A Curious Old Document.

One of the dealers in second-hand books in Washington has unearthed a curious old document in the shape of a subscription list, written on a long parchment and bearing date 1774, in which George Washington, Charles Carroll, William Ellery and several other notable Americans bind themselves by their autograph signatures to pay the various sums set opposite their names toward the expense of cleaning the bed of the Potomac river.

This is said to be a word picture of the young king of Serbia, aged sixteen, who is to become a full-blown king in two years: "He is a lanky, pale-faced lad, who wears his hair cropped close in French fashion. He has his mother's large, fine eyes, but his forehead is low, and he does not seem to be possessed of the same shrewdness and quickness of his father. He has had a miserable education, and leads a solitary life, without having a single plaything."

It is said on reliable British authority that there is but one British officer left who fought at Waterloo, and all pretenders are warned to ring off and die as modest folks as they were born. This one officer is Lieut. William Hewitt, of the Rifle Brigade, born in 1795. Of late he has been in failing health. He lives at Southampton.

AT KEITER'S.

It has just been ascertained that the method of writing mentioned in the book of Job is still practiced by some of the natives of Ceylon. "O," says the patriarch, "that my words were now written! O, that they were printed in a book! that they were graven with an iron pen." It is the latter implement which is used by the Ceylonese. It is guided by a notch cut in the thumb nail, and the marks so engraved are rendered plain by being rubbed with a dark dye extracted from the juice of the palm.

Those who have not been permitted to climb the Alps, visit Rome, look down from the Pyramids, walk about Zion and Jerusalem, may learn more of these places from books than is known by many of those who have visited them. This is a comforting thought to those of us who cannot be spared from home long enough to "take in the sights" in foreign lands.

But few people know how to blow out a candle. When a candle is blown out a very disagreeable odor fills the room. This is very easily prevented. If you blow upward the wick will not smoulder, the bad smell is avoided and when you want to relight it again the wick will be found sufficiently long.

Accidents of the numerous railroad accidents which have happened in France recently somebody suggested that death ought not to be represented hereafter with a scythe in his hand but rather on a locomotive holding the throttle.

The Oldest Dwelling-House.
Killan Van Rensselaer's house in Rensselaer county, opposite Albany, N. Y., is said to be the oldest inhabited dwelling-house in the United States. It stands near the Hudson river at the south end of Greenbush, is of brick and has a gambrel roof. Two port-holes out of which the early Van Rensselaers shot at Indians pierce the front walls, and a little plate in the rear, set up by the Albany Commemorative society, shows the edifice to have been erected in 1642. Behind this venerable mansion is a well, on the coping of which "Yankee Doodle" is said to have been composed during the French war preceding the revolution. In the old hall the Dutch reformed settlers had religious services. An exchange facetiously says there were no Buddenicks in those days.

ORDER RESCINDED

COUNCIL TAKES BACK THE LITHUANIAN ORDER.

SPECIAL MEETING LAST NIGHT.

The Board of Directors of City Trusts Return to Town and Inspect Neighboring Collieries.

A special meeting of the Borough Council was held last night, Messrs. Gable, Lamb, Warm, Hopkins, Phalen, Bettridge, Mosker, Holman, Amour and James being present. Chairman Gable stated that the meeting had been called for the purpose of taking some action in regard to the Lithuanian celebration to take place next Sunday. "It appears Council was a little hasty in the matter," he said "and we have come to the conclusion to rescind the matter." Mr. Lamb moved that the action taken by Council last Thursday evening in regard to restraining the Lithuanian congregation from having bands and drum corps in the proposed parade be rescinded. Mr. Warm seconded the motion.

Mr. Lamb then spoke in favor of the motion and said, "We have simply blundered. We have made a mistake. When I voted for that motion I believed it was a matter of law. I have since found that there is no law to back us in the matter. It was not on account of what has been told to the public—that it was a matter of church, or against any particular church, and I defy any man to say that any action of mine could be considered bigoted. It was the farthest thought from my mind to take stand on account of religion. But it is a mistake. Had we consulted the solicitor his advice would have been different, but the matter came up so suddenly and we were so busy with the water and 'I' rail questions we didn't give the matter sufficient thought. It would be well to have the solicitor state the law."

Borough Solicitor Pomeroy then spoke and defined the law on public nuisances. He said, "So far as the question of law is concerned there is no law on the statute books of the state of Pennsylvania that prohibits the use of music upon the public streets on Sunday. In fact we have it or no statutory law in this state as to what may be termed a public nuisance. Whether a certain thing done is a public nuisance is a matter of fact and not a matter of law. The courts of law have laid down in Philadelphia, and the Supreme Court has confirmed it, that even the crying of newspapers on the streets on Sunday is a public nuisance if the people find it so. That is, if it disturbs the public Sabbath, or interferes with any body of citizens, but that is a matter of fact and should go to a jury. There is no doubt that it, Sunday after Sunday for fifty-two weeks in the year, the public was annoyed, the judge would send it to the jury to find whether or not it amounted to a public nuisance. In the law said 'you shall not play bands upon the public streets on Sunday it would be different.' But no law indicates what amounts to a public nuisance on the Sabbath."

