Eva Hamilton's Debut on the Stage.

ROOSTERS, N. J., Sep. 2.—Mrs. Eva Mann, or Mrs. Robert Ray Hamilton, as she prefers to call herself, made her debut on the theatrical stage here last night. Her posters state that "Mrs. Robert Ray Hamilton, the most famous woman in the world, will appear in a play entitled 'A Mistake.'"

A Deep Scheme.

Tourist.—That is an odd setting for a photograph gallery—a grand oak limb with a dangling noose and a background of a hovel's nook.

Oklahoma Photographer.—That's a little invention of my own. Lots of newcomers from the east have their pictures taken with that noose around their necks, to send back where they come from. It is cheaper than paying their debts and easier than getting a divorce.—Jury.

Childish Logic.

Miss Birdie McGinnis complains of headache. Her little sister Mollie has toothache. Miss Birdie says: "Mollie, you must have that tooth pulled if it aches. It is hollow inside."

"Sister Birdie, don't your head ache?" "Yes."

"Then you must have your head pulled. It's hollow inside."—Texas Sitings.

A Cheecher.

Jones was greatly annoyed by a beggar who had followed him for some distance.

"Only a nickel, sir. I haven't had a mouthful since yesterday."

"What's the use, my good fellow?" snapped out Jones, angered into speech.

"You're sure to be hungry again tomorrow."—Judge.

A Prominent Personage.

Jawkins—Who is that man yonder who goes along with his nose in the air?

Hogg—S'! He's a mighty important personage. His picture and biography are in all the papers.

Jawkins—What has he done?

Hogg—He's the man who was cured of catarrh.—Judge.

An Unsolicited Compliment.

Dr. Binles (the family physician)—I'm afraid your wife is in a very serious condition, Mr. Tangle.

Tangle—That's just what I've thought for some time, Dr. Binles, and I've been telling her all along that she ought to have a better doctor.—Munsey's Weekly.

A Deary Prospect.

First Tramp (glancing over a bit of paper)—Say, Mike, here's a new society a-startin' up, ter furnish work for th' idle.

Second Tramp—Things is gettin' so there ain't no comfort for a gentleman nowhere.—N. Y. Weekly.

A Healthy Patient.

Young Moneybags—Doctor, I want you to prescribe me a trip to Newport.

Doctor—And for what disease will that be a cure?

Young Moneybags—Why, for a longing to go to Newport, of course.—Munsey's Weekly.

Pulled Both Ways.

"Barrows lacks decision. He never goes one way or the other."

"What could you expect? He has a porous plaster on his back and another on his chest."—N. Y. Sun.

A Poor Recommendation.

Salesman—Now this carpet, madam, can't be beat.

Mrs. Muldoon—Indeed an' how in the world would I get the dust out of it?—Munsey's Weekly.

The Leader of the Pair.

Grafton (to Baboon, with big dog)—I can't see why you go 'round with that indolent beast.

Baboon—I don't, dear boy; he goes 'round with me.—Judge.

For the Best Reasons.

"Keep your face towards the foe always, my son."

"Why, father?"

"Then you'll never be shot in the back."—Munsey's Weekly.

Great Luck.

Jones (just washed the fishing-grounds)—What kind of luck are you havin', Brown?

Brown—First-rate. Been here an hour and hasn't fell in yet.—Judge.

Yender.

"I feel it just as much, my dear little boy," said papa after he had spanked Billykins.

"Y-y-y," sobbed Billykins. "B-but n-not in the s-s-same p-p-place."—Life.

An Equivalent.

She—His marriage ceremony! Why, the girl had little or nothing!

He—Yes, but he owed her father.—Life.

What Did She Mean?

Cora—What would you do if you had a voice like mine?

Dora—I should be very careful not to overwork it.—Jury.

Couldn't Fool Him.

"Them's not tematies," said Johnny when the tomato patch was shown him.

"Tematies grows in big ped cans."—Judge.

ACCUSED OF IRREGULARITIES

An Effort to Remove Philadelphia's Mercantile Appraisers.

PHILADELPHIA, Sep. 2.—City Treasurer W. K. Wright has forwarded a letter to Auditor-General McCamant, asking that he join with him in the dismissal of Mercantile Appraisers Edward N. Patton, Albert Crawford, Samuel F. Houseman, Harry Hunter and James F. Bell, constituting the present Board of Mercantile Appraisers for the City and County of Philadelphia, and makes the following charges against them:

1.—That the appraisers have regularly and deliberately, for the purpose of defrauding the State, assessed fictitious persons and those from whom no payment of mercantile taxes was or could be exacted.

2.—That they have regularly exempted from the payment of the tax those who were subject to and perfectly able to pay it.

3.—That they have grossly underrated many hundreds of prominent merchants and dealers for purposes best known to themselves.

4.—That they sent out notices of assessment picturing certain taxpayers in a high class, while they have returned them to this department as assessed in a lower class, thus enabling third parties to collect from the taxpayers the larger sum while the smaller amount only was paid into the treasury and the State was defrauded of the difference.

5.—That their plan as to reduction and exemption has been a systematic scheme of swindling, which has resulted invariably in oppression to the citizen, in loss to the State and in demoralization to the community.

The Union Pacific Runners.

New York, Sep. 2.—Speaking of certain rumors regarding changes in the Union Pacific management, a prominent stockholder said today: "I have not heard that Gould, Sage or Dillon have sold any of their Union Pacific holdings as is reported. They are all heavy subscribers to the debt certificates and it would be hardly likely for them to sell out at this time. Upwards of three-quarters of the debt certificates are now placed and the amount is being steadily increased. I do not know whether Mr. Dillon is going to resign or not."

Murdered a New York Policeman.

