STILL THEY COME.

Mr. Alexander Garvie, of Leith, Scotland, thus expressed himself to a representative of the San Francisco Chronicle:

On the steamer I was on crossing the Atlantic was the owner of the largest tannery in Glasgow, perhaps in Great Britain. He was coming to America to establish a branch factory to tan the leather required for his export trade in this country. The worst part of it was he found he would be forced to employ American workmen, because some contract labor law they have here would not permit him to bring his own experienced men from Scotland. He said there was no way for him to get around building the factory in America, for he could not possibly pay the outrageous tariff and sell his goods here in competition with goods made in the United States. Many other manufacturers have determined to build branch factories here for some reason. To my knowledge there are several in Glasgow and more in other towns, and besides, of course, there are a great many I do not know anything about. One other man on the steamer was a lace manufacturer at 45 CENTS for a window shade with fringe, others for 55c, 65c and up. Shades made for stores and private dwellings. A new lot of shades and fringes to match.

C. D. FRICKE'S
Carpet Store, 10 South Jardin St., near Centre

Nottingham. His name was Campbell. He was coming here to begin manufacturing the kinds of laces that the tariff prevented his shipping into the country from England. In my line, of course, the tariff makes no difference. We do not ship tea here. The growing popularity of the new tariff is convincing foreigners that the triumph of lying last November was a snap judgment, and that the people well never consent to the repeal of that beneficent measure. The stream of foreign manufacturers which was checked by the election of a Democratic House of Representatives has again set in and blessings abound on every hand under our McKinley Tariff.

PERSONAL.

The following Shenandoah people were in Philadelphia yesterday: Mrs. Wm. Grant and daughter, Miss Bella Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Titman, Mrs. A. J. Luburg, Mrs. H. C. Boyer and Miss Virgie Holloper.

Mahanoy City Willing.

If built, and the Shenandoah Herald assures the public there are now no obstacles in the way, the Mahanoy City, Shenandoah, Girardville and Ashland Street Electric Railway will be owned by outside capitalists, the people of Shenandoah having failed to respond to repeated and urgent appeals to put up the capital. The Herald is anxious that the communities interested will not throw obstacles in the way of the construction of any part of the road. So far as Mahanoy City is concerned we think we can safely say that no unreasonable restrictions will be enforced or demanded, and while the interests of the community will be carefully guarded, every proper encouragement will be tendered the enterprise, which is bound to be of great value and convenience to this community.—Mahanoy City Weekly.

Legal blanks of all kinds for sale at the Herald office.

Caught by Cars.

James Wilson had one of his legs badly bruised yesterday by being caught between cars on a slant in the Shenandoah City colliery. He was removed to his home on West Cherry street in an ambulance.

WHAT THE SCRIBES SEE AND HEAR

A Regular Meeting of the Borough Council Was Held Last Evening—Mr. Toole Asks for a Correction.

The regular meeting of the Borough Council that should have been held on Thursday last, but was adjourned on account of the demonstration at Pottsville, was held last evening. Messrs. Amour, Moakler, Phalen, Devers, James, Gable, Wurm, Coakley, Lamb, Hopkins, Beteridge, Portz, Holman and Scheiffy being present.

Clerk of the Courts Toole was present and made a statement in regard to the balance due the borough from him on an old tax duplicate. He said the balance agreed upon at the time his term of office expired was $311 and he could not understand how the amount had increased to $429, unless Council intended to add interest. The matter was referred to the law committee.

Mr. Foltz appeared and complained that a contractor for street work had failed to pay him for labor. He asked that Council protect him by deducting the amount from the money due the contractor from the borough. The street committee was instructed to investigate the case.

Jonathan Rogers complained of a nuisance maintained on the property of Samuel Roberts. He was informed that the Chief Burgess had been instructed to investigate the matter.

Several bills were read and ordered paid. J. R. Coyle, Esq., was present to ask that modifications be made in the ordinance granting the right of way to the Mahanoy City, Shenandoah, Girardville and Ashland Street Railway Company, but it was decided that the matter be brought up at the next regular meeting night.

The balance of the evening was devoted to consultations with witnesses for the borough in the Water Company case.

New Restaurant.

Joseph Bickert, of town, to-day received a license for the saloon and restaurant in Mahanoy City lately controlled by Keller. Mr. Bickert is one of the best restaurateurs in the region. He is now engaged in preparing his new place for business and when he starts in the people of Mahanoy City will be able to boast of having one of the best host-tries in the county.

Not the Party.

Some people of town are under the impression that it was Francis Stetler who left town some days ago with Mrs. Bernhardt. It was not Francis, but Charles. As the men are brothers and both are barbers, and as Francis happened to be out of town when his brother disappeared, some people were mistaken in their identity of the parties, but it is hoped that this statement will suffice to assure all that Francis is with his family in town and was not the party who disappeared.

Oysters are in season and the best in the market are at Coslett's. 8-22-11

A Prodigy.

