

GOT HIS DAUGHTER
The Count di Calviano's Long Search Rewarded.

A PRETTY ITALIAN ROMANCE
Story of the Loves of Lucia di Calviano and Giuseppe Bonasi.

A Nobleman's Child Who Preferred Poverty and Her Beloved to Luxury Without Him-The Count Forgives His Daughter, But Not Her Husband, When He Tries to Have Arrested Without Success-The Unfortunate Youth Vows Murder and Suicide.

New York, Oct. 9.—The Count Laro di Calviano, who has immense estates near Naples, appeared in the Williamsburg police court at noon and demanded the arrest of Giuseppe Bonasi, for running away with his daughter. His wife died two years ago, leaving him with two children, a daughter of 19 and a son of 14 years.

When the Count returned from a business trip to Marselles in August of last year his daughter had disappeared. Her departure was coincident with the disappearance of Bonasi from his place of business, and left no room for doubt that they had gone together.

AN UNLUCKY CHINAMAN.
A Former United States Navy Employee Detained in British Colombia.
Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 9.—Perhaps one of the most curious and discomforting experiences which could well happen to a person in times of peace is that which has overtaken Paul Chin Sing, an honorably discharged employee of the United States Navy and a prominent and respected member of the Hanson Place M. E. Church, of this city.

Chin Sing had separated himself from the navy a year or so ago, and up to a few weeks ago had earned his livelihood by working for some of his wealthier countrymen in Brooklyn. A short time ago, however, his health began to fail, and, having a well-to-do uncle in San Francisco, he determined to immigrate to that portion of the country.

He purchased his ticket, but unfortunately it was over the Canadian Pacific Railway, and through Vancouver, B. C. When he attempted to change cars at that place, after his arrival, he was seized and thrust into prison because of the non-payment of the $50 which British Columbia law exacts from every newly arrived Chinaman found in its territory.

The railroad company interfered and took the Chinaman out of the kindly care of the Canadian minions of the law. This released him from the payment of the $50 so long as he was not dropped by the corporation, but it did not at all free him from the greatest of his difficulties, namely a re-entry into the States this side the Canadian border.

His trunk, in which were his credentials, had gone on ahead, and this rendered him powerless to prove his identity. At this time word of his plight came to the ears of his pastor and people of the Hanson Place Church. They at once saw that the only way to release Chin Sing and get him back into the United States, was to prepare a petition and letters to the President put those in charge of an influential messenger and have him solicit an audience with Mr. Harrison, to the end that Chin Sing might obtain a safe conduct into the United States. This has been done and the matter is now in the hands of the President.

Chin Sing is in a very sad predicament in any event, and the members of the church denounce his seizure in Canada as an outrage. He is described as about 21 years of age, tall and slender and remarkably handsome. He joined the Hanson Place Church about a year ago and has ever since been one of its most active members, especially in the work that is being done in connection with the Chinese mission which is attached to the church.

LIKELIHOOD THAT THREE WARSHIPS WILL BE SENT TO CHILI.
NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—It is reported on good authority, that besides the Yorktown, the Boston and Atlanta are also destined for Valparaiso, or some other Chilean port, to maintain the honor of the American flag, which, Minister Patrick Egan informs the National Government, has been threatened by the Junta.

All the indications point to the departure for Valparaiso of three ships of Uncle Sam's navy instead of one ship. The Atlanta was intercepted on her way to Gardner's Bay target practice and ordered to return to the Navy Yard and fit herself out for a cruise. The Boston was docked for a coat of paint, and, as for the general stores, they are fairly flooded with requisitions for articles. If these articles are not ready in the stores they will be bought in the open market, so as not to delay longer than necessary the departure of the squadron to Chili.

Mr. Gladstone Well Again.
LONDON, Oct. 9.—Gladstone's reception at Newcastle shows the depth of the affection entertained for him by the Liberal masses of Great Britain. Mr. Gladstone has greatly disappointed the Tories by resigning his health. One reason for deferring the general election to as late a date as possible was well understood to be that the government might have to face Gladstone and his popularity. The signs now indicate, however, that the grand old man will be in excellent trim for the contest, which will probably be the last of his life, and one of the most momentous.

Could Not Find an Indictment.
New York, Oct. 9.—The grand jury which investigated the collapse of the building in Park place, by which over sixty lives were lost, has reported its inability to decide whether overloaded floors or an explosion caused the calamity. Tenants of the building who claim to have known it to be unsafe are blamed for not reporting such knowledge. Legislation for better inspection of buildings and against storage of explosives is recommended. The evidence gathered would not warrant the finding of an indictment.

Reciprocity Conference Postponed.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—The report from Ottawa that the reciprocity conference set for October 19, between Secretary Blaine and Representatives of the Canadian Government has been indefinitely postponed is confirmed at the Executive Mansion and at the State Department. The reason given for the postponement is that the president deems it best that the Canadian Commissioners should deal directly with Mr. Blaine.
