AFFAIRS CAUGHT HASTILY.

What News Gatherers Take a Moment to Tell About.

Full moon.
The hen doesn't seem to have much trouble in picking up a living.
There will be lots of sour kraut put up for next winter's consumption.
The next holiday will be Thanksgiving day, with its turkey, mince and pumpkin pies, etc.

It is announced that the cut of the winter overcoat will be easy "without being fulsome."

Be sure and pay your county tax by October 31, or you will be minus a few cents next November.

The crack of the shotgun is heard in the land. Gunners are plenty, but as a general thing game is scarce.

The corn crop is looking up in grand style, as if to give public notice that if wheat is to get ahead of it, it wants to know the reason why.

They say a bicycle parade at night with the bikes dressed in gay colors and illuminated with colored lanterns is a very pretty sight. Shall we have one?

To Dispel Colds,
Headaches and Fevers, to cleanse the system effectually, yet gently, when costive or bilious, or when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently cure habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity, without irritating or weakening them, use Syrup of Figs.

REGION 'ROUND.

A Budget of Interesting Articles on all Topics.

The Girardville base ball club has challenged the Lost Creek champions to play a game at Ashland for $100 a side. There is bad blood between the clubs.

John Leib, superintendent of the Sandy Run collieries, dropped dead Thursday evening. Heart disease is assigned as the cause.

Crawford Summers and Thos. Peart, miners employed at Burnside colliery, near Shamokin, had a thrilling experience and narrowly escaped with their lives Thursday afternoon. While engaged in their breast a rush of coal occurred which caught both men. Summers was knocked down and completely covered over by the running coal. Peart was more fortunate, being able to retain his feet, but he was fastened waist deep by the rush. Efforts were made to release Summers, but before anything could be done the second rush came. The coal was piled on top of the entombed man in tons, and every crevice whereby he had been able to breathe fresh air before was closed. He was buried two hours before being taken out. He was unconscious, his eyes were set and he was apparently dead from suffocation. However his fellow workmen endeavored to resuscitate him and finally succeeded. Strangely enough no bones were broken and no bruises sustained.
