AFFAIRS CAUGHT HASTILY.

What News Gatherers Take a Moment to Tell About.

September 3d is the last day for registration. Pleas can continue another month yet at least. Heavy railroad travel still continues to be the rule. The bookstores are already displaying school supplies. A dose of lemon juice in a cup of black coffee cures headache. All signs fall in dry weather. How about the ice cream sign? The man who can keep cool and smile in this weather is the ice man. Got ants in your house? Scatter powdered cinnamon about and try it. After the 1st of September you are allowed to shoot the fleet footed squirrels. Muslin petticoats are almost a tabooed garment in the wardrobe of a fashionable woman. The man who persists in giving advice is a bore—the man who won't take your advice is a crank. There are people who dress their bodies in the lighth of fashion and let their minds go in rags. Let the farmer remember that it takes more brains to run a first class farm than it does to run for a second class one. You never saw the egg plant dressed in finer garb than at present. Their rich colored, close fitting basques cling to their shapely forms closer than ever before, and they are almost to pretty to eat. The State commission is going to issue a report which will be known as the "Fish book," a successor to the "Birds book." The pictures of the fish will be in natural color and the volume will be a valuable one.

Progress.

It is very important in this age of vast material progress that a remedy be pleasing to the taste and to the eye, easily taken, acceptable to the stomach and healthy in its nature and effects. Possessing these qualities, Syrup of Figs is the one perfect laxative and most gentle diuretic known.

At the Same Price.

All persons holding duplicate checks for photographs can have the same promptly finished at Kraggy's art studio at the same price. Remember we are on the first floor.

Coming Events.

Sept. 1.—Ice cream and peach festival in Robbins' opera house under the auspices of All Saints' Episcopal Sunday school.
Sept. 2.—Japanese ice cream festival in Robbins' opera house, under the auspices of Shenandoah Commandery, No. 14, Sons of America.
Sept. 12.—Farewell picnic of Columbia Glee Club.
Waters' Weiss beer is the best. John A. Reilly sole agent.

REGION ROUND.

A Budget of Interesting Articles on All Topics.

In the Mt. Carmel base ball park Monday afternoon an altercation arose between Otto Schultz, aged 23, and another player. Felix Wasmish endeavored to quiet them, when he was struck on the head with a bat by Schultz and fatally injured. Wasmish is dying and S-schultz has been taken into custody.

Monday berry pickers found the true body of a man lying in a small stream near Ebervale. He had been seen wandering around the town a few weeks ago and complained of being sick and starving. It is supposed that he had been dependent and committed suicide.

An official of the L. V. R. R. says that the company is looking for a picnic ground for Sunday schools, etc., at Quakake and has a certain piece in contemplation. If it can be bought, the company does not intend that the Reading shall have all the picnic patronage.

Last Tuesday, Louis Rosser, a boy of 13 years and son of Jacob and Elizabeth Rosser, of Morea, while playing with other school children at Morea school house was pushed down, in some manner, and in falling struck the side of his neck against the step leading to the porch of the school and received injuries from which he died.

The Minerva Social Club, of Mahanoy City, will give a hop at Lakeside on Tuesday, September 3.

Quite a number of our young people of town attended the dance given by The Star Social Club of Ashland at that place last evening.

Not to Be Doubted.

Jealous Husband—Before we go to De Twigg's dance I want to warn you that I do not like your flirting habits.
She (with feminine readiness)—Don't you? Tastes will differ. Some people do.—Judge.

Ridiculous.

Maude—Why don't you come down and bathe, Clara?
Clara—In the rain? I guess not. I might get my new bathing suit wet.—Jury.

Pity the Shop Keepers.

Boy—What does me go shopping for?
Pa—Why, to buy clothes, ribbons, etc.
Boy—Ain't it funny she never brings them home?—Once a Week.

No Harm Done.

"I was talking to a boy this morning, when all of a sudden he shot up in the air out of sight."
"Man-holes?"
"Nope. Elevator."—Puck.

What He Missed.

Miss Gadsby—Can you keep a secret, Mr. Dumber?
Mr. Dumber—Oh, yes!
Miss Gadsby—Then I won't tell it to you.—Puck.

The Modest Man.

She—I love all that is grand, noble, majestic and beautiful.
He—Thank you very much, Miss Boston, but—really you embarrass me.—Munsey's Weekly.

Every Little Helper.

Irauo—Your wife's mother helps her a great deal, doesn't she?
Hagley—Yes, she has gone to town now to buy a dress to match some buttons her mother gave her.—Puck.

Tragedy in Real Life.

He (in wild distress)—Dearest, why do you turn from me?
She—Harold, I—I have been eating onions.—Chicago Tribune.

Might Carry It With a Club.

"Carving a chicken," remarked the police captain, "is like ridding opium dens; the main thing is to locate the joints."—Puck.

The End of an Argument.

Jawkins—You must be crazy!
Dawkins—Perhaps I am. I've been talking with you for nearly an hour, you see.—Munsey's Weekly.

An Unhappy Truth.

"There is an aristocracy of letters in this country, you must admit."
"Perhaps—but little royalty."—Puck.

Judge Hatch Not a Candidate.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 27.—Judge Edward W. Hatch, of the Superior Court, has decided to retire from the contest for the Republican nomination for Justice of the Supreme Court in the Eighth Judicial District. This leaves the field to M. G. Green and Tracy Becker.

OUT of a HOLE

If you find you have fallen down into a hole, Give attention to what we shall say: Our prices and bargains such people console. Bringing help in a practical way.

People get into financial holes—and they are the worst kind—by paying more for things than they are worth. To get out, buy only what is worth all it costs. The post in our establishment puts it in verse as above. But that is not definite enough. See the following offerings with figures:

Black Cheviot Suits for men, $8 to 10.
Boys' all-wool Cheviot Suits, $5.
