AFFAIRS CAUGHT HASTILY.
What News Gatherers Take a Moment to Tell About.

Clean the privy wells.
The potatoes are rotting.
Buckwheat cake time is not very far off.
The new moon's crescent is seen in the west.
Shellbarks promise to be plenty this year.
What we learn with pleasure we never forget.
Caught napping—the moth found in cloth.
This is the month for the autumnal equinox.

Plums were never so plenty or fine as this year.
Some of the milk dealers put too much water in their wares.
More nevelity is hatched where loafing is permitted than anywhere else.
Sweet elder is retailed on the street by farmers in pint and quart measures.
The housewife who has not a sufficient quantity of preserves and canned fruit for winter has herself to blame.

It is unfortunate to farmers that after a great promise of an abundant crop, that the potatoes are rotting and that they will not have sufficient for seedling purposes next year.
There is considerable malaria in town, owing to the filthy condition of some of the alleys and the overflowing privy wells. Had we a Board of Health this state of affairs would not exist 48 hours.

Throwing rotten fruit and other refuse upon the streets should be stopped and the parties who insist on doing so arrested and punished.
The boys and girls will soon be building pleasant stories upon their experiences of the past summer. These things are always more beautiful, you know, in the soft light of retrospect.

To Dispel Colds,
Headaches and Fevers, or cleanse the system effectually, yet gently, when castive or bilious, or when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently cure habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity, without irritating or weakening them, use Syrup of Figs.

PENSION APPROPRIATIONS.
Commissioner Baum says There is a Surplus of Something Like $8,000,000.
Washington, Sep. 9.—Pension Commissioner Baum says that instead of asking Congress for a deficiency in pension appropriations he will report a surplus of something like $8,000,000.
The deficiency made good by Congress last winter aggregated $31,000,000 and the last pension appropriation appears to have exceeded the requirements to the amount of $8,000,000, which was due to over-estimates of the cost of the General Dependent Pension law.

Big Fire in New York.
New York, Sep. 9.—The fire in the immense five-story storage warehouse of R. C. Layton, at 63 and 64 South street yesterday afternoon, gutted three buildings before it was got under control. Five firemen were burned, two of them very seriously. At least 50 business houses had goods on storage in the building and among the contents were chemicals, drugs, jute, teas, spices, shellac and a variety of general merchandise. The loss is estimated by R. C. Layton at $250,000.

Inventor Kniff's Success.
Boston, Sep. 9.—Inventor James Kniff and his associates, who have just gained from the United States Court in New York an important decision establishing their right to recover royalties from New York city for the use of a patent valve on fire engines, brought a similar suit against this city in 1844, but an agreement was reached, the plaintiff getting a judgment of $1,000. The city of Worcester also settled its suit on the same basis.

A Keystone Bank Witness in Wisconsin.
PHILADELPHIA, Sep. 9.—A special from Milwaukee says: It is learned that ex-State Treasurer William Livesey of Pennsylvania, who is wanted in Philadelphia to testify in the Keystone Bank investigation, has been migrating between Watertown, Wis., and this city for the past three weeks visiting his daughters. He was last seen here Sunday night. His relatives here refuse to make a statement of any kind.

World's Fair Appointments.
CHICAGO, Sep. 9.—President Potter Palmer has appointed among others the following permanent Commissioners on Legislation of World's Fair: W. A. Van Gorton, J. W. Woodside, Pa. Miss F. W. Bredel, Mass., and A. A. Wilson, District of Columbia. The committee will go before Congress and make arguments for the $5,000,000 loan.

Death of an Old Wilmington Man.
WILMINGTON, Del., Sep. 9.—Charles Warner, aged 75 years, a retired merchant, for many years at the head of the coal and transportation firm which still bears his name, died here last evening. The firm of the Charles Warner Company has been in existence under different names since 1794.

HEAVY GRAPE CROP.
Not in Fourteen Years Have the Garden State Vineyards Done So Well.
MAY'S LANDING, N. J., Sep. 8.—The grape crop in South Jersey just coming in promises to be the biggest crop in 14 years. For the past few years growers have been discouraged by the damage done by the rot, but this year they expect to reap rich rewards from their vine yards.
The wine vaults at Egg Harbor, which are the largest in the country, will be filled up with the choicest wine for the first time in 15 years. It is estimated that 300,000 gallons of wine will be made at Egg Harbor City alone, most of which will be put in vaults. After it is a year or so old it is sold and commands high prices.

Senator Hawley's Denial.
NEW HAVEN, Sep. 8.—Senator Hawley was seen by a correspondent at the Pembroke Hotel, Woodmont, where he is stopping, with view to ascertaining what truth there was in the rumor that he had been consulting with President Harrison at Cape May, relative to succeeding Secretary of War Proctor. The Senator declared that there was absolutely no truth in the report. "I haven't seen President Harrison," he added, "since last May and he hasn't sent for me. The matter referred to never entered my mind and I do not know that any of my friends have asked the place for me."

Mataafa Still Trying to Make Trouble.
SAN FRANCISCO, Sep. 8.—News from Samoa, by steamer Mariposa, is that the country is in a state of great unrest. Mataafa is still at Malia with 800 or 400 men, and has sent out messengers again to raise a party in his behalf. It is generally understood the Government is only awaiting the arrival of an English warship to punish the natives who refuse to obey Malletoa. Unless some action is taken without delay there will probably be trouble.

Naval Officers on a Jaunt.
PORTLAND, Me., Sep. 8.—The principal officers of the White Squadron to the number of 75 are on a trip to the top of Mount Washington. These they will go to the Glen House and return here from Glen Station. The war vessels are open for inspection and are crowded with visitors.

STRAWS show the way the wind blows, but they don't show what hard blows we have been striking at straw hat prices. Some hats are dear at any price; those hats are cheap at double the money. If what covers your head is not becoming to you, all the pains you take as to the rest of your attire are simply thrown away. Come and see how you will look in one of our straw hats. There's no use in giving any further description of them than to say this—they are stylish. We cut the price down because we want to cut our stock down. Another big bargain in hats is our $1 black stiff hats.
