Ask Your Friends About It.

Your distressing cough can be cured. We know it because Kemp's Balsam within the past few years has cured so many coughs and colds in this community. Its remarkable sale has been entirely by its genuine merit.

Blackberries continue plenty and the demand for them keeps pretty well up.

A Cure for Constipation and Headache.

Remarkable Facts.

Heart disease is usually supposed to be incurable, and when properly treated a large proportion of cases are cured. This Mrs. Laura Hatten, of Gilberton, Pa., who was cured of her heart disease, writes as follows: "I was cured of my heart disease by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People."

The smarter a man is the harder it is for him to get along with smarter people.

A National Event.

The holding of the World's Fair in this city scarcely 100 years old will be a remarkable event, and whether it will really benefit this city as much as the discoverers of the Centennial believed, or whether it will be a doubtful thing, is just what the American people need to know.

Canadian Papers Seized.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Aug. 15.—The post-office authorities here have seized a number of Canadian newspapers containing advertisements of lottery companies doing business in Canada.

GERMANY TO SURRENDER.

Fears of Riots Will Cause a Mitigation of the Corn Duties.

BREITEN, Aug. 17.—The government is preparing for a surrender to a certain extent on the question of corn duties. The clamor has become so overwhelming that Chancellor Caprivi can hardly maintain himself against it.

It is said that the Kaiser has referred the matter entirely to the Chancellor, to act in his discretion. Both the Kaiser and the Chancellor would rather give Austria and Hungary the exclusive benefit of the German demand for foreign corn, under the commercial treaty soon to go into force, and this has been the chief motive for delay.

The government itself feels the pressure of scarcity, owing to the higher prices paid for grain for the army, and would undoubtedly be a larger purchaser of foreign grain at lesser rates should a reduction of duties take place.

The report that American farmers are hoarding grain causes no little anxiety not only in Germany, but in all European countries, as it is felt that the demand from America this year will undoubtedly be large.

Advices from Russia present the situation in no more favorable light. In Astrakhan, near the Caspian Sea, several villages are reported to be almost depopulated, many of the people having died of hunger, and others have left for better-favored regions.

where the Russian manure is to be held, it is said that the commissariat branch of the army has found that no supplies can locally be obtained for the troops, and that all food will have to be brought from a distance.

GREAT CELEBRATION

Bennington's Decorated With Flags and Bunting.

STATE TROOP NOW IN CAMP.

The President and Party Will Arrive Tomorrow Evening.

Big Crowds Will Witness the Dedication of the B-175 Monument.

The State Troop Number 1, 1899—Two Triumphant Arches Erected—A Choir of 300 Voices to Sing Patriotic Songs.

BENNINGTON, Vt., Aug. 17.—This city is one complete wave of bunting and flags in anticipation of the dedication of the Bennington Battle Monument and the Centennial celebration of the admission to the Union of the late Vermont, which occur this week.

Midway in the city stands the triumphal arch. This arch bears on its eastern side the motto, "1791—Our best legacy of Vermont's first century her sons and daughters—1891." On the opposite side are the following: "1791—You see the red coats, they are ours, y' Molle! Star sleeps a widow to-night" being the historic words uttered by General Stark as he rallied his men to fight on the field of Bennington. The other side of the same arch has this inscription: "Peace hath her victories, no less renowned than war—1891."

There is also the living arch on which the thirteen original States will be represented by young ladies in costume with banners. As the President passes under this arch in the great procession of Wednesday a choir of 300 will sing "America," "Hail Columbia," "Star Spangled Banner" and other patriotic songs.

Preparing for the great celebration, the Vermont militia are now in camp. Yesterday Cushing's Battery, B. U. S. A. arrived. They presented quite a warlike appearance, and were greeted with cheers.

Prominent guests of the State are expected to-day. Among them will be Col. Wheslock G. Vessey and wife, Col. Alfred F. Walker and wife, Gen. Russell A. Alger and wife, Gen. A. S. Webb and son, Hon. B. B. Smalley and wife and ex-Gov. Rice, of Mass. chaperons. The Presidential party arrives to-morrow evening and will be entertained by Gen. J. G. McCullough, the Hon. E. J. Phelps, orator of the day, and wife are already in town the guests of Gen. McCullough.

Gov. Rice and staff arrived yesterday, and went into camp with the Vermont National Guard. It is expected that the guests of the State will number fully 3,500.

For more than 50 years there has been more or less preparation for the building of a monument to commemorate the battle of Bennington. From one cause or another the agitation always lapsed until it was finally brought to a successful issue by the erection of the marble shaft on the site of the Continental Storehouse, the objective point of Col. Baum's expedition in 1777. The cost of the monument and site has been in round numbers $100,000.