Mr. Holman then said, "If Mr. Pomeroy's explanation had been made the other motion would not have prevailed." Mr. Lamb's motion was carried, after which Mr. James moved that a resolution submitted by Mr. Pomeroy be adopted. Mr. Hopkins seconded the motion, which was carried. The resolution read as follows:

WHEREAS, It appears to be the public sentiment of the citizens of the borough of Shenandoah that the use of bands and other instruments at the exercises of the laying of the corner stone of the St. George's Lithuanian Catholic church of Shenandoah on Sunday, the 25th day of October, 1891, should not be prohibited; therefore be it

Resolved, That the resolution heretofore passed by this council, prohibiting the use of the same on the public streets of the borough on the day aforesaid, be and is hereby rescinded and that the Chief Burgess be instructed and is hereby instructed to notify all persons concerned of this action of this body.

Mr. Lamb then moved that a committee of three be appointed to wait upon a committee of the Lithuanian church and make them understand that the previous action was not any action against their church and that there was no prejudice against their particular church. Mr. Hopkins seconded the motion and it was carried.

Messrs. James, Hopkins and Holman were appointed a committee to carry out the instructions.

Excellent Entertainment.

The stereopticon lecture given in the Presbyterian church last night by Prof. M. W. Cleaver, B. A., was very instructive and interesting. The subject was "Johnstown and the Conemaugh Valley," and the views of the disaster that befall that section a few years ago were strikingly realistic. The large audience thoroughly enjoyed the entertainment.

Anniversary.

The members of the Women's Relief Corps celebrated the anniversary of their organization last night by holding a supper and entertainment in Robbins' opera house. Members of the G. A. R. and Sons of Veterans were among the honored guests and they were treated in a royal manner.

Candidate's Sherwood is Ineligible.

HORNELLSVILLE, N. Y., Oct. 22.—Attorney-General Tabor has rendered an opinion on the question of eligibility of Franklin D. Sherwood, Republican candidate for Senator in the 27th District. He holds that Mr. Sherwood, being Park Commissioner of Hornellsville and duly qualified as such, is ineligible according to Section 3, Article 8, of the Constitution. Ex-Judge Danforth, who wrote an opinion to the contrary.

The Carriers Played the Races.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—It has been found, upon inquiry by the Postoffice Department, that the Philadelphia letter carriers, who were removed recently by Postmaster Field, were in the habit of "playing the races" at Gloucester, a sporting resort. They were recommended for removal by Gen. Edgerton, inspector in charge at Philadelphia, as persons liable to be untrustworthy for the honest delivery and collection of valuable mail.

Backer's Schedule Filed.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The schedule in the assignment of Abraham Backer, the note broker, was filed yesterday. The liabilities are $1,428,960. The nominal assets are $1,841,707, and the actual assets applicable to unsecured debts are $414,769. The liabilities as stated may be further increased by $1,019,180 of contingent liabilities.

Parnell Died Intestate.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—Mr. Parnell died intestate after all. Some time before his marriage he made a will in favor of Mrs. O'Shea, but not being aware that his marriage invalidated that will he made no other, and now Mrs. Parnell becomes entitled only to her widow's share, one half of the personal and one-third of the real estate.

Ended Her Sorrows in a Well.

RED BANK, N. J., Oct. 22.—Mrs. Annie Munn, aged 27, committed suicide yesterday by jumping into a well. Mrs. Munn was married in Brooklyn two years ago, and a child was born to her. A year later both husband and child died, which so preyed on her mind that she was subject to fits of melancholy.

NEW ENGLAND BREVITIES.

Secretary Blaine and party will arrive at Washington to-morrow. The Glendale Woolen Mill was burned last night. The loss is $50,000; insured. The First National Bank of Madison, Me., capital $75,000, is authorized to begin business. The biennial convention of the United States Universalist Denominational is being held in Worcester, Mass. A new consumption cure is reported from Portland, Me. Dr. John Blake White is the discoverer. Frank H. Hook, of New Haven, was elected president of the National Cartographers' Association at Cincinnati.

Two More Weddings Added to the Record—Miss Crawshaw and Mr. Bedea and Miss Tobin and Mr. Higgins Wedded.

