point at present to an adjustment of the differences between Mr. John Hoey and the management of the Adams Ex-trame monsures. Mr. Hosy returned yesterday from his country seat at Hol-lywoodjto his rooms at Deimonico's, where he will remain for the present with his son, Frederick Hoey. All the parties to the affair maintain a discreet silence.

Mr. Hosy's counsel, Mr. Elihu Root, gave out for publication Mr. Hoay's letter of resignation as manager of the company, which is as follows:

based upon several alleged transactions. I have been grossly misrepresented as to these transactions, and I am propared to maintain, and shall maintain at the proper time and in the proper way, the entire propriety and fairness of my con-duct in regard to all of them. I invite a judicial determination of any claims that may be asserted against me in be-half of the company. If the proper tritumals shall say that I owe anything to the Adama Express Company I shall most cheerfully pay it. I find myself in the meantime placed in a position of antagonism to a majority of the board and to the official manage-ment of the company. It is manifest, Breakfast Cocoa from which the excess of oil has been removed, is of the board and to the official manage-ment of the company. It is manifest, under these circumstances and during such a controversy, that I cannot proper-ly take part in the dollberations of the board, and I herewith tender my resig-nation of the office of manager. Republicans properly resent the im-putation that their party is made up of thieves and maranders. The fall of Dill, the Democratic banker, of Clearfield, was but another illustration of the fact that crime is non-partisan, and that no political party can be fairly held re-sponsible for the wrong doing of any individual, any more than can a church or delightful month to travel in. religious denomination be placed in bad repute because of the chance downfall of one of its members.

"The melodramatic overture is about over, and the dust is passing nway," truly says John Russell Young, in commenting on this settling down to sober thought in the cunvass in Pennsylvania. "Buffalo Bill McClure, at the head of a conglomerate troops of saints, Hessians, Democrats, ward healers and aspirants for the presidency started out on a wild hullaballoo of a stampeling raid. All who go to the shows will un-derstand it. Buffalo Bill gets on a black horse, waggles his hair over his shoulders and howls. The Indians, in spare garmont, some of them, we are afraid, only circus riders in Indian apparel, also howl. There is a grand rush and a charge, and it seems as if the roof would come down.
