REGION 'ROUND.

A Budget of Interesting Articles on all Topics.
Ardie Buck and Lizzie Hoover, of Shamokin, have eloped for a second time. A short time ago they skipped to Indianapolis, but could find no one there to marry them. Upon their return Buck's father gave him a cigar and confectionery business, so that his mind would be occupied by thoughts other than of love and Lizzie's father gave her a $500 piano, in the hope that his kindness would kill her love for Ardie, but both schemes fell short of the mark.

W. C. Savidge, clerk in the main office of Coke Bros. & Co., Drifton, left that place several days ago very suddenly and his whereabouts are unknown. He was a married man and his wife is still at Drifton and she has heard nothing from him since he went away. He was seen in Allentown, but since then all trace of him has been lost. Foul play is suspected.

Charles Freby, one of the performers in Dr. Gillett's Indian show, now at Frackville, was taken by a constable on Monday to Wilkes-Barre, to answer a charge of desertion.

The shops at Drifton are working fourteen hours a day. The shop is so full of work that more men will have to be hired as the men now in it are very much overworked.

Judge Rockefeller refused to naturalize over one hundred Hungarians and Polish men at Sunbury last Saturday on account of their ignorance concerning the Federal constitution and workings of the republic. Some time previous to this he warned all those intending to take out second papers that they should study the constitution and then if they could not answer necessary questions they would not become citizens before that court. The disappointed ones were quite indignant.
