Constitutional Convention Delegates.
ROBERT ALLISON, Port Carbon,
S. BURD EDWARDS, Pottsville,
J. H. POMEROY, Shenandoah,
JOHN J. COYLE, Mahanoy City.

HE'S ALL RIGHT.

County Chairman James is not conducting the Republican campaign on the brass band principle, yet he is further ahead in his campaign work than the astute chairman of the Democratic committee, notwithstanding the declarations of "Jack Smith" to the contrary. His headquarters in Pottsville have been open for several weeks past and no time has been wasted. Those who look upon Mr. James as a pumpkin will learn their mistake on the day after election. "Jack Smith's" last letter to the S'news had an I'm-at-sea tone about it that tickled the Republicans who read it. "Jack Smith" is not in a position this year to play the spy in the Republican camp for the benefit of the Democratic county chairman and, therefore, Mr. James appears idle to him. The Democrats need not worry, the Republican campaign can be satisfactorily conducted without the aid of "Jack Smith," or the S'news.

AT KEITER'S.

RHODE ISLAND has thirty-eight savings banks with $60,000,000 deposited in them. What a boon the postal savings banks will prove to the poor people of the United States when they are once introduced!

POSTMASTER COLE, of Pottsville, who is inspecting the post offices in this county, has almost completed his work. In the larger towns he found the offices, without exception, fully up to the mark.

Yes, turn on the light, and let it burn brightly, that the Senate investigation may be thorough. The Republican party has not hesitated to investigate and convict guilty parties and they will only be too well pleased to have Governor Pattison push his present plan of action as rapidly as possible. And let the Governor bear in mind that the eyes of the people are upon him and woe be to him and his party if his special session Senate call is a campaign dodge. The Republican Mayor, District Attorney and Judge, of Philadelphia, set a splendid example for him in the Bardsley case, so he has no excuse for delay.

Died.

FLOPPERT.—On the 28th inst., at Shenandoah, Pa., Michael Alwesius, son of Joseph and Elizabeth Floppert, aged 1 year and two days. Funeral will take place on Thursday, 1st inst., at 2 p. m., from the residence of the family, No. 229 West Centre street. Intment in the Annunciation cemetery. Friends and relatives respectfully invited to attend. 9-30-11

Obituary.

Joseph and Elizabeth Floppert, of West Centre street, mourn the loss, by death, of their son, Michael A., aged one year and two days. The funeral will take place at 2 p. m. to-morrow.

A Nuisance.

The residents of Jardin street, between Oak and Centre, complain about young men and women congregating on the pavements and making themselves a nuisance. It is hoped the police will do all they can to remedy the evil.

TOWN TALKER!

THOUGHTS ON THIS AND THAT THREADED TOGETHER.

THEMES TERSELY TABULATED

The Tattle of the Tattlers Timely
Taken and Told Typographically
in a Tasteful and Tempting Tone.

The suggestion made by an old citizen, and which appeared in the HERALD last week, is already bearing fruit.

At a meeting of one of the local secret societies the suggestion was debated, and resulted in an expression of sentiment favorable to the proposition.

It is thought the secret societies of the town can well afford to take a number of shares in such an undertaking, as it will place them in a position to lessen their burdens by providing employment for the widows and orphans of deceased members who are frequently left in distressing circumstances.

If the lodges could grasp this idea intelligently the co-operative industrial movement would soon start out with 250 shares subscribed.

The scheme suggested is on the building and loan association plan. With 500 shares subscribed there would be an income of $500 per month on payment of $1 per month on each share. This income would soon swell to a sum large enough to be used in securing satisfactory sites for buildings that could be used for factories.

The prime object would be to give employment to the large amount of surplus labor in the town, which would cause renewed activity in the circulation of money, directly benefit members of the subscribing societies, or their friends, or relatives, and give the business people of the town a renewed lease of prosperity.

