The "Mock" Marriage of Lillie Voorhees, a Sociaty Miss of Morristowo, N. J.

The Young Man in the Case a Theological Student .- The Pair Were Lovers and No. Objections Were Offered to Their Union. The Young Lady Thought the Wedding a Jest-Her Parents Indignant, and Say They Will Have the Marriage Annulled.

MOBILISTOWN, N. J., Oct. 8.-This town has been stirred by the announcement of the marriage of Miss Lillie Voorhees, a mociety belle of this pince, to Hardld C. Heverin of Philadelphia.

Heverin is a Princeton graduate and is studying for the ministry in a theologi-cal seminary of New York. He was angaged to Miss Voorhees, and no one offored objections.

About three weeks ago Miss Voorhees went to Haverstraw, N $\Sigma_{i,i}$ to visit relatives. Either by accident, design or pre-arrangement she had been there but a short time when Mr. Heverin also appeared.

The first thing he did was to call upon his flance, and invite her for a drive. On their return Miss Voorhous says that Hoverin accused her of having ceased to love him. This she denied emphatically, and to prove her constancy she isugh-ingly consented to have a betrohal cere-mony before a civil officer. The couple then drove to a Justice of the Peace, who performed the marriage earemony. Miss Voorhees claims that not until the justics informed her that she was lagal-ly a wife did she realize that she had here decided nen deceived.
