TROUBLE EXPECTED. TOTAL

All Not Permony in the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen.

Galesaura, RL, Sep. 16. — There is trouble brewing in the ranks of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. Some months ago Grand Master Wilkinson, of the Brotherhood deposed the Board of Grand Trustoes selected by the Convention and appointed another set. This action caused a rupture in the organization and the break has been widening since. The trouble is a jeal-ousy among the members and differences of opinion as to the manner of conducting the business of the order.

Charges and countercharges are being made and they are preparing for a bitter fight.

The deposed Grand Trustees waited upon Grand Secretary Sheahan yester-day and informed him they were ready to transact business. Mr. Sheahan noti-fied them that he could not recognise

They demand a hearing and threaten to get out an injunction preventing the Trustees appointed by the Grand Master from auditing the accounts or transacting any of the duties of the Board. The Convention meets here next month.
