Oh. What a Cough.

Oh, What a Cough.

Will you heed the warning? The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford by the sake of saving Scents, to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Bolloh's Cure will Cure your cough. It never falls. This explains why more than a Million Rottles were sold the past year. It releves Croup and Whopping Cough at once. Molleri do not be without it. For Lame Batch, Side or Chest, use Shiloh's Poross Plaster. Sold by C. H. Hagenbuch, N. E. corner Main and Lloyd streets.

TROUBLE IN

Santiago's Streets Filled With Raging Mobs.

DWELLINGS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Over Two Million Dollars Worth of Property Destroyed.

Balmaceda's House the First Destroyed-The City Pante-Stricken-Business Sus pended and the People Keep Close to Their Homes-The Police and Fire Departments Thoroughly Demoralized-

Valparaiso, Chili, via Galveston Texas, Aug. 31.—The Chanaral regiment of the Congressional army took forms possession of Santiago last night, and practically the last act in the bloody drams of revolution which has torn Chil to pieces for the past seven months is

As soon as the news reached Santiago of the overwhelming defeat of the gov ernment troops on the heights of Placill and the fall of Valparaiso, and the people knew that Balmaceda's power one, and they had nothing to fear from his wrath, their enmity to his government

The cry was raised that the President should be killed, and a mob started for

It grew in numbers and fury as it went It grew in numbers and fury as it wont through the streets, and by the time it reached the executive mansion was ripe for any bloody deed. Short shrift would have been allowed to the President had he been caught.

He knew that he would! have little chance for his life if he remained at Santiago, and at the first receipt of the news of his overwhelming defeat he hid him-self, and the bloodthirsty fury of the mob was balked.

Then the mob's desire for revenge found vent in the application of the torch. Soon Balmaceda's house was a mass of flames. Before it had been destroyed the mob marched off to the house of Senor Goday, the ex-Minister of the Interior, and an ardent Balmacedist, and set on fire his house.

Incondiaries at Work-

Then the residence of Balmaceda's mother; General Barbosa, who was killed at the battle of Placilla; Senors McKenna and Eastman, the government newspape offices and the houses of several pr officials were burned to the ground.

The city was panic stricken, business was suspended, and people, outside of the mob, kept close to their houses. The sky was lurid with the light from burning

The police, the fire department, and the army was demoralized and made not the semblance of an attempt to maintain Balmaceds, when he heard of the fall Baimaceda, when he heard of the fair of Valparsias, sent for General Haque-dano, commander of the government troops in Santiago, to meet him at three c'clock yesterday afternoon at Moneda. This Baquedano declined to do, but suggested that the meeting be held in the house of General Valasquez.

Decided to Surrender. A council of war was held at Valas-quez's house, at which President Balma-ceda the generals and other leading Balmacedists were present. The situation was thorougaly canvassed, and it was de-cided that a further continuation of the struggle was hopeless and that the sur-render of the capital was the only proper Eaquedano was given charge of the city and was authorized to arrange the terms of the surrender with the Congressionalists. Word was at once sent to General Canto that all the troops in Santiago had declared their adhesion to the Congressional party and that Santiago was at his disposal.

This despatch was supplemented to-day by a letter from Baquedano, which came by special train, and in care of a committee of leading citizens of Santiago.

Vanderblit Will Pay.

New York, Aug. 31 .- F. W. Vanderbilt will pay the 45 per cent. duty which amounts to $34,000, on his foreign built yacht Conqueror, under protest, and the case will be carried to the courts to make a test of the constitutionality of the law. A test of the constitutionality of the law.
As soon as the papers are made out and signed the custom inspectors now in possession of the yacht at Stapleton, L. I., will be withdrawn and the beat again become the property of Mr. Vanderbilt.
The general opinion of the most expertenced customs officials of this port is hat the courts will sustain Mr. Vandertilt.

To Meet in Joint Debate.

Pitrsuung, Aug. 31.—A special from Cincinnati says that Major McKinley and Governor Campbell are to meet in joint debate at Ada on some Saturday In Sep-tember. Prof. H. S. Lehr, of the North-western Ohio Normal University, has been the chief mover in the matter, and has promises from both the leaders to meet on the same platform. Excursion trains will be run from all sections of the country about Ada. Twelva hundred students of the University will be part of the audience.

Military Affairs in France.

Pauls, Aug. 31.—Captain Borrap, mil-itary attache of the United States Government here, has been assigned to represent America at the great military manuscrives on the eastern frontier of France this autumn. The Dispute Settled.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—Both of the holy coats have been pronounced genuina.
The Congregation of Rites has decided that the holy coat of Treves was the one worn by Christ at the crucifixion, while the holy coat of Argenteuil in France, belonged to the Saviour when he was a boy. Thus the dispute is settled, and now there are two holy costs. Parts Welcoming Daly's Company.
