Koch's Discovery.

The tubercle bacilli was discovered by Prof. Koch, to be constantly present in all cases of consumption. Where the blood i impoverished or impure, there results that constitutional condition known as acrofula which is characterized by the liability o certain tissues to become the seat of chronic inflammations and enlargements. Virchow says "their vulnerability is excessive. Consequently, exciting causes which would have only passing effect upon a healthy subject, would produce inflammation and disease in the scrofulous.

These troubles may start as catarrh in the nasal passages, throat or lungs, and as the membranes become weakened, the tubercle bacilli enter, and multiply, and w have, as a result, that dread disease-Con-

A HARMONIOUS CONVENTION

The State Administration Unqualifiedly Indersed in the Platform.

A Number of Renominations-The Platform Doclares for Tariff Reduction and Revision, Protests Against Free Colnage of Silver, and Denounces the Disregard of Civil Service Principles.

Woncestus, Mass., Sep. 30.—The State Deniceratic Convention effected a per manent organization yesterday by the election of Gen. P.A. Collins as president, with a long list of vice-prosidents, which Included Congressmen O'Neil and Andrew, William Gaston, William Endi cott, George M. Stearns, James S. Grin-nell, Leopold Morse, Hugh O Brien, If you're weak or "run-down," it Prederick O. Prince, Charles R. Codman and Dr. William Everett.

William J. Dale was elected secretary. On making his appearance, Gen. Col-Has was given a rousing welcome. There were cheers, yells and hand clappings, and the air was full of hats, which were thrown aloft by the delegates. Mr. Collins acknowledged his flatter-

Mr. Collins acknowledged his insteading reception in a few pleasant words, in which he amounced that he had been present at 25 Democratic State conventions and was celebrating his conventional silver anniversary at the present time. He then proceeded to deliver his address, which was much interrupted by andress, which was much interrupted by applause.

John F. Russell, of Leicester, mounted the platform at 12:20. At the end of a brief speech he proposed the renomination by acclamation of William E. Russell for Governor of the Commonwealth. The nomination was seconded by Hom. Elward G. Donovan, of Boston, and Wm. Eastus Russell, of Cambridge, was unanimously made the nominee by acclamation.

He was escorted to the hall by a com mittee and made a ringing address, in which he counselled meeting the Republican opposition "with vigilance, perseverance and unceasing effort and, calmly, honostly discussing the real issues, trust to the common sense, the conscience and activities of our people to decide aright patriotism of our people to decide aright between us." The ticket was completed with John W. Corcoran for Lieutenant-Governor, Elbridge G. Cushman for Secretary of State, James S. Grinnell for State Treas-urer, W. D. Trefoy for Auditor, and George M. Stearns for Attorney-General.

The platform begins with an unstituted indorsement of Gov. Russell's adminis-tration, and recommendations of State reform, and continues: We believe in free schools, supplied with free text books.

"We believe that every citizen should pay his "We believe that every citizen should pay his just proportion of the public expenses, but we do not believe if he fails to do so by accident, the neglect of others or from his own imbility, he should be punished by being deprived of the most samed right of citizenship—the right to vote.
