Nearly every pattern of % Horse Blanket is imitated in color and style. In most cases the imitation looks just as good as the genuine, but it hasn't the warp threads, and so lacks strength, and while it sells for only a little less than the genuine it isn't worth one-half as much. The fact that % Horse Blankets are copied is strong evidence that they are THE STANDARD, and every buyer should see that the % trade mark is sewed on the inside of the Blanket.

STEALING HER CHILD

A Little Girl Kidnapped By Her Mother.

BUNDLED OFF IN A CARRIAGE.

The Pather Had Possession of the Child, But the Mother Wanted Her.

The Little Girl Spirited Away in Broad Daylight -- Unsuccessful Pursuit -- The Third Astempt at Selzare, the Other Two Having Pailed - The Result of an Unfortunate Marriage.

NEWARR, N. J., Sept. 23. - Eleven years ago John Johnson and Annie Bruckner pro-were married. Two children were born spi to them, Anna and Louise. Two years ago the parents drifted apart The father resided in this place, with the children, which the courts had given to him. The wife resided in Brocklyn.

Yesterday morning the two girls started for school. Anna was chatting with her elder sister, when suddenly, day. as they were passing along Prospect street, Anna was selzed by her mother and a strange man, and hurriedly lifted Into an open carriage, such as is used by doctors. Another man was scated in the Louise, the sister, clung to her mother. When she was beaten off she seized the spokes of the carriage and narrowly escaped serious injury by the sudden starting of the vehicle. The kidnapped child struggled as flercely as her feeble strength would permit. Her mother held her hand over her mouth to prevent her from cying out. She pressed so hard that blood spurted from her nose.

From Thomas street the carriage turned into Clinton avenue and went up the hill at unabated speed. The route had evidently been previously selected.

THE RUSH FOR HOMES.

The New Lands in Oklahoma Opened Amid Great Excitement.

GUTHERE, O. T., Sept. 23 .- With the arrival of the noon hour yesterday thouands of home-seekers made a headlong rush over the border into the lands opened for settlement. The rush was a mad one and was made so by the fact that the number of home-seekers greatly exceeded the number of quarter section available for settlement.

There was room in the new lands for about 5,000 settlers, allowing 150 acres for each. There were on the border wait-ing to claim the available land fully 15,000 people, making three persons for

The greatest rush was for the town lots which the Government surveyors have laid out so carefully, and not a few of which, despite the adoption of the ut-most precautions, will prove to have fallen into the hands of speculators.

Out of the million acres and more of new hard two towns have been formed and named, one being called Chandler and the other the southernmost, Te-

The Standard Oil Company is Germany.

Berlis, Sept. 23.—There has been as much discussion of the efforts of the Standard Oil Company of the United States to establish a German memopoly, that Mr. William Walter Phelps, the American Minister, requested the European agent of the Standard Oil Company, Mr. Libby, to present a report to him on the position of his company in Germany. The American Minister has just received the report. In it Mr. Libby declares that the policy of the Standard Oil Company is simply that of competitive commerce, dictated by a desire to sustain the consumption of American petroleum in Europe, in face of the active competition of other countries, especially that of Russia. Protests Against the New Railroad.

New York, Sep. 23.—A score or more owners and masters of vessels, with resi-dents of Lawrence and Far Rockaway, met yesterday in the engineer's room of the United States Army building, and laid before Lieut.-Col. Gillesple protests against the obstruction of navigation in Jamaica Bay by the New York & Rocka-way Railroad Company. There are two draws in the railroad trestle crossing the bay, one at what is known as Broad and the other at Beach Channel. These draws, it is alleged, are located in such positions as to obstruct navigation.
