NEW YORK, Oct. 20.-A strange story In which Nathanial L. Newcombe, the general manager of the New York Ship-Company, the offices of which are at No. 63 Broadway, is a prominent figare, came to light yesterday.

Mr. Newcombe is a prosperous business man, but his early history is an in-teresting and romantic one. It seems that 23 years ago he played with fire, and is only now being burned. In the quist little town of Taunton.

Mass., there is a woman who is respected by her neighbors and her children are allowed to associate with others without the murder. hindrance. She lives in a pretty little hindrance. She lives in a pretty little cottage and goes by the name of Mrs. Nationiel L. Newcombe; her children are also Newcombes. Mrs. Newcombe 23 years ago, but, on acculut of pressure, it is said, on the part of his parents, he never lived with her openly and proudly as he should have done, but visited her two or three dys at a time estending over a period of four or five years. She had four chil-dren by him, but is he't her, it is standard, and must to New York. Matters wont on its as unbraken way

SHE STRUGGLED FOR LIFE. Early Reports of the White Plains Murder Disprayed.

WHITE FLAINE, N. Y., Oct. 20 .- The murder of Mrs. Johanna Fussel, for no one now doubts that her death was other than a murder, at her house, two miles south of this place, continues to cause great excitement. The circumstances connected with her death are of the most connected with ner death ner of the most mysterious character. The woman was found by her little boy, Willis, lying stark dead upon a lounge. Her limbs were drawn up under her, and her face disfigured with a severe bruise about the region of the eye. Her husband had gone out for a walk

IS HE A BIGAMIST?

Trouble Brewing for a Prominent Brooklyn Man.

HIS WIFE SAYS HE IS GUILTY.

William C. Bolton Accused of Marrying in Violation of the Law.

The Couple Now Spending the Honeymoon in Massachusetts-Mrs. Bolton, Besides this Gelevance, Alleges Brutal Treatment-Hor Musband Deserted Her a Year Ago-He May Have Procured a Divorce in Dakota.

BROOKLYN, Oct. 20.-When William C. Bolton, president of the Bolton Drug Company of Brooklyn, returns to town he will be tendered an exceedingly warm reception if the story told by his wife is true. She says that Mr. Bolton married a Newark lady without going through the formality of securing a divorce from her. She married him 17 years ago, and with a married slater. The coremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. D. R. Frazer of the First Presbyterian Church France of the First Preabyterian Church in the presence of the doctor's daughter and a meriant. After duly receiving congratulations, the newly married couple left for South Hadley, Mass., on couple lott for South Radiey, Anas., on a bridal tour. Mrs. Bolton No. 1 went to Newark on Friday and visited the City Clerk's office. She asked if a Mr fiolton had been married in that city lately, and Assistant Clerk Fatterson soon found the marriage escanded in his house.

Clerk Fatterson son found the marriage recorded in his books. "Her's will be another life ruined." ex-claimed Mrs. Bolton dramatically. "William C. Bolton is my husband. I married him in the city of Brooklyn 17 years ago and the flex. Dr. Burchard of New York performed the ceremony. My husband is 10 years old, not 35 as re-corded here. I propose to have my hus-hand acreated for bigniny as soon as he returns."

Every one suffers Those from Catarrh in the Head. who don't have it suffer from those who do. It's a disease you can't keep to yourself. Here are some of the symptoms : Headache, obstruction of nose, discharges falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody, putrid, and offen-sive; eyes weak, ringing in ears, deafness; offensive breath; smell and taste impaired, and general debility. But only a few of these likely to be present at once. The cure for it-for Catarrh itself, and all the troubles that come from it-a perfect and permanent cure, is Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. The worst cases yield to its mild, soothing, cleaning and healing properties. A record of 25 years has proved that to its proprietors -- and they're willing to prove it to you.

They do it in this way : If they can't cure your Catarrh, no matter how had your case, or of how long standing, they'll pay you $500 in cash. Can you have better proof of the healing power of a medicine?
