ere "Sweat-Pits" Call Forth Pro tests Against Assisted Immigrants

Wasmington, Aug. 27 .- There is every indication that a crisis is arising in the matter of the present flood of assisted Jewish feumigration from Russia. It has been the belief of the Treasury Depart-ment, as well as of the new Bureau of limitigration, that ere long would arise complications resulting from this sudden complications resulting from this sudden influx of people, men and women, who are willing to work at almost any price. A formal complaint was received at the Treasury Department from a labor organization in Haltimore, which is composed of takints who work for the many ready-made clothing houses in that city. In the protest it is stated that large numbers of these Rueslac immigrants remain in Baltimore, and that they make our ready-made clothing at such very low rates that American workmen cannot compete with them; and an instance is given of the results of this competition in the statement that, whereas one year see the Baltimore workmen were paid $2.75 a dozen for Ruisbing vests, the statedy increase of immigrants has made labor so cheap that now only $1.45 per dozen is paid for the same work, a price, it is added, which it is impossible for Americans to accept.

NONE OF THE INJURED ARE DEAD

A Deliberately Planned Triple Tragedy Near New York.

Desperate Struggle With an Infuriated Wife, Enocked Her Down and Ricked Her-Reloading Ills Revolver He Tried to Commit Suicide, But Failed.

NEW York, Aug. 27.—Henry Miller is dying at Great Neck, L. I.; his wife is in a critical condition, with four bullets in her head, and his mother-in-law is suffering from a dangerous scalp wound in-flicted by a built. This is the result of a desporate attempt at double murder and suicide, made by Miller.

Miller married Christine Nelson, daughter of Mrs. Lillie Nelson, four years ago. They did not live happily, and the wife went to live with her

Yesterday afternoon Miller bought a 32-caliber revolver and went to see his wife. It was after 10 o'clock at night wife. It was after 10 o'clock at night when he arrived at the Nelson house. He pounded on the door. Mrs. Miller came to an upper window. Miller asked her to come down. She refused and closed the window. Miller found an axe and battered down the door. He then rushed up to the second floor and demanded that his wife should return to his home. She refused and Miller seized her by the arm and dragged her toward the stairway.

The Williams' Grove Gathering.

WILLIAMS' GROVE, Pa., Aug. 27.—The attendance at the third day's assembly of the Parons of Husbandry is estimated at 10,000. Ex-Lieutenant-Governor Black spoke in favor of a constitutional conven-tion. Pennsylvania not having had, he asserted, an honest election in twenty-five asserted, an accest election in twenty-live years. Congressman Beltshoover opposed silver coinage. In the afternoon the new Grange Hall was dedicated, on which co-casion Generals Gregg and Gobin and Mr. Southworth spoke, the latter advocating silver coinage.

Odd Fellows to Erect a Grand Temple. Cmcago, Aug. 27.—The Odd Fellows' Temple, to be erected soon in this city, will not only be the tallest structure in the world, but it will also be the biggest in other respects. It is to be a building that will eclipse anything ever before at-tempted in either the classical or modern age in the architectural line. It is said that over $4,000,000 will be expended in the undertaking for the purchase of real estate and the construction.

A Protest Inspired by Monopolists.

Washixoron, Aug. 27.—A dispatch from Madrid says the Chamber of Commerce at Barcalona has determined to send a formal protest to the Government and Cortes against the new treaty with the United States. The Chamber holds that the treaty indicts serious injury on the trade of Spain with the Spanish West Indies. The Catalonian menopololists mainly inspired the protest.

Favor the Sub-Treasury scheme. PERTLE SPRINGS, Mo., Aug. 27.—In the vote in the Alliance Convention the Sub-Treasury people carried the day by a vote of 80 to 28. Leverett Leonard was elected president.
