Pennsylvania Ropublicans are in bet ter shape than for years—united, cordial and in high spirits. They feel that this is their year, and the news from Ohio confirms them in that feeling.

Gregg and Morrison clubs, irrespective of former party lines, are being formed in every part of the state. We hear of several cases where the officers of the clubs belong to other parties.

There are a great many Democratic oldiers who do not let their party feeltent of voting for stay at home copper-heads in preference to their brave com-rades, and we honor them for it.

The Republicans were accept last year and allowed the Democrats a big "scoop." This year they are wide awake, as is evidenced by the campaigne in Ohio, Lowa, New York, Massachusetts and here in the Keystone state.

The champions of dishonest money and of European industries are leagued against the Republican party. The eighty-cent dollar man and the nunaturalized allen importer stand shoulder to shoulder against. McKinley and his bill.

The Republican emblem is the eagle bird. Hear him scream on Nov. 3 next, when the Republican nosts in Penn-sylvania march to the polis in solul phalanx for Greng and Morrison. Watch the Democratic rooster streaking under the barn.

HARRITY'S MAN TILDEN

Now an Office Holder and Always an Office Seeker.

ALMOST ANYTHING BUT A FARMER

The Stardy Titlers of the Soil Not to Be Gulled Into Voting for a Democratic Boos' Candidate for State Treasurer.

Reports continue to come to the Republican state hendquarters of the des-perate efform hose Harrity is uniting to capture the furner vote for his deputy secretary of the community outth. Tilden whom he had nominated for state treas The mask has been town from his scheme, however, to have the Demo eratic county committeemen organize that some unsophisticated Regulations might be hoodwinked into Joining these are allied "non-partisan" organizations and afterward by persuaded to vote the Democratic ticket.

The farmers, Harrity discovered, are not so easily fooled. The wity Domo-gratic bose has now instructed all the campaign speakers to refer to his man Tilden as "the farmers' candidate for state treasurer." In his literary bureaus which he is running as in did in the last campaign, he tries to make it appear as though this man, who is practically his chief clerk, is a horny handed tiller of the soil.

Harrity has made just one mistake here. He neglected to "edit" the biographical sletch of his candidate, which Chairman Kerr sent out from the Democratic state headquarters in his absence. A PARMER (?) WITHOUT A PARM,

Reference to this will show that Til-don has been almost everything else but Here are some facts gleaned from this biography.

He started in the lumber business.

Next he facered as an ell operator.

Then as a railroad purchasting agent.

A whole-ade space morehant next.

County commissioner for two terms after

Then he ran for congress. And now ha is Harrity's deputy secretary of he commonwealth.

When was he a farmer?
His shetch tells you he owned a few cores of land which he had cultivated while he ran the lumber business. He is now "farming" on the stump viule the farmers pay his fat salary in Harrity's office.

The real farmers of Pennsylvania are not being entrapped into the Demo-cratic camp to vote for a "bunco" candidate like this one that Harrity has set out to capture the state treasury, with which he hopes to strengthen his Demo-cratic inachine.

Farmers of Pennsylvania know that their interests lie with the Republican party. They are not being caught by Boss Harrity's tricky game.

Gen. Gpff on Republican Patriotism.

Gen. Gpff on Republican Patriotism.
General Nathan Goff, of West Virginia, who called on Chairman Watres last week and asked to be allowed to make a few speeches for the Pennsylvania Republicane' "soldiar ticket," he being personally acquainted with both General Gregg and Captain Morrison, is admittedly one of the strongest apeakers on the stump.

"I can always tell a Republican meeting before I hear a word uttered from the platform," remarked General Goff, anthingly, to a friend the other day. "You can tell it by the music and the marching. Were it a Democratic meeting, instead of the inspiring air. "The Star Spangled Banner," the band would be playing "Annie Rooney," Instead of hymns of patriotism you would hear the diamal wall, "Listen to My Tels of Woe."
