THE MCKINLEY BILL.

Oh, yes, the McKinley tariff law is destroying our foreign commerce, and this is the way it is doing it. A statement recently issued by the Bureau of Statistics of the Treasury department shows that our foreign commerce for the fiscal year ending June 30 was the largest in our history, amounting to $1,720,330,896, it also shows that under the first nine months of the McKinley tariff law we imported merchandise to the value of $690,296,005, while for the same period in the year before our imports amounted to only $508,769,902; also that under the McKinley law the goods admitted free of duty amounted to $295,963,655 against $298,983,873 for the same period in the year before. How the lies of last year are going home to roost!

GOOD FOR THE G. A. R.

By at least one organization the color line has at last been settled, and settled in accordance with common sense and genuine religion. The Grand Army of the Republic has done what a great many so-called Christian people are afraid to do or are too full of worldly prejudice to do. It has quashed the discussion of the color line by deciding that there shall be no color line drawn. The National Encampment at Detroit has declared after several years of agitation, that the black man who was good enough to enlist as a Union soldier and wear the United States blue, carry a musket or a sword, stop rebel bullets, and be buried with the honors of war, and have his grave covered with flowers on Decoration Day in case he had lost his life in the service, is good enough to join the G. A. R. and have his posts recognized by the same department as the white posts.

"Now listen to this," says the New York Independent, "you Congregationalists of Georgia, Episcopalians of Virginia and South Carolina, and Methodists of Missouri, Tennessee, North Carolina, Florida, Georgia, Alabama and Texas! Whose business is it to set an example of righteousness? Is it the business of the Church of Christ Jesus, or of a humane organization; of the Lord's army, or of the relics of any army of physical warfare? Yet here we have a body of men of all faiths and no faith, men of the world, gamblers and profane, irreligious and infidels, as well as Christians, voting in overwhelming numbers to do right by their humble and despised comrades while a Christian church, and more than one of them, stumbles and falls prostrate before the temptation to pass their colored brother by on the other side. The Church should be better than the world, not worse, it should magnify the brotherhood which is in our Lord; it should be a light in the world. In this case the Grand Army of the Republic has proved its right to the adjective in its name, and has set the right example when the Church has more than once set the wrong example; it has thrown policy to the dogs, and the banner of justice and fraternity to the winds, and in the name of all the better instincts and all the worthy principles and practice of the Church, we give it hearty thanks."

WAS IT SUICIDE?

SUDDEN DEATH OF A FIRST WARD HUNGARIAN. DIED IN LESS THAN FIVE MINUTES

Coroner Guidin Has Been Requested to Investigate the Case—A Mt. Carmel Man Sought For.

A Hungarian named Simon Thomas died suddenly in his boarding house in the First ward last night. The news of his death was given to Squire Monaghan by the boarding boss and Deputy Coroner Brennan was at once notified. He secured a jury and visited the house, but concluded not to proceed with the inquest before notifying Coroner Guidin, as the circumstances surrounding the case are considered sufficient to warrant a post mortem. The deceased was about 30 years old and has a wife and three children in the old country. He worked as a laborer in the Ellengowan colliery. His fellow boarders say that he had been in this country but two weeks and that he had worked in the colliery only four days.

They say that when Thomas arrived home from work last night he drank half a pint of a mixture of alcohol and camphor. Four minutes later he was dead. There are many who scout the idea that the mixture could not have had such a fatal effect. Some are inclined to the belief that the man was seized with a cramp and, as is frequently the case among the lower classes of Hungarians, his companions were too ignorant to call a physician, or adverse to incurring the expense.

LAST CHEAP EXCURSION

To Atlantic City via the Reading Double Track Route.

This season's last popular excursion to Atlantic City takes place on Tuesday, 25th inst. No one should miss this last chance to visit America's greatest seaside resort by fast express trains and at greatly reduced rates. Such an opportunity to see old ocean's "high rollers" and enjoy a swift ride on the "flyers" that have made the "Royal Route to the Sea" world-famous seldom occurs. Round trip tickets for this excursion will be sold from Shenandoah at the very low rate of $3.50 and will be good going on special train leaving Shenandoah at 10:05 a. m. on the day above named. They will be good for return passage on any train within seven days, including day of issue. For particulars call on any ticket agent. Persons taking this trip can stop off in Philadelphia in both directions.