New York, Sep. 2.—The brutal murder yesterday of Policeman John J. Sherman by the negro, Francis Noah, in the apartment house in Harlem has cast a deep gloom over the Harlem Police Station, to which Sherman was attached. An examination by doctors showed that the policeman's throat was cut from ear to ear, and that he died from loss of blood. As the negro was being transferred to the One Hundredth Street Station, an angry crowd followed, and at one time it looked as if an attempt would be made to lynch him.

Confessed to Murder But Released.

WHEELING, W. Va., Sep. 2.—Curtis Willis, who has been under arrest here charged with the murder of Rosa Watts, on a boat some time ago, has been released, the Grand Jury having brought in a true bill for murder against a man named Morris Davis. Willis a short time ago made a confession, in which he described the crime and said he did the killing. The jury, however, refused to entertain his story. The murder was a brutal one, and the case has excited much interest.

A Remarkable Phenomenon Promoted.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sep. 2.—Prof. Lewis Swift, of the Warner Observatory, calls attention to a remarkable phenomenon soon to occur, never yet seen by any human eye. During the morning hours of September 4 Wolf's periodic comet will pass directly over that well known cluster, the Pleiades, popularly called the seven stars. The phenomenon is considered by astronomers of great importance aside from its never having been witnessed.

Wants Possession of His Yacht.

New York, Sep. 2.—Frederick W. Vanderbilt, owner of the yacht Conqueror, held by the Custom House authorities for a libel, through his attorney has filed a bill in the United States District Court against his own vessel. He states that the Conqueror was built at Glasgow; that he bought her there; that he is a member of the Royal Mersey Yacht Club, and that his yacht is enrolled on that club's list. He asks that he may be placed in possession of the yacht.

To Protest Against the Panama Seizure.

CAPE MAY POINT, N. J., Sep. 2.—The President has directed the State Department to enter a strong protest with Minister Pacheco, for the Salvadoran authorities, against the seizure of the City of Panama when that vessel calls at Central American ports on her return passage. He suggests diplomacy as the means to settle the difficulty, and conveys the impression in his instructions that American property will be protected at all hazards.

Colonel Cogswell Again Rejected.

CONCORD, N. H., Sep. 2.—The Governor's Council has again rejected the nomination of Col. Thomas Cogswell as Railroad Commissioner. The two Democratic members of the Council then presented to the Governor the name of a gentleman whom they had agreed upon, and requested that he be nominated. Both they and the Governor decline to say who the proposed nominee is. The Governor has taken the matter into consideration.

Working on the Barnaby Case.

DENVER, Col. Sep. 2.—District Attorney Stevens has just obtained an injunction from Judge Alben restraining the Western Union Telegraph Company from destroying any telegrams which may have passed between Dr. T. Thatcher Graves and friends in Rhode Island while the doctor was in this city before and after the death of Mrs. Barnaby.

An Accessory to a Criminal Operation.

BOSTON, Sep. 2.—John N. Winkley, of the firm of Winkley & Maddox, ice dealers, has been held in $2,300 for the grand jury on the charge of being an accessory after the fact to a criminal operation committed upon the person of Alice E. Richardson, a girl of 20, who died in Somerville on July 7.

Believed to Have Been Drowned.

MABLEHEAD, Mass., Sep. 2.—William O. Tucker and William Garvin, who left here on August 19 in a dory for a trip along the coast, have not been heard from since the 30th inst., when they put out in Annisquam, and it is feared they have been drowned.

AT NEW YORK PROHIBITIONISTS.

In Convention at Albany To-day—A Regular State Ticket Likely.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sep. 2.—The Prohibition State convention was called to order in Harman's Bleeker Hall this morning by Clay Bascom of Troy, who is a member of the executive committee. After the temporary organization a recess was taken until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Francis Baldwin, chairman of the State Executive Committee and a resident of Elmira, says this morning that the real work of the convention would be done tomorrow.

"Besides the liquor question we have other great issues to settle," he said, "the farmers' question in all its different bearings, and the labor problem, and the advanced and wise position taken by our papers and prominent men is such that it places the Prohibition party before the people in a right attitude upon these questions, and if a fight this fall is waged with wisdom and discretion we shall see a great advance of our principles and our party."

It is understood to-day that a regular State ticket will be nominated, but so far no slate has been prepared, and it is claimed there is no consensus of opinion. It is hinted that there is a sentiment in favor of the possible Republican nominee, Andrew D. White.

The Army Worm Appears in Germany.

BERLIN, Sep. 2.—The appearance of the army worm, as it is called, in the Harz district, has given rise to forebodings among the peasantry of the approach of war. It is said that the presence of this worm or grub has always been followed at an early date by war and famine. The grub does not injure the crops, eating only fallen leaves or vegetable refuse.

Non-Union Men Assaulted.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Sep. 2.—The company officers offer a reward of $500 for the apprehension of the parties who assaulted the several men yesterday who have taken the place of strikers at the Catawagum Manufacturing Company. It is thought the strikers had a hand in the matter. Several arrests have been made.

His Accounts Short, He Resigns.

Cleared away

—all the troubles and ailments that make woman's life a burden to her. She's relieved, cured, and restored, with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Periodical pains, weak back, bearing-down sensations, nervous prostration, all "female complaints," are cured by it. It improves digestion, enriches the blood, dispels aches and pains, brings refreshing sleep, and restores health and strength.

It's a powerful general, as well as uterine, tonic and nerve, imparting vigor and strength to the entire system. Contains no alcohol to inebriate; no syrup or sugar to derange digestion; a legitimate medicine—not a beverage.

If you're a tired, nervous, or suffering woman, then the "Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine that's guaranteed, in every case, to bring you help. If it doesn't give you satisfaction, you have your money back.
