THE SURE ROAD TO OPULENCE LIES KNEE-DEEP THROUGH PRINTER'S INK

McKINLEY DID IT

A town business man yesterday showed a HERALD reporter a circular he had just received from a New York City firm reading as follows: "The McKinley bill having advanced the duty on gold and silver medals to 50 per cent. (free of duty heretofore), it is impossible to import them in future and sell them at the old prices. We have therefore begun the manufacture of medals in our New York factory for chalices, etc., and, having made new dies with correct English texts. The following list will show we are prepared to make them now at the old price." The members of the firm are Democrats, too.

This is a great country. It can feed the whole world and still give its owners meat three times a day and bread and butter between meals.

The country is richer to-day than it was in 1860. Then there were $13.55 for each inhabitant; now there is $24.10. Republican rule and protection are the cause of the change for the better.

SHENANDOAH is fortunate in this particular: Our business men are united in all matters of public enterprise. They only have to contend against the little two-for-a-nickle fellows to carry any broad-gauge measure that will build up the town and advance its interests.

CLOSELY following the wholesale denunciations of State Treasurer Boyer by the Democratic Convention, comes the testimony of Governor Pattison before the Legislative Investigation committee, which as far as the Governor could go, vindicates the State Treasurer from the charges of speculating in state funds. The Governor testified that the bank of which he was President had state deposits of many thousands of dollars, but had paid no interest on the same nor given any other consideration for its use.

Other bank cashiers of Philadelphia, whose banks had state funds on deposit, gave the same testimony. Thus do the Democratic standards fall to the ground even upon the testimony of a Democratic Governor.

AN Associated-Press dispatch from London, giving the views of leading manufacturers in England, Scotland and Ireland, on the McKinley bill, reveals the fact that the hope of the foreign manufacturer is concentrated in the belief that the result of the next election will be against the tariff. Acting upon this belief they are reducing the cost of manufacture by reducing wages and are thus able to keep up the volume of their sales in many kinds of wares. They frankly admit that if America sustains the tariff their business will be greatly curtailed, therefore the fight of 1892, so far as the American working man is concerned, resolves itself into one for bread, for if the free traders should succeed in electing a free trade President and a free trade Congress next year, it will be a victory in the interest of the British manufacturer and opposed to the best interests of American labor.

THE census gives Pennsylvania a population of 5,258,014. This makes her larger numerically than many nations of whom the world hears much, and her people average much higher than theirs in wealth, education, intelligence, and industrial skill. Here are the populations of some of them for comparison:

Argentina Republic.....	5,028,000
Belgium.....	5,531,275
China.....	2,527,321
Denmark.....	1,989,059
France.....	3,576,425
Netherlands.....	4,396,012
Norway.....	1,913,097
Peru.....	2,523,624
Portugal.....	4,716,778
Romania.....	5,276,000
Spain.....	1,961,350
Sweden.....	4,652,769
Switzerland.....	2,968,750

REMEMBER your taxes must be paid before Oct. 3, or you cannot vote in November. It is an important matter and requires prompt attention.

It is gratifying to note that Pension Commissioner Raum reports to-day there will be a surplus of $8,000,000 in pension appropriations instead of the expected deficiency.

Always go to Coslett's, South Main street, for your prime oysters. 8-22-1f

BOROUGH BUDGET

A FIGHT ON THE DIVISION OF THE WARDS.

EXCEPTIONS FILED YESTERDAY.

A Museum Floor Goes Down. Fortunately Nobody Seriously Injured—More Base Ball Prosecutions.

The following exceptions to the report of the commissioners appointed to report on the expediency of dividing the wards of this borough were presented to the courts at Pottsville yesterday and ordered filed:

First. The petition is void because it asks for a division of wards already created into two or more wards and to erect new wards out of parts of two or more wards, &c., and is therefore bad for duplicity.

Second. There are a sufficient number of wards already existing in the said borough, and the creation of four additional wards will render the borough council and school board of said borough too cumbersome for good government of the said borough and school district.

