Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery (for the Liver, Blood and Lungs), .

$1 00 per bottle. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Pre-cription (for woman's weaknesses and derangements), . $1.00 per bottle Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Peliets (for the liver), 25 cents per vial. The genuine medicines, which can be

A Passenger Train Falls Eighty Feet Into a Creek.

CAUSED BY SPREADING RAILS.

It Was the New York Limited Express Bound for Ashville, N. C.

Very Few Northern People on the Train. The Wrecked Cars Partly Submerged in a Stream-Most of the Passengers Were Asleep When the Disaster Occurred. The Dead and Enjured Quickly Removed.

RALEIOH, N. C., Aug. 28.-Later news of the railway disaster near Statesville yesterday shows it to have been the most disastrous that ever occurred on any railroad in North Carolina.

A west-bound passenger train on the Western North Carolina Railroad jumped a trestle near Statesville about 2 a. m. The train plunged in the darkness into a ravine 60 feet in depth, dashing the cars into splinters.

The train was filled with people, many of them Tennesseans returning from coast resorts.

Forty-two passengers were killed and ten injured, according to the latest ac-counts. Eighty-five passengers were on board the train.

board the train.

The rails at the entrance to the viaduct had been misplaced, and the entire train went down eighty feet to the small creek below. There had been no washout, as has been reported, and the bridge was not broken down. Three Pullman sleepers and two private cars of railway officials are in the wreek. are in the wreck.

are in the wrock.

Up to 11 o'clock thirty-six bodies had been taken out of the wrick, and later the number was stated to be forty-two. Five were seriously injured and five others slightly hurt.

The disaster came without warning, and escape by jumping was impossible, consequently the engineer, the fireman, the baggage-master, the conductor and the porter of the sleeping car were

An eye witness to the disaster says that after the fearful crash, when the train went over, all was quiet for several moments; then from the dark abyse below shriek after shriek arose.

He ran down to the river bank and could see the ears partly lying on one side, and from the windows of the two coaches one or two persons were crawling.

He did all in his power to rescue a woman who was caught under a side of a car, but before he could do much the relief summoned from Statesville had arrived.

When they came a dozen men and women were seated on the upper sides of the cars. Some were screaming while others were laughing—it was the laughter of insanity. The night was dark, and to add to the horror of the situation the water in the creek was up. It was only through the most herole efforts of those who hurried to the scene of the wreck that the injured were not drowned.

Mr. and Mrs. Link of Lexington, who were among the injured, were married only the previous night and had just begun their wedding trip.

The wrecked train left the Jersey City depot of the Pennsylvania Railroad at 12:30 Wednesday morning with six

HELPING THE DISTRESSED.

Relief for the Pamilies Who Lost Relatives in the Park Place Disaster.

New York, Aug. 28.—There is a general movement throughout the city to help the living relatives of those who perished in the terrible disaster in Park place. It is known that there are many who are totally unfitted to bear the responsibilities which the position of breadwinner makes it necessary for them to assume.

At such times ready money is the only thing that will, in a small degree, tend to lighten the burden of grief.

Already the sum realized from the generosity of the many who invariably com-forward at such times has reached a considerable amount, and the several com-mittees which have been appointed to look after the interests of those who need help report that the subscription lists are welling hourly.

The Relief Committee appointed by Mayor Grant reported at noon $5,043 on hand. It was decided to allow each family $50 at once. The Lithographers' Union has already raised a good sum for the families of those lithographers who lost their lives.

No more bodies have been found in the Park place rains. The search for them has practically been abandoned. All interest in the disaster now centers in the placing of the responsibility. The coroner's jury was empanelled and viewed the ruins. The inquest proper will be the ruins. The is begun on Tuesday.
