CHEATING IN HORSE BLANKETS

Nearly every pattern of Horse Blanket is imitated in color and style. In most cases the imitation looks just as good as the genuine, but it hasn't the warp threads, and so lacks strength, and while it sells for only a little less than the genuine it isn't worth one-half as much.

The fact that Horse Blankets are copied is strong evidence that they are THE STANDARD, and every buyer should see that the Horse Blanket is sewed on the inside of the Blanket.

WAS LINCOLN A SPIRITUALIST?

Claim of a Medium that the Late President Was a Believer.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Oct. 19.—In a work entitled "Was Abraham Lincoln a Spiritualist?" Mrs. Nettie Colburn Maynard of this city makes some startling declarations in regard to Mr. Lincoln's belief in supernatural communications.

She states that in the latter part of 1862, when she was a young girl, and already gaining a reputation as a medium, she was in Washington, and became acquainted with Mrs. Lincoln and a number of other persons of prominence, who were attendants upon her seances, and through this means she came in contact with the President.

Mrs. Lincoln induced her husband to attend one of Mrs. Colburn's seances, and on that occasion he was warned through the mediumistic medium not to postpone his issuance of the emancipation proclamation. Those present were surprised, and asked Mr. Lincoln if any pressure had been brought to bear to secure the enforcement of the proclamation, and he replied that there had been pressure of the strongest kind. He was much impressed by the incident, and the proclamation was shortly issued.

Lincoln obtained Miss Colburn a clerkship, and she remained in Washington, frequently giving seances, the President attending several of them, and being seemingly much impressed with the manifestations.

In the winter of 1863-4 Mr. Lincoln was present at a seance, and the terrible condition of the freedmen was made the subject of spiritual communication, the president being urged to appoint a committee to investigate the question, which he soon did. General Daniel E. Sickles was present at this seance. Mrs. Maynard states that during this winter she held seances attended by Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln, at the president's appointment, but as they were private, and she was unacquainted with the spirits was commenting through her, also does not know what was communicated, neither Mr. nor Mrs. Lincoln having told her afterward what had occurred.

During the winter of 1864-5 Charles Colchester and Charles Foster, well-known mediums, held seances for the President, and through them, as well as through Miss Colburn, the President was warned of his approaching fate. He did not admit, however, that he placed any reliance upon these prophecies.

During the winter of 1864-5 Charles Colchester and Charles Foster, well-known mediums, held seances for the President, and through them, as well as through Miss Colburn, the President was warned of his approaching fate. He did not admit, however, that he placed any reliance upon these prophecies.
