GRANGERS IN A STATE OF MIND.

Already Heavily Taxed, They are Indignant at the Governor's Reckless Extravagant and Unnecessary Action—Republicans Prepared to Meet the Issue—They Are Delighted Over the Democratic Boomerang.

[Special Correspondence.] PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 6.

Now that the smoke of the explosion of Pattison's first campaign bomb—his call for an extra session of the senate—has cleared away, people are beginning to see through the Democratic plan of campaign, and are prepared for any other sensational move that their ambitious young governor, or his wily secretary of state, may make to advance the Pattison presidential boom.

No one who has looked into this matter from a disinterested standpoint can come to any other conclusion. Pattison's designs on the presidency seem to have blinded him with the rankest kind of partisanship. To him there is but one end in this campaign. It is absolutely necessary that this state shall go Democratic to bring him into serious consideration for the Democratic nomination for the presidency next year.

ABILITY CAN GIVE BILL POINTS.

"God Sees You."

As the 4:30 train from New York reached Stamford Wednesday, an antique looking dame thrust her head out of the window opposite the refreshment room door and briefly shouted, "Sonny! A bright looking boy came up to the window. 'Little boy,' said she, 'have you a mother?' 'Yes, mam.' 'Do you love her?' 'Yes, mam.' 'Do you go to school?' 'Yes, mam.' 'And are you faithful to your studies?' 'Yes, mam.' 'Do you say your prayers every night?' 'Yes, mam.' 'Can I trust you to do an errand for me?' 'Yes, mam.' 'I think I can too,' said the lady, looking steadily down on the man's face. 'Here is five cents to get me an apple. Remember, God sees you.' J. M. BAILEY.

Height of Cruelty.

Nervous women seldom realize the symptoms they describe. With not the picture of death, they are constantly dying. To wit: without sympathy from these unfortunates, is the height of cruelty. They have a weak heart, causing shortness of breath, butting, pain to side, weak and lumpy spots, and finally swelling of ankles, oppression, cough, and "heart-drops." Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is the thing for them. For the nervous system, headache, weakness, etc., his Best Relief Nervine is indicated. Fine testimonials from all over the world, and guaranteed by C. H. Hagenbach.

A Mystery Explained.

The papers contain frequent notices of rich, pretty and educated girls eloping with negroes, and the cause is usually given as "love." It is a mystery explained. These girls are not more or less hysterical, nervous, or anything of the kind. They are usually subject to headache, neuralgia, nervousness, tremors, or any of the kind. These show a nervous system for which there is no remedy equal to Dr. Miles' Nervine. Trial bottles and a fine book, containing many marvelous cures, free at C. H. executive mansion, in the shape of a call to the senate, is severely denoted. What will no doubt result in the loss of many votes, which the Democratic candidates might have gotten, is the feeling among the taxpayers, and particularly among the now too heavily taxed farmers, that Pattison is putting the state to an enormous and utterly senseless and unnecessary expense.

The farmers recall the large sum, over $400,000, which Pattison's first extra session of the legislature cost the state, with not the slightest benefit resulting to the commonwealth. They now see an additional expense of at least $40,000 for the reconvening of the senate, and they do not know how much more this thing is going to cost before their ambitious executive gets through with his great game in national Democratic politics. The grangers are asking each other why Pattison could not have presented his case against the auditor general and the treasurer to the committee appointed by the last legislature to investigate such matters. This could be done, they argue, with less expense to the people, and if the charges could be substantiated the attorney general could proceed against the accused before proper judicial tribunals.

A DOUBLE BOOMERANG.

The governor's action provokes a boomerang in another direction.

Recognizing Pattison's call as a purely partisan move, stalwart Republicans throughout the state are writing Chairman Watres that this Democratic trickery simply serves to stimulate Republicans and impel them on to renewed efforts to get out the Republican vote this fall. One county committee man's letter ran like this:

Inasmuch as Governor Pattison has undertaken to run this campaign with the people's money, I do not propose to sleep at nights until I am satisfied that I can get out every Republican voter in my township solid for the Republican ticket.

