Two Probibition Fanatics Destroy the Crop of a Large Orchard. CHESTER, Conn., Oct. 8.—Preacher Hall and his two sons aided Deacon Hungerford and his hired man to destroy the biggest and finest crop of apples ever grown in Deacon Hungerford's orchard. Preacher Hall, his sons, and the deacon see ardent temperance men, and when the Lord blessed the latter wish more apples than he could eat he was in sore straits. He did not want to turn them into cider, for that was the bane of the farmer's life, especially after it had grown "hard."

He consulted with his pastor, and sug-gested giving the fruit away, but Proacher Hall disclaimed against that, lest some one else might make cider of them. It was finally decided to throw away the whole crop, so the four men, with the help of the hired man, who sliently protested against the work, stripped the orchard and dumped every apple into the village mill pend.

The water was covered with them and when the cities of the country and the cities of the country and the cities of the cities