Neurology.

The funeral of Miss Boriba May Starr will take place to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon at one o'clock from the residence of her parents on East Coal street. Services will be held in the Trinity Reformed church on West Lloyd street. Miss Starr was for some time an active member as well as the organist of the church, and also an active member of the Sunday school. The school will attend her funeral in a body. Death, at all times, is sad; but it is more so when one so young is called. Miss Starr's death is not only felt by her parents, but also by the whole congregation and Sunday school. Her work was finished and the Lord has called her to her long rest. F. W. LOW TRACHSAS.

Bargains for Housekeepers.

J. Coffee has bought the entire stock of Bainbridge, the West Coal street grocer, and is now selling the stock at one-third the cost, or wholesale price. This is a golden opportunity for housekeepers and they have but two more days to take advantage of it, as the stock must be disposed of by Monday night, next, at the latest. Measures being sold at 25 cents a gallon and vinegar at 10 cents a gallon. Go early and make your purchases. First come, first served. Such a sale has never been held before in this town. 8-22-11

The Ringtown Fair.

The twentieth annual fair will be held at Ringtown on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, August 26, 27 and 28. On Wednesday there will be a trotting race for 3:30 horses. On Thursday there will be trotting and running horse races, and bicycle and sack races. The celebrated Grant Cornet Band will give two grand concerts on the same day. On Friday there will be a trotting race for 2:40 horses. 8-22-11

Just One Week More.

By request we will make our beautiful cabinets at $1.00 per dozen for one week more. Positively not one day after Aug. 24th, but will remain in your city making pictures at better prices. Come early and avoid the rush, rain or shine. Remember the place, Hoffman's gallery, 29 West Centre street. Hoffman's old stand. 8-17-11

Fall of Coal.

Owen Williams, a single man about 30 years of age, was a victim of a fall of coal in one of the Park Place collieries. One of his legs was broken and his back was badly lacerated. He was removed to the Miners' Hospital.

VENDING PEACHES.

Peculiar Circumstances That Surround the Vocation.

A freight car loaded with baskets of peaches stood at the rear of the Lehigh Valley depot yesterday and in it stood two young men, waiting to offer the cautious housewives bargains.

"Are peaches pretty near run out?" asked the reporter.

"No, they will last a week or so longer, but they will go up in price next week."

A stout lady, with a squint in her eye, stepped up to the car. "How do you sell your peaches?" she asked.

"Here is a nice basket for sixty-five cents."

"Heavens! I thought you were selling them cheap?"

"So we are, ma'm, but we can't sell this basket for less than sixty-five."

"Haven't you got any for fifty?"

"Yes, I think there are a few left."

Putting the '65' basket aside the vendor produced another. "There. Here is one I'll give you for fifty."

"O, my goodness! I wouldn't give you forty for it. Show one for sixty!"

The vendor fished out the '65' basket he had previously laid aside and said, confidentially, "Now, ma'm, here is a basket we have been selling all day at eighty cents. Take it home for sixty-five and say no more about it."

The basket was taken and as the stout lady waddled past a friend she said, with some display of egotism, "I've been marketing too many years to be caught by those sharpers."

A German lady stepped up. "Vat you vant for der benches?"

"Seventy cents, ma'm," answered the man, as he pushed a '65' basket towards her.

"Seventy sends! Vell! I never! I got a bagged of benches youst like dot two weeks ago for dirty-five."

"It wasn't this basket, ma'm," said the man with a wink in the direction of the reporter.

"Yaw, Yaw. Youst like dot, exactly. Youst like dem."

The vendor presented another basket of beauties, they looked a little better than the first, and said, "Now here is an eighty-cent basket."

"Ach, now; vat you daks me for? I gif you seventy-cents for dem!"