"In union there is strength" and the scheme is one which would enable the man who is now unable to contribute a dollar towards helping to build up the town to become an important factor in making the place one of the industrial centers of the state.

Look at the result! Busy workshops of all kinds. New homes throughout the valley. Busy business men. Increased revenues for the borough. Permanent improvements. Enhanced values of properties. Would it not be a glorious result? Is it worth the attempt? Make a move.

Referring to the electric railway article in Monday's HERALD, one of our town friends remarked, "O, that wind pipe, the HERALD, is only trying to boom it again." The speaker was one of the individuals with long ears who make similar comments on all movements of progress. When gas was suggested as a substitute for tallow dips and camphene and fluid lamps they yelled "Wind." When electric lights were suggested as substitutes for gas burners they yelled "Wind." When the erection of a large theatre and a large hotel was advocated, "Wind," yelled the long-eared men. When the HERALD suggested that it would be a good idea to run a railroad down the mountain from Frackville it was "Wind" again. The truth is the wind all comes from the long-eared individuals. They are wind bags, and nothing else. They have no enterprise in them. They laugh and ridicule all enterprising projects, but when the schemes develop into a form promising profits they run forward to share them. The wind pipes like the HERALD were important factors in building up the country and the wind bags like the individual who made the expression quoted are responsible for the depressed industrial condition of affairs in Shenandoah to-day. More wind pipes and less wind bags are needed in this town. We will stake a silk hat that the wind bag who referred to the electric railway the other night will be the first to apply for a pass on the road.

POLITICAL.

The Republicans of this county propose to run the campaign this year without the aid of "Jack Smith" or the S'news.

Harry McGinnis must be a terrible bad fellow or he would not be held in such great dread by the Democrats.

George Heffner, candidate for Poor Director, is doing good work and the friends of Ebling are getting fearful that he may win.

Schuykill county is no more Democratic than Republican. The chances are good one way or the other with the odds in favor of the Republican party.

There are three candidates for District Attorney on the Republican side in the field already, viz: Shay, of Pottsville; Breckons, St. Clair, and Mac Wilhelm, Ashland.

Representative Bronnan, Democrat, will be a candidate for re-election next year. We propose to replace him and we have the man that can do it.

If the Democratic friends of Col. J. K. P. Scheffly are sincere this time, he will be given the nomination of one of the best paying hill offices next year. But, then, we don't believe they mean it.

We Rise to Remark

That the HERALD is doing right well, thank you.

That it is only a question of how large Judge Green's majority will be.

That the bell will shortly ring calling in the straw hats.

That car merchants would experience a greater boom if they would use printer's ink more freely.

That Pratt, the stove man, has a cooking stove that for cheapness and usefulness has no competitor.

That ball playing on the streets continues to the detriment of pedestrians and window panes.

That at no time this summer has our streets been so dusty than for the past two weeks.

That the HERALD job office is prepared to turn out good work at short notice and at reasonable prices.

That there are no flies on Chairman James as the Democrats will learn when too late.

That travel over the different railroads entering town show no decrease, although the excursion season is about over.

That if you want to take advantage of the special train to Pottsville on Thursday, and the cheap rate, you will have to purchase your tickets at the Pennsylvania depot.

That Shenandoah has two, if not three, of the First Defenders who will receive their medals on Thursday.

The Misses Lesiga have the largest stock of fall and winter millinery. 9-23-11

Foot Race.

A crowd of sports went to the trotting park to-day to witness a half mile foot race between Martin Fahy and Joseph McGarvey, both of town, for $50 a side. The race was announced to take place between 4 and 5 p. m. The match arose out of the result of an impromptu race when the Phoenix Hose Company held its last picnic in Columbia Park.

"Grimsey, Mo Boy!"

