the shores and burying them. No bad effects are apprehended from the stench, owing to the prompt measures taken for their removal.

Race Horses in a Crash.

GLOUCESTER, N. J., Aug. 12.—In the sixth race here fourteen horses took part, and in making a turn of the back stretch the horses became bunched and came together in a crash. When the cloud of dust had subsided the horses Alfred B. and Davis were down, and Eddie Carr and George Bushnell, the jockeys who rode them, were lying prostrate alongside their fallen steeds. Carr was badly injured and had his collarbone broken. Bushnell was insensible, and died shortly after the accident.

The Foresters' Convention.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Aug. 12.—The second biennial session of the High Court, Ancient Order of Foresters of America, is now being held in this city. Credentials were received from delegates from nearly every State in the Union, and representing a membership of over 80,000. At noon the convention adjourned and the members visited the Brooklyn Navy Yard.

Hunting for Hopkins.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Aug. 12.—The country between here and Providence is being scoured by the bands of men hunting for William Franklin Hopkins, the alleged assailant of 9-year-old Maggie Harrington.

SIR HECTOR RESIGNS.

His Withdrawal from the Ministry Creates a Surprise in Canada.

OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 12.—Sir Hector Langevin has resigned from the Ministry. The resignation proved a veritable bombshell in political circles and is the sensation of the day. It was totally unexpected at this stage of the proceedings in the investigation.

Before the Privileges and Elections Committee to-day Sir Hector read a lengthy defense. He said he would preface it with the statement that he had resigned in justice to his colleagues in Parliament and the committee. His statement was very voluminous. He denied emphatically all the charges preferred against him and asserted his innocence in the most positive manner. It was absolutely false that he had ever received $10,000 from Owen E. Murphy; he had no relations whatever with Murphy. He was not aware that his son had received a cent either directly or indirectly. He contended that his administration of the Department of Public Works was perfectly honorable and that there had been no manipulation of public contracts.

FRENCHMEN CHEER RUSSIA.

The Grand Duke Alexis Warmly Welcomed on His Arrival in Paris.

PARIS, Aug. 12.—The Grand Duke Alexis arrived in this city early in the morning, but as it was not known that he was coming, no one was present to receive him. Even the members of the Russian embassy were ignorant of his arrival.

A number of people at the station recognized the Grand Duke, however, as he stepped from the train, and they shouted: "Vive la Grand Duke Alexis," "Vive le Czar," "Vive la Russie," etc., the cries being quickly taken up by the crowd of passengers and others in the vicinity.

The Grand Duke smiled and bowed graciously in response. He quickly entered a carriage and was driven to a hotel.

The creditors of Henry S. French, boot and shoe manufacturer of Brockton, Mass., met and appointed a committee to investigate the accounts. The liabilities were shown to be $81,000, and the nominal assets $9,600.

A petition for a compromise in the matter of the contest of the will of Charles L. Hancock has been granted in the Supreme Court at Boston. Under the compromise Harvard college will receive $70,000 as residuary legatee.

PLOT TO KILL A JUDGE.

He is Determined to Try a Murder Case and Take His Chances.

TOPEKA, Kas. Aug. 12.—There is great excitement here over the coming trial of Brennan, who killed Col. Samuel Wood. Judge Botkin, who is to try the case, said: "I know there is a plot to kill me, but I want to say that if I am molested I have friends enough to see to it that every one of the conspirators will bite the dust, and the funeral procession will march from Topeka to No Man's Land," said:

"I understand the Sheriff of Stevens county intends to call on the Governor to send the militia to Haughtown when Brennan is tried.

"I want to say that if it be done there will be no court. I will never try a case or permit one to be tried in my district under the shadow of bayonets. I will swear in new court bailiffs, who will be able to keep the peace and prevent murder or bloodshed."

Challenge from Hanlan and O'Connor.

BURKE, Ont., Aug. 12.—Hanlan and O'Connor authorize a double scull challenge to the world. They will row three miles against any other double for from $500 to $5,000 a side, giving or taking expenses if the course is in America. If any two Australians will come to this continent they will guarantee them two single sculling races for $2,500 a side each. They will allow $1,000 for expenses if a double scull match is made for $3,000 or more a side.

CHASED BY A MOB

Kansas City Men Indignant Over a Boodle Measure.

TRIED TO KILL THE ALDERMEN.

A Crowd of Taxpayers Invade the Common Council Chamber.

The City Fathers Flee for Their Lives. Several Intemperate Speeches Made. The Mayor and Council Stigmatized as Cowards and Thieves—Frequent Cries of "Lynch Them!" and "Hang Them!"

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 12.—A mob invaded the Common Council Chamber here during the day, and had it not been for the fact that the Aldermen made their escape through a back door violence would probably have been done.

The attack was the result of a proposition before the Council for the purchase of the Consolidated Electric Light and Power Company's plant for $340,000.

Rumors of the use of "boodle" were freely indulged in, and public indignation was aroused to a high pitch. This culminated in a mass meeting of taxpayers to protest against the purchase.

The meeting was in charge of John R. Scroggs, a leader of the Kansas City bar. Several intemperate speeches were made, and finally Mr. Scroggs addressed the crowd from the Court House steps. He denounced in bitter language the proposed action of the Council. Finally a committee of fifteen was appointed to call at the Council Chamber and present the protest before the ordinance could be passed. The crowd by its own motion joined the committee, and all started for the City Hall.

Threats of Lynching.

As the march proceeded the excitement grew until the mutterings of the crowd became loud and bitter, and finally culminated in shouts of "Lynch them!" and "Hang them!" The crowd had worked itself up to a high pitch of indignation when the City Hall was reached.

In the meantime the Council had been informed of the progress of the mob, and a hasty adjournment was taken. The last alderman had barely left when the advance guard of the mob rushed into the chamber, to be disappointed at finding it emptied. The crowd resolved itself into a mass meeting again and more speeches were made. The mayor and Council were stigmatized as cowards and thieves. Finally the mob dispersed without doing any damage.

KISSED THE GOVERNOR.

Pennsylvania's Executive Complies With an Odd Request.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 12.—It has been the custom at Camp Kenslington during the morning for visitors to be presented to the Governor in his tent. There is a handshake and the reception is ended. Yesterday a lady saw fit to vary the routine. After she had shaken hands with the Governor, she leaned forward and impressively asked:

"May I kiss you, Governor?" Governor Pattison gallantly responded:

"Certainly, madam."

It was no sooner said than the kiss came, much to the amusement of the spectators. The lady was about 40 years old and not particularly prepossessing. When the kiss was finished, the lady, a little flushed from the excitement, blurted out that it was to decide a bet that she had made that she could kiss the Governor. Of course this rubbed a little of the bloom off the peach. Every one that dared guyed the Governor about the affair.

Gov. Hill Revoked the Warrant.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 12.—Gov. Hill has revoked the warrant granted by him Aug. 8, for the arrest of Wolf F. Falk, charged with the crime of embezzlement committed in San Francisco, for whose extradition the Governor of California had issued a requisition addressed to Gov. Hill. The ground of the revocation was that the papers did not conform to the United States statute and the rules governing extraditions, requiring that the expenses of extradition proceedings should be a public charge.

Forfeited His Bail Then Surrendered.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—John P. Kirwin, the real estate agent whose bail ($2,000), was forfeited because he failed to appear for trial on an indictment charging him with assaulting Mrs. Mary Allen, surrendered himself during the morning. Kirwin was arraigned before Judge Cowan, who fixed his bail at $5,000, and that amount in cash was deposited by his friends for his appearance for trial.
