Dalton, a village twelve miles north of Scranton, is excited over a tar and feather episode. Mr. and Mrs. Charles feather episods. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gardner, by their immoral acts, have frequently outraged the community. Finding themselves unable to bear longer with this couple, the neighbors organized themselves into a band of White Caps, and treated the guilty couple to a coat of tar and feathers. Gardner was then ridden on a rail through the village. The couple are now under orders to take quick leave.

Superintendent Zacharias, of the Silver Brook collieries, has taken a very bold stand in order to prevent the sale of beer in that place, and it will be interesting to note what the outcome will be. It has been the custom of the Hazleton dealers to send in a lot of beer to Silver Brok on Saturday night for Sunday consumption. On Saturday last Supt. Zacha-rias captured one of the wagons, and with the assistance of a C. & I. police-man, ran it into his barn, where it still remains although the owner has de-manded its return. Zacharias holds that the traffic is an illegal one, and Intends to test the matter in the courts.