Next Friday evening, October 2nd, bright music, graceful dances, hand in hand with pretty girls, together with gay, clean fun, will have the call at Ferguson's theatre as that date will mark the appearance of Jas. B. Mackie, in the new musical burlesque, "Grimsey's Collar Door." This attraction has met with great success from the very start and a large, fashionable and enthusiastic audience is assured.

A Monster.

Little Patrick Cantwell, 14 years of age, of 213 Gilbert street, Shenandoah, had a tape worm removed by the Indian doctor who is now located at Frackville. The doctor guarantees to remove head and all, or no money to be paid. 9-24-daw-11

Enjoyable Time.

The choir of the Primitive Methodist church of town held a concert at Gilberton last evening for the benefit of the church of that denomination in the latter place. A neat little sum was realized, and the entertainment was pronounced by those present a very enjoyable affair.

WHAT THE SCRIBES SEE AND HEAR

Chief of Police Amour in a Race Against Williamsport Police for a Horse Thief—"Dr." Darwin the Man Sought.

Chief of Police Amour left town this morning for Middleburg with the hope of getting there and securing a horse thief ahead of the Williamsport authorities. The man sought for is a daring desperado for whom Amour has been in search several weeks.

The readers of the HERALD will remember that a few weeks ago J. C. Bower, of Dubolstown, Lycoming county, claimed, as stolen property, a horse that has been purchased by William Taggart, of Wm. Penn. Taggart purchased the horse from a man who represented himself as Dr. H. S. Darwin, of Baltimore, Md., who was accompanied at the time by a man named Weller, a cattle dealer of Middleburg. After the horse was taken from him Taggart had a warrant issued for the arrest of both Darwin and Weller.

About two weeks ago Chief Amour arrested Weller at Middleburg and $1,000 bail was furnished before a Justice of the Peace at that place for an appearance at the trial in Pottsville. No clue to "Dr." Darwin could be secured, but yesterday afternoon Chief Amour received the following telegraphic dispatch from Middleburg: "Darwin in jail here; badly wounded. Brought three horses again."

Amour was congratulating himself upon the termination of Darwin's career and the prospects of having him under lock and key in the Pottsville jail, when he received, last night, the following postal card, signed by Eyan Russel, Chief of Police of Williamsport:

THREE HORSES STOLEN.

Stolen from barn of G. W. Youngman, Williamsport, Pa., on the night of September 28. Also light platform spring wagon, one set of single harness.

Chief Amour became nervous and after putting on his thinking cap and concluded that his man was in danger of falling into the hands of the Williamsport authorities, as the latter offered a reward, so he left town on an early train this morning with the hope of getting to Middleburg and claiming the prisoner before Chief Russell's men.

Mary Seward Disappears.

W. R. Seward, of West Line street, reports that his daughter, Mary Elizabeth, aged 17 years, has disappeared and requests information concerning her. He says she may be in Philadelphia, as she frequently declared her intention of going there. She was sent up town between 8 and 9 o'clock on Monday morning to make purchases and failed to return. She was seen in the vicinity of the corner of Main and Coal streets at about 11 o'clock yesterday morning. When last seen she wore a dark blue dress and a dark hat with pink feathers. She has a light complexion and is very intelligent for her age. She is about 4 feet 9 inches tall and rather stout.

Of Value at Times.

A resident of town hastened to a HERALD representative yesterday to have an article of much importance to himself published. The anxious individual is a subscriber of a Philadelphia daily and only finds use for his home paper when he is in trouble or has an ax to grind. There are many others in the town like him. But there is a day of reckoning with all such and the newspaper man eventually gets his work in.

Reduction in Rates.

Commencing October 1st the Providence and Stonington Steamship Co. will reduce rates from New York to all points East on both its lines, by the Providence Line from pier 29 old No. N. R., at 6:30 p. m., and the Stonington Line from new pier 86 North River at 5:00 p. m. Rate to principal points will be the same on both lines, viz: Boston, $8.00; Providence, $2.25; Worcester, $2.25. A. MOLLER, S. P. A. 9-30-11

Mock Trial.

