AFFAIRS CAUGHT HASTILY.

What News Gatherers Take a Moment to Tell About.

A good many housewives complain that their fruit is not keeping well.

The fall bonnets have already begun to ripen, and the crop, as usual, will be a large one.

This is the mosquito season, and the pesky little tormentors are busy each and every night.

As the cool weather approaches the chunk of ice left at your door grows perceptibly larger.

The buckwheat cake and the pumpkin pie are among the rural charms now working their way into town.

Let the business man talk every day of hard times, and money will go and get tight. It cannot stand everything.

This is the most delightful season of the year to take an outing. Try it if you can spare the time and have a little surplus cash.

With the beginning of the fall is a proper time for considering how home can be made more pleasing. It should be an attractive spot for every one in the family circle.

The parachute has one shining advantage over the unloaded pistol—it kills only the one who uses it, and so cannot properly be regarded as dangerous to society.

Now is the time to put sidewalks in repair for the winter. If delayed much longer a good many walks which are badly in need of repair will remain in that condition until spring. Fix them up now.

Charity begins at home when you hand over to the poor your cast off clothing.

Every industrious person should try his hand at something, and if he does not succeed let him try both hands at it.

We see now fields of golden red and wild hollyhock—meadows of daisies and fragrant clover—the blue of a tranquil summer sky all over.

Guaranteed Cure.

We authorize our advertised druggist to sell Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, upon this condition. If you are afflicted with a Cough, Cold or any Lung, Throat or Chest trouble, and will use this remedy as directed, giving it a fair trial, and experience no benefit, you may return the bottle and have your money refunded. We could not make this offer did we not know that Dr. King's New Discovery would relieve you. It never disappoints. Trial bottles free at C. H. Hagenbuch's drug store. Large size 50c, and $1.00.

Tremendous big Indian show at Burke's opera house, Frackville, this evening.

A Budget of Interesting Articles on all Topics.

The Ashland Hotel, at Ashland, was partially destroyed by fire at 3 o'clock yesterday morning. The prompt assistance of the fire department saved the building from entire destruction. The loss will reach several thousand dollars. The fire started in a room on the second story from an unknown cause.

Mrs. John Davis, of Coles, who was brutally beaten by her husband, is still alive, notwithstanding reports to the contrary.

John Morris, of Girardville, disappeared from his home Friday, and since then his whereabouts are unknown. He is about 45 years old, is five feet nine inches in height, was clad in blue drilling, wore a winter cap and has a heavy moustache. His brain is slightly affected and he is subject to fits. He is a brother of Coal and Iron Superintendent David Morris, of Minersville.

The Lehigh Coal Company has effected an exchange with the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company of a tract of land near Middle Creek for a strip of land in the vicinity of Blackwood. This will enable the former company to work the Blackwood openings to the Dundas workings and will give the latter access at Middle Creek to all the top veins above the Primrose.
