AFFAIRS CAUGHT HASTILY.
What News Gatherers Take a Moment to Tell About.

First day of autumn.
Summer is ended.
Theatricals next.
School children are numerous.
Book stores were crowded yesterday.
The oyster season commences to-day.
The farmers bring in lots of country produce.
The Supervisor is getting the streets in trim for the winter.

Stop borrowing your neighbor's HERALD. It is much better to subscribe for your own paper.

Business men should make a strong bid for patronage by advertising in the local papers.

Fruit jars are still a source article. Family jars are not.

The time for planting fall advertisements is here.

Labor day—the next holiday—comes Monday next.

The last rose of summer will soon be blooming alone.

The chestnut trees give promise of a large crop this year.

The American people do more traveling than any other nation.

More than two out of every seven survivors of the war are dead.

Our merchants are beginning to look up goods for the fall season.

Come to the HERALD office when you want fine printing done.

This is the season of the year when attention should be paid to health.

The farmer who hides his light under a bushel incurs the risk of needing a new barn.

Watermelon is said to be about as healthy a thing as one can eat at this season of the year.

Men stumble over straws on the way to heaven, but climb mountains on the way to destruction.

Let the weather be what it may from now on, the backbone of summer is now broken.

There are times when the best of people would hate to tell what they are thinking about.

It is said an insect is injuring the buckwheat, a grain that has hitherto been free from such ravages.

It will soon be time to shoot squirrels—probably considerably more legal to kill them than they used to be.

The watermelon is a native of Africa so that the colored people's fondness for it seems to be a matter of heredity.

Guessing at the number of seeds in a watermelon is the latest way of betting. The average number is over six hundred.

Nothing restrains a man from knocking some other man down, so much as the knowledge that they are too big to be knocked down.

If you voted on age at the election last fall, you must be assessed and pay a county tax in order to vote at the November election. Thursday next is the last day for registration.

Ashtand Record.
The Ringtown fair was held this week but few people knew anything about it. This comes from trying to run a fair without the use of printer's ink.

The political bums and two-faced frauds who invest both parties are now rubbing their hands in ghoulish glee in anticipation of the fine plucking they will have. The candidates of both parties should combine to squelch them from the very start.

Lakeside has become one of the most popular resorts in the region. On Thursday the Mahanoy City Democracy held possession of the grounds, and made Rome howl.

Ashtand Local.
There is no danger of the Democrats of Schuylkill profiting this year from Republican dissensions. The party is united and will use its best endeavor for the success of the excellent ticket nominated.

Mahanoy Tribune.
Senator King helped to engineer the nomination of George J. Wadlinger for Judge, and later on will undertake to engineer his election. He will bid largely for Republican votes in order to elect the whole county ticket, but the Republicans cannot afford to be so generous, when the safety of their whole ticket is at stake.

The Republicans of Mahanoy City will be solicited for lots of complimentary votes this fall. They should remember that heretofore they have been doing all the giving and getting none in return.

Coming Events.
Sept. 1.—Ice cream and bench festival in Robbins' opera house under the auspices of All Saints' Episcopal Sunday school.
Sept. 2.—Japanese ice cream festival in Robbins' opera house, under the auspices of Shenandoah Commandery, No. 14, Sons of America.
Sept. 12.—Farewell picnic of Columbia Glee Club.

COMMITTEE MEETING
Assessment of Candidates Agreed Upon.

The Republican County Executive Committee met in the office of M. C. Reinhold, Esq., of Potomac, Monday morning. A general plan of campaign was agreed upon and the assessments of candidates fixed.

Chairman James read a letter from M. C. Reinhold, Secretary of the County Committee, declining the position, "for reasons non-political and entirely personal to himself." The following resolutions on the death of Poor Director Charles R. Kane were adopted.

Resolved, That we, the Republican Executive Committee of Schuylkill county, deeply regret his untimely demise, and offer to the family of the deceased our condolence and sympathy.

Resolved, That the resolutions be published in the Republican papers of the county, and a copy be engrossed and sent to the bereaved family.

The committee will meet again on Thursday.

Home Friendly's Promptness.
To the Officers of the Home Friendly Society, of Baltimore, Md.

Gentlemen:—We hereby return our thanks this day for the promptness with which we were protected in the face of poverty, caused by the death of our beloved mother, Mary Scanlan, for which we received in full this day, through your superintendent, William T. Evans, and agent, David T. Williams, the sum of eighty-two dollars ($82). We cannot speak as highly as we wish to recommend this company before the public for its promptness in assisting the needy in time of distress. Therefore, we advise all families to have protection by enrolling their names with this company.

STRAW HATS
A BIG SALE IN STRAW HATS

STRAW HATS show the way the wind blows, but they don't show what hard blows we have been striking at every hot period. So we have decided to give away these hats with us at double the money. If what covers your head is not becoming to you, all the pains you take as to the rest of your attire are simply thrown away. Consider how you will look in one of our straw hats. There's no use in giving any further description of them than to say this—they are stylish. We cut the price down because we want to cut our stock down. Another big bargain in hats is our $1 black stiff hats.