That is simply a sample of many communications from active Republicans, indicating the temper of the rank and file in the organization. The fact that the thousands of formerly stalwart Republicans, who were either openly against the head of the ticket last fall, or who were lukewarm in their support of the Republican candidate for governor, are now among the most enthusiastic supporters of Greig and Morrison, will be an explanation of the heavy Republican vote that is bound to come to the polls at next month's election and stand loyally by the party nominees.

GREIG AND MORRISON ON THE GO.

General Greig and Captain Morrison were both in the city last week. The general has not been making quite so active a canvass as his colleague on the ticket. They were both at Pattison's last week at the unveiling of the soldier's monument and the presentation of the medals to the "First Division." They were very much pleased with the attention shown them by the war veterans. Many Democrats among the old soldiers greeted them warmly and said they were going to vote for Greig and Morrison.

Captain Morrison left here for home with so many invitations to visit different sections of the state that he was in a quandary where to go next. Orator George B. Orly insists that he shall make a tour of Huntington county with him. Then he has accepted an invitation to go to Mercer county, where the One Hundred and Thirty-ninth Pennsylvania Volunteers, Colonel Collier's old regiment, have a reunion next Friday. Captain Morrison enlisted from Mercer county and is personally acquainted with many of the veterans who will gather there this week. From here he will go down into Armstrong and Indiana counties.

NON-PARTISAN SOLDIERS' MOVEMENT.

The war veterans' movement is spreading. It is organized on a non-partisan basis, Democrats and Republicans alike standing shoulder to shoulder for "the soldier's right." The Democratic party ignored the soldier both in the platform and the nomination. It presents no attractions for the war veterans this fall. A. P. Burchfield, who was elected president of the Greig and Morrison War Veterans' club in Pittsburg last week, is one of the leading wholesale merchants in Allegheny county. He represents the type of man who are prominent in the movement.

Though the organization started in this city it is said that western Pennsylvania were a preliminary canvass was made by old soldiers in favor of Captain Morrison's nomination, is even outstripping the eastern counties in enlisting veterans for active work at the polls.

This week will mark the opening of headquarters in this city for the State League of Republican Clubs. President "Jack" Robinson is determined that the Republican League members shall do their share of the labors of the campaign.

TO OPEN CLUB LEAGUE HEADQUARTERS.

"I think," said Congressman Robinson, "that the League members can do a considerable amount of intelligent missionary work during the present campaign. I propose to secure headquarters in Philadelphia within a few days. We will get a modest room, where in a central location and do all in our power for the success of the state ticket. There will be no flourish of trumpets, and what we do will be done quietly and persistently. The manly and honorable manner in which Mr. Ditzell has turned in for party success is bound to have a good effect in every part of the state. His friends have followed his example, and none are more anxious to work for the success of the ticket. The League was formed to aid the regular party organization, and we propose to do our full duty in this canvass."

PROMINENT REPUBLICANS ACTIVE.

Ex-Auditor General Jerome B. Niles, of Elm and ex-Assistant Governor Stone and Ex-Senator Allen, of Warren, and E. P. Kinstry, of Lackawanna, were among the scores of prominent callers last week at the Republican state headquarters. Niles says his section will stand loyally by the Republican ticket.

"I am satisfied we will get a good vote," declared "Governor" Stone enthusiastically to Chairman Watres. "Republicans in four parts of the state feel that we have two honest and capable candidates on our state ticket, and we propose to give them our earnest support. Command me if I can be of any service to you or the committee."

The situation in this city is daily becoming brighter for a big Republican majority. There is no doubt now about the election of McCreary, the Republican nominee for city treasurer. It is expected that the nominees on the Republican ticket will have at least 20,000 majority in Philadelphia.