Third. That said ward could be divided into a sufficient number of voting precincts without disturbing the present arrangement of the ward, and thus accommodate the voters of the borough without disturbing the present municipal divisions.

Fourth. The division as made by the said Commissioners is neither made of compact and contiguous territory as nearly equal in population as Pottsville, but are composed of districts of narrow width and great length and very inconvenient to the voters of said new district.

Fifth. That said new wards as laid out by the said Commissioners are not of equal population but are of largely unequal population.

The exceptions were filed by John A. Nash, Esq., the attorney for the parties who opposed the petitioners when the hearing was had in this town some weeks ago.

Mr. Hollenper, attorney for the petitioners, says that arguments on the exceptions will probably be made before the court next week.

A CRASH.

A Floor in a Museum Goes Down.

The store room in Robbins' building on South Main street, formerly occupied by C. T. Rice, has been occupied by an Egyptian mummy museum the past few days. Last night about 150 men and boys crowded into the place. The weight was too great for the floor and down it went. The sound of falling lumber, combined with the shrieks of fright by the timid and oaths of the unterrified made the place a pandemonium. The north end of the floor broke from its fastenings and the south end retained a hold upon the foundation wall, forming a toboggan slide, and down went the men and boys into a heap, with the museum manager and a couple of Egyptian mummies on top. The drop was about eight feet, but fortunately no one sustained more than a few scratches. An examination of the place showed that when the building was put up the carpenters found that their joists were too short and they rested them upon a 4x2 piece fastened with spikes to serve as a girder.

Seff's Announcement.

On Saturday next Seff will receive at his original bargain store on South Main street, next door to Phillips' drug store, a large and full stock of boots and shoes. The stock will be sold at greatly reduced prices. Seff's is the original bargain store and the only place where the people of this town can secure genuine bargains. He sells as he advertises and everything purchased there may be relied upon as being the best that can be secured in the market. Don't forget the place next Saturday and see the new stock. You will save money by doing it. 9-10-3f

The Base Ball Cases.

John Lorch, the teamster, was before Squire Dengler last night, charged with desecrating the sabbath by driving a base ball club to and from Lost Creek a few Sundays ago. Mr. Lorch was directed to pay a fine of $4. If it is not paid Squire Dengler will issue an attachment. Mr. Lorch is inclined to fight the case.

Concert Each Evening.

Marine Band, is home on a vacation and will play at his parents' home, the Kendrick House, each evening, rendering some of the most difficult and popular solos of the day, accompanied by the Kendrick orchestra. ### A Jolly Gathering.

(Comments-1891.)

A very sociable gathering of the Shenandoah Choral Union was held at the Watson House, Tuesday evening. The main feature of the gathering was the presentation of a very handsome badge to their leader, Prof. P. T. Evans. The badge is an elegant piece of workmanship and the professor may feel proud of it. The presentation speech was made by Mr. J. J. Price, the Main street dry goods merchant, who stated that the badge was not given in compensation for services rendered, but was a token of the high esteem in which the gallant leader is held by the choir. Mr. Evans responded in a neat little speech thanking the choir and also advising them not to be least discouraged by the defeat they suffered at Lakeside, but to be firm with the determination to win back their laurels at an early period. The choir then opened the evening programme by singing "Shatter the Bonds," which excellent piece was followed by "Hail to the Heroes," which was ably sung by Mr. Thomas Davis, of Wm. Penn. Then, at the request of Mr. John Phillips, Messrs. Evans and Price sang "The Two Bards." Mr. Evans then announced Master George Henry Phillips, who gave that grand old song "The Sword of Bunker Hill." The balance of the programme consisted of a song by Miss Mary Jenkins, recitation by Miss L. Boyan, and song by Mr. Thomas Davis. The choir then adjourned to the spacious dining room of the Watson House, where they partook of all the delicacies of the season. On returning to the parlors the choir was met by the Hon. T. J. Higgins and Mr. J. A. Reilly, who desired to hear some selections, among which was "Hallelujah Chorus" and "The Summer." It is needless to say that both gentlemen were delighted. In fact so well pleased that both gentlemen showed their appreciation by making a handsome donation to the party. In concluding the evening's entertainment the choir sang "The Quarryman's Chorus," after which every one left for home satisfied that they had spent a royal evening.