The Herald can justly boast of a prodigy in its composing rooms in the shape of a cake-walker, who is willing to meet all comers, the descendants of Ham not debarred. We are willing to wager our last red apple that he can "take the cake" from anyone in the county. There are but two considerations which are demanded in case some one has the audacity to try conclusions with this wonderful "find" of ours, and they are: there shall be no corners to turn; that this "wonder" shall have the selection of the three judges. Who will accept?

A Kind Friend.

Is what they call that Famous Remedy, Red Flag Oil. It quickly cures Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Sores and all pain. It is good for man or beast. 25 cents. At Kirtin's drug store.

Obituary.

Owen Burke, father of Patrick Burke, of town, and brother of John Burke, of Brownville, died at his home in Girardville last night of general debility. He had been ailing for six months past. The funeral will take place at Girardville at 9 a. m. on Saturday.

Pay Your Taxes.

WILL IT COME?

Organization of Another Water Company Spoken Of.

Within the past few days a large number of prominent men have expressed indignation at attitude the water company has taken against the borough and yesterday the organization of another water company was predicted. It is understood that more than one large property holder are prepared to invest $5,000 in such an undertaking, and that any amount of subscribers for $500 and upwards stand ready to chip in. One gentleman said last night, "In view of the understanding the water company had with the borough some years ago, when the borough gave up the project of establishing water works of its own, the company certainly has no moral standing in its suit for $20 per fire plug, and I think the result will show it has no legal standing. But, however, that may be, it looks almost certain that the indignation aroused by the case will result in the formation of a new water company."

ORUEL STEP-MOTHER.

A Waif Sent to the County Almshouse.

George Lynch is a healthy-looking little Polish boy of the Fifth ward, eight years of age. For the past four months his condition has been the subject of comment. Chief of Police Amour and a Herald reporter spent a while yesterday afternoon investigating the case and, from the facts gleaned, it appears that the boy has been the victim of a heartless step-mother. He dreaded approaching what should be his home and cheerfully accompanied Chief Amour. It was learned that during the past four months the little fellow has been seeking shelter in stables, water closets and other outbuildings and has been depending upon the generosity of strangers for food. A few mornings ago a Polish woman carried chopped wood to the bake oven and, as she was about to build a fire, found the little waif asleep inside. The little fellow became familiar with the miners who passed through the Fifth ward and from their work and frequently asked them for what remained in their buckets. Chief Amour took the boy to Poor Director Tracey, who harbored the child for the night, and this morning took him to the Almshouse.

Mr. Shirey's Version.

In reference to the case of Savits Shirey, reported in yesterday's Herald, the father of the girl writes the following letter:

EDITOR HERALD:—That story you had in last night's paper was not true and it must be diffused, or it will cause trouble. This is the true story: Miss Shirey believed her parents was going to be punished for it and when she saw her mother coming with a stick she ran away and ran down to the Pennsylvania railroad and took out the railroad, when she met these two minstrel men as they asked her to direct them to St. Nicholas and Boston Run and she stopped while doing so and Constable Phillips could not find her, and when it became dark she was coming home and Phillips caught her. And about following the parade she did not, for she was at home with her mother while the parade was going on and lots of witnesses for it. If it is not fixed I will prosecute you. The girl was not at the depot when the minstrels came in town, and she did not say she was going off with some company. She said she would not stay at home.

MR. SHIREY

Shenandoah, Pa., Oct. 7, 1891.

A Brilliant Affair.

The supper in Robbins' opera house last night, under the auspices of the English Baptist church, was a grand success. After the feast three cake walks were arranged and fifteen couples took part in each. The first was closely contested and was decided in favor of Thomas Griffiths and Miss Annie Thomas. The second was decided in favor of George Flock and Miss Hannah Tannah, and the third in favor of Charles Binneman and Miss Mattie Lee. Some very good walking was done and the judges had no easy time to arrive at decisions, but they succeeded in making adjudications satisfactory to all. The music was furnished by William Waters. The judges were John H. Reese, Robert Lawson, Enoch Davis, Tallies Phillips and Edward L. Thomas. A handsome sum was netted for the church fund.

To-morrow Night.

The new operatic comedy "Asleep and Awake" to be presented at Ferguson's theatre, Thursday, Oct. 8, will prove interesting to theatre-goers on account of the select character of the performance, the new novelties introduced being a revelation in so-called farce comedy, and the superior excellence of the artists whose appearance elsewhere has met with the highest praise from both press and public. Seats can now be engaged with out extra charge.

The Supplies Coming.

A letter received this morning states that materials for the Mahanoy City, Shenandoah, Ashland and Girardville Street Company were loaded at Philadelphia yesterday and they will probably be delivered at Robinson Junction to-morrow.

Prime oysters, the best the market affords, always on hand at Coslett's. 8-22-11

HE GOT A PUNCH

BUT IT DID NOT HAPPEN TO BE A BEVERAGE.