The third prominent local wedding of the week took place this afternoon at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary A. Crawshaw, No. 23 North Jardin street. The contracting parties were Miss Hattie E. Crawshaw, who, until recently, held a clerkship in the local post office, and Mr. Daniel W. Bedea, of Mahanoy Plains, and one of the P. & R. C. & I. police force.

The ceremony took place at 2 o'clock, Rev. William Fowick, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, officiating. Only a few relatives and friends were present, it being the desire of the contracting parties to have the affair as private as possible.

Miss Margie Shaffer was the bridesmaid and Mr. Harry Proston the groomsmen. After the ceremony there was an informal reception and collation and towards evening Mr. and Mrs. Bedea drove to Mahanoy City, where they took the P. & R. R. train for Philadelphia. The couple will be absent about ten days, during which time they will visit Washington, Baltimore and other points. Upon their return they will locate at the residence of the bride's mother, which was recently enlarged, redecorated and thoroughly furnished in an elegant manner.

HIGGINS—TOBIN.

Mr. George J. Higgins, son of Tax Collector John F. Higgins, of town, and who is station agent at Shamokin for the P. & R. R. Co., and Miss Julia M. Tobin, of town, were married yesterday. The ceremony was performed in the Annunciation church, on West Cherry street. Rev. Father Kane officiating, assisted by Rev. Father J. A. Hoolahan, of St. John's parish, Philadelphia.

The ceremony was performed at 5 p. m. The ushers led the way up the aisle of the church. They were Messrs. John A. Feighan, at Philadelphia, Martin O'Hara and Michael O'Hara, of town, Nicholas J. Milton, of Philadelphia, and James C. Fitzpatrick, of Tamsqua. Then followed the bridesmaids, who were Misses Katherine E. Neville, of Philadelphia, and Miss Lizzie R. Milton, of Philadelphia. The bride and her brother, Mr. John A. Tobin, of Mt. Carmel, followed. Midway down the aisle the procession was swelled by the groom, attended by his best man, Mr. Henry M. Cullen, of Philadelphia, and the groomsmen, Messrs. John E. Higgins, brother of the groom, and Mr. Thomas J. Milton, of Shamokin, and the procession proceeded to the center gates of the altar rail, where the groom formally received the bride and her brother. The participants then took their positions at the altar. Rev. Father Kane then proceeded with the ceremony, at the conclusion of which the bridal party returned to the main exit of the church, the ushers bringing up in the rear of the bride, groom, lady of honor, bridesmaids and groomsmen.

The party then drove to the residence of the bride's mother, No. 412 East Centre street, where the bride and groom, assisted by the attendant ladies and gentlemen in waiting received the guests under a bower of tropical plants and a huge floral bell. The reception lasted from 6 to 8 p. m. At the latter hour an orchestra of ten pieces struck up a grand march and the bride, groom and guests, headed by Rev. Fathers Kane and Hoolahan, proceeded to the banquet rooms where covers had been laid for over two hundred.

The presents were numerous and costly.

KEAR-MOLL.

At Minersville yesterday afternoon Charles P. Kear, station agent of the Lehigh Valley Railroad at that place, was married to Miss Emma, daughter of Henry Moll, formerly a resident of this town. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's parents, Rev. Theodore F. Stevens officiating. Miss Lizzie Robinson acted as bridesmaid, and George Moll, brother of the bride, as groomsmen. A reception was held immediately after the ceremony. The bridal party are now on an extended wedding tour.

Karcher, Esq., Pottsville; E. C. Wagner, Girardville; Frank H. Hightley, secretary of the Board of Trusts; Hon. F. Carroll Brewster and Francis E. Brewster, Esq., of Philadelphia, solicitors to the board; E. D. Hine, M. D., of Philadelphia, one of the officers of Girard College; Dr. George W. Gardner, Philadelphia; Thomas Meehan, of Philadelphia, expert on forestry; and Andrew McDonald, Philadelphia. The special train was in charge of Assistant Superintendent George Bell, of the L. V. R. R.

After a stay of about half an hour at Kehley Run colliery the party left for Hazleton, where they remained for the night.

To-day the directors returned to this section and visited the Wm. Penn, Packer Nos. 1 and 5, East and West Bear Ridge and Girard collieries. After dinner at Girardville they went to Ashland and Contralia and at 5 p. m. they had supper at Girardville. At 6:10 p. m. they left the latter place by a regular P. & R. train for Philadelphia.

Desires to Bear Testimony.

Henry Thorne, Traveling Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., writes from Exeter Hall, Strand, London, February 23, 1888:

"I desire to bear my testimony to the value of Alcock's Porus Plasters. I have used them for pains in the back and side arising from rheumatic and other causes never without deriving benefit from their application. They are easily applied and very comforting. Those engaged as I am in public work which involves exposure to sudden changes of temperature, will do well to keep a supply of Alcock's Porus Plasters in their portmanteaus."