An Explanation.

Mr. Enright:—It is due to the gentlemen who appeared as prosecutors of the Sunday base ball players that an explanation of their action should be made public. As a result of a large public meeting committees were officially appointed by the general churches to devise some method of securing a better observance of the sabbath among us. At a subsequent meeting of these committees a volunteer sub-committee of one from each church and one at-large was appointed to bring such propositions as might be agreed upon. It was decided to make Sunday base ball the first object of attack, because more people are implicated in it and because its very popularity is leading so many of our young people astray.

From this it will appear that the prosecutors are acting not for themselves, but in behalf of the churches who are behind them and stand pledged to their support. These prosecutions, and others that are likely to follow, are not petty prosecutions growing out of personal grudges, but the first exhibitions of a movement on the part of a considerable number of intelligent, upright and determined men and women who seek nothing but the welfare of the community through the enforcement of the law. The persons against whom prosecutions may be pressed have no truer friends than they will find in the persons who press them the moment they "cease to do evil and learn to do well." In behalf of law and order, I am very truly yours, Wm. Powick, Pastor Methodist Episcopal Church, Shenandoah, Pa., Sept. 10, 1891.

W. G. T. U. MEETING

PROCEEDINGS AT THE MAHANOY CITY CONVENTION.

AN INDICTMENT AGAINST TOOLE

The Grand Jury Returns a True Bill—A Grand Demonstration.

G. A. R. at Mt. Carmel Yesterday.

The county convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union was held in Mahanoy City yesterday. All the unions in the county were represented. The reports of work being done along the lines of scientific temperance instruction, mothers' meetings, railroad work, press, juvenile and literature were most encouraging.

There has been distributed by the Shenandoah union 5,200 pages of temperance literature. Mahanoy City distributed 10,000 pages and the Shenandoah "Y" 150 tracts. They have also distributed 15 baskets of flowers, two baskets of fruit and have visited nine sick persons.

The county union decided to have a county banner with the laurel as the emblematical flower and the motto, "In His Name We Conquer."

All the local unions are to have banners but have not decided as to the flower or motto.

The convention was well attended by persons who are not members and encouraging addresses were made by ministers and others in attendance.

At the evening meeting there was a crowded house and several stirring addresses were made.

G. A. R. DAY.

A Glorious Time at Mt. Carmel Yesterday.

Grand Army Day, at Mt. Carmel yesterday, proved a decided success. The procession was one of the finest ever seen in that bustling burg. The weather was delightful and the programme was carried out to the letter. It is estimated that fully 15,000 people witnessed the demonstration. All day long the town was crowded with visiting Grand Army Posts, Sons of Veterans, and people from all parts of Schuylkill and adjoining counties. Watkyns Post, No. 146, G. A. R., Henry Horne's Camp, No. 49, S. of V., the Grant Cornet Band, and a large delegation of citizens, numbering in all about 800, were in attendance. The Grand band made a hit and was enthusiastically received.

THE STATE FAIR.

It Will be Held at Bethlehem and Will Eclipse all Others.

The state fair, which will be held at Bethlehem this year, opening on Sept. 21st and closing on the 25th, will be a joint exhibition with the Bethlehem Fair and Driving Park Association, and will surpass all other exhibitions. Many horsemen will be present from all parts of the country, and excellent trials of speed are promised. Besides, there will be exhibitions daily by the famous equestrienne, Miss Nellie Burke, who has been secured at an enormous expense. Thursday will be Governor's day, and on Friday the Bremen tournament will take place. The premiums offered aggregate $12,000, are larger than ever before, and this alone is sufficient proof of a great exhibition. The racing premiums sum up $4,000, so that the races will be the finest. The grounds are large enough to accommodate 100,000 people. The people of Bethlehem and vicinity realize the great attraction of the state fair, and are very enthusiastic over the fast approaching event.