POLICEMAN CONNERS SERVED IT.

Mr. Shirey's Version of the Case in Which the Minstrel Men Were Mentioned—Cake Walks.

Policeman Connors very effectually resented the insults of a Gilberton resident in Pottsville yesterday. When Connors and some of the councilmen of town were in a saloon a fellow named Michael Kelly of Gilberton, entered and said, as he passed, "Hello, Connors!" The policeman returned the salutation pleasantly and said, "Come and have something, I'm setting them up."

Kelly turned, with a scowl on his face, and said, "No, I wouldn't drink with you and, what is more, I can pay for my drink."

O, very well," replied Connors, "I wouldn't give you one, now."

"You're a dirty ———," continued Kelly and, as he uttered the words, Connors gave him a Sullivanizer in the face. Kelly gathered himself up and hastened to Squire Hill's office, where he swore out a warrant for Connors' arrest on a charge of assault and battery. Connors promptly furnished bail.

The councilmen who were with the policeman say that the Gilberton fellow was very properly punished. That no man could have resisted striking the fellow.

About two months ago Policemen Connors and Phalen arrested Kelly and others for engaging in a fight at the corner of Centre and White streets and Kelly has held a grudge against the two policemen since then.

A New Opening.

The United States Employment and Business Agency of 44 and 46 Broadway, New York, have just made arrangements with Max Reese, of town, to represent them in this city. Their plan is so simple yet so effective that it surprises us it has not been put in operation before this time. They do a business in buying, selling, and exchanging real estate and business chances, negotiating partnerships, procuring capital for enterprises and also in procuring situations and help. Their agents in the various cities send reports to the central office in New York every day, of the wants in the various branches of business they transact, which information is compiled and sent to every one of the agents throughout the country, of whom there are now over 50 in the various cities and the number is being increased daily. It will be seen at a glance that the plan for equalizing the labor market and transacting other business, is thus made very simple and effective and cannot fail to be successful. A small fee is charged, at the local office, parties registering, which entitles them to the privilege of same for one month, where corrected lists of situations and other business are kept on file. In no way can the territory be covered so cheaply and yet so effectively, as under this system. The agents are all well known responsible men in their respective communities and have the confidence of the people that the business will be conducted on strictly honorable principles. This is an enterprise which we think deserving the support of the people of this city. For further particulars call on or address, Max Reese, Shenandoah, Pa.

Off for Dixey.

George and Albert Kurts, of Frackville, will leave town to-morrow with their families for Harriman, Tennessee, where they will locate. The town is a young one with brilliant prospects. The Messrs. Kurts have already built residences for themselves and are enthusiastic in their expectations. J. H. Kurts, of town, the father of the young men, will accompany them, but it is not his intention to locate there at present.

Always go to Coslett's, South Main street, for your prime oysters. 8-22-11

Burchill's Restaurant.

Charles Burchill is now located at corner of Main and Coal streets, Shenandoah. Regular meals, at popular prices, served any time. Ladies' dining and refreshment rooms attached. 9-14-11

Ladies, if you want fine writing paper and envelopes to match, call on Max Reese. 11

Important Notice.

All members of the Lakeside elistedford committee are requested to meet at John H. Evans', 35 East Centre street, Shenandoah Pa., on Wednesday, 7th inst., at 7 p. m., sharp, to wind up the business of the committee. By order of EDWARD REESE, Pres.

A Site Selected.

A. H. Chadbourne, an electrical expert in the employ of the Thomson-Houston Company, and John F. Finney, General Manager of the new Shenandoah, Mahanoy City, Girardville and Ashland Railway company, were in town on Saturday afternoon. The gentlemen had driven over the proposed route and located the site for the power house on Girard Estate land at Girardville. In conversation with a Herald scribe, Mr. Finney said that there was no possibility of doubt as to the coming of the new railway. The capital is already secured, and most of the contracts let. The gentlemen at the head of the company are all monied men, who represent several millions of dollars, and who are largely interested in similar railway schemes in other sections of the state. They expect to be represented at Wednesday evening's meeting of the borough council when the question of ordinance will be discussed.—Ashland Telegram.

A Remarkable Invention.

The amazing statement is made by Edward Atkinson, the eminent statistician of Boston, in Frank Leslie's Illustrated Weekly this week, that the invention of the automatic, self-binding wheat harvester enabled this country to resume specie payment in 1870 by making it possible to gather the enormous wheat crop and get it to market. Mr. Atkinson's contribution to "Wheat—Our Financial Anchor," will be read by every one with interest, and the pictures of the wheat harvest in the West and the great Harvest Festival at Minneapolis, Minn., give a special interest. Boys who want a pair of fine skates and girls who want elegantly-dressed French dolls should read Frank Leslie's Weekly. These are offered as prizes. Get a copy of your newsdealer. Price, ten cents.