At its meeting to-morrow evening Camp 33, P. O. S. of A., has a very enjoyable surprise for its members, in the shape of a mock trial. The committee having the affair in hand have been rehearsing the matter for the past week, and will no doubt present an interesting programme for the camp's members.

Oldest and Largest.

The oldest and largest foreign and domestic fire insurance companies, with largest assets and surplus, are represented by David Faust, 120 South Jardin street. 9-30-11

PERSONAL.

J. J. Cardin, of Philadelphia, is in town. Abraham Focht, of New Ringgold, was in town yesterday.

Will McLaughlin, of Philadelphia, is the guest of relatives at Lost Creek.

Miss Golden and Mrs. Holden, who were the guests of town friends, left for Philadelphia to-day.

Miss Alice Brennan left for her home in Philadelphia this morning after a pleasant stay with friends in town.

J. Coffee, the South Main street clothier, is attending to business in Patterson, Northumberland county.

Rev. Robert O'Boyle, pastor of the Trinity Reformed church, left for Sunbury to-day to spend a few days.

John Cather is here from Bluefield, W. V. He is interested in the water company's suit against the borough.

Robert Griffin, of Delano, one of the passenger train brakemen on the Lehigh Valley railroad, has not missed a coupling during his service of two years.

THE DeMOSS CONCERT.

A Large Audience Listen to it Last Evening.

Last evening every available seat in the auditorium and the galleries in the Reformed chapel was taken by some one eager to hear the concert as given by the celebrated DeMoss family, and not one of that large crowd went away disappointed. Well do the members of the DeMoss family deserve the name of lyric talents and musical prodigies. They are all of that. Their instrumentation is very fine, their every touch bringing sweet music from some of the many instruments they handle. Playing on two or more instruments at one time seems as easy to them as playing on one does to the average performer. It was a rich treat for everybody there, and the committee in charge deserve credit for procuring such able essayers of an admirable programme.—Shamokin Herald. At Robbins' opera house to-morrow evening.

Ladies! Call at the Misses Lesiga's store and see all the latest styles and finest styles in fall and winter millinery. 9-23-11

A Sensible Burgess.

The Chief Burgess, of Hazleton, on Monday refused to give several fakers licenses to sell silverware (?) and jewelry. The Burgess refused to grant the licenses. He did a sensible thing. When people want to buy anything in that line they will find reputable business men in town dealing in that line of goods.

Guaranteed Cure.

We authorize our advertised druggist to sell Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, upon this condition. If you are afflicted with a Cough, Cold or any Lung, Throat or Chest trouble, and will use this remedy as directed, giving it a fair trial, and experience no benefit, you may return the bottle and have your money refunded. We would not make this offer did we not know that Dr. King's New Discovery could be relied on. It never disappoints. Trial bottles free at U. H. Hagenbuch's drug store. Largest size 99c, and $1.00.

Grand opening of fall and winter millinery at the Misses Lesiga's. 9-23-11

Singers, Attention.

The members of the Shenandoah Choral Union extend an invitation to the German Singers of town to join them for competition at the coming Christmas celebration, for which 100 singers are required. A meeting will be held in the English Baptist church on Thursday, at 7:30 p. m. 9-23-11

Pension Granted.

John M. Price, of Brownsville, has been granted a pension of $12 per month, dating from July, 1890. This is gratifying news as Mr. Price is an aged and feeble veteran and the installments will be of great benefit to him.

No Council Meeting.

On account of the demonstration at Pottsville to-morrow it has been decided to postpone the regular Borough Council meeting to Tuesday evening, next.

Improvements.

The Methodist Episcopal church is surrounded with scaffolding. The painting will be started at once.

The Presbyterian church improvements are nearing completion.

Mrs. Wasley will have all her houses on White and Oak streets repainted.

Legal blanks of all kinds for sale at the HERALD office.