"I couldn't do it, ma'm, really. They cost sixty-five; but I have a basket here that contains the same kind of a peach, only the basket is not so strong. Carry it carefully, so the peaches won't fall out, and I'll let you have it for seventy."

The German lady snapped it up. As she walked away with the peaches the reporter asked, "Didn't you offer that basket a few minutes ago for 65?"

"Yes," said the vendor, "it was a mate of the last I sold for sixty-five, but I asked the German lady seventy cents in the first place, and we have to stick to prices."

"Yes," said a bystander, "our people will swallow and believe the statements of the strangers before they will our home merchants and!"

Just then a tall, thin lady with a determined expression upon her face hurried towards the car with a basket of peaches on her arm and exclaimed with numerous emphasis, "See here! You sold me this basket of peaches a few minutes ago for sixty-five cents and a lady living next door to me has just got home with a much larger basket of far better peaches and she only paid forty cents for them at one of the stands up town and!"

"I can't help that, ma'm. You made a bargain with me!"

"O, you son of a peach pit you. Do you mean to say?"

But her outburst of wrath was useless. She returned home with the peaches and home trade has one more ardent advocate.

Notice.

All members of the L. A. S., No. 13, of Henry Horneville Camp No. 43, S. of V., are requested to attend the meeting to-morrow evening, 22d inst., to make arrangements to attend the funeral of our deceased sister, Bertha Starr, on Sunday afternoon at one o'clock. By order of the President, MRS. LENA BRISL.

Mrs. PAULINE ROYER, Sec'y.

Base Ball.

Dolano defeated the Y. M. C. A. team of Pottsville, Thursday, at the former's grounds. The game was hotly contested and was only won by the home team in the ninth inning, after two men were out on successive singles by Sanger, Mulvey and Egan. It was a pitcher's battle, Haiser coming out with flying colors, striking out 15 men and allowing his opponents but 5 hits. Hill struck out 15 and allowed his opponents 6 hits, with a total of eight. Mulvey and Sanger each secured a single and two base hit. Depew's game at short stop was on the phenomenal order, as was Mulvey's catching and Smith's first base play. The score by innings was:

Dolano..... 0 0 0 0 1 2 0 2 6
Y. M. C. A..... 0 0 0 0 1 3 0 1 4

The Y. M. C. A. club, of Pottsville, made an engagement to play here with one of the town clubs yesterday but, for some unexplained reason, failed to put in an appearance after a guarantee and other arrangements had been made.

John Reynolds has returned from a long sojourn at New Castle, Virginia, where he is operating a brick yard.

The general face and portly form of John Metzger were seen on our streets this week. Johnnie studied the tomorial art under Prof. George Kotly, of town, and at the expiration of his term emigrated to Philadelphia, where he is gaining fame and ducts as a lightning manufacturer of the razor.

P. J. Martin, one of the hustling attachés of the Pottsville Evening Chronicle, is in town on Tuesday looking after the interests of that paper.

Councilman James Rowan, of Maizeville, is home from a visit of the western cities.

On Tuesday last John Welsh a pit driver at the Sidney Coal Company's washery, Maizeville, while starting a car lost his balance and fell under the wheels and had both legs broken, besides sustaining severe injuries about the head and body. He was immediately removed to the hospital.

Will Large, of Gilberton, was committed to jail by Squire Reynolds on a charge of assault and battery and resisting an officer. He is now thinking of having his name changed to Small.

Continental Hose Company, of Gilberton, will hold a picnic at that place on August 29. Invitations have been extended to the hose companies of Maizeville and Mahanoy Plane. The object of the picnic is to raise a fund for the purchase of a steam fire engine. Wish such an end in view it ought to be well patronized.

On Wednesday evening a Pole, name unknown, was caught between cars and terribly crushed about the head and chest, at Lawrence colliery. He was taken to the miners' hospital.

One of our townsmen is sporting a beautifully decorated optic, the result of a too violent contact with the business end of a base ball bat in the hands of an infuriated player, at the Lakeside elated field on Saturday last.

Lawrence & Brown have resumed dumping ashes into the big hole by the Frackville road, after a two weeks' stoppage caused by a cave-in under the car tracks.
