Pattison's Extra Session Fireworks a Political Fizzle.

THE REPUBLICANS DRAW THE FIRE.

Honesty to Bule for the Rest of this Campaign.

WATRES TO THE STAY AT HOMES.

Every Republican Who Does Not Vote This Fall Will Be Classed as an Assistant Democrat in the Preliminary Skirmish in the Great Presidential Battle of '92-Gregg and Morrison and Their Plans.

[Special Correspondence,] PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 20.

Pattison has at last found a political rocket that will not go off at his touch. His extra session, from a political standpoint, has been a total fizzle. It was a bold move in politics, the calling of the senate together in the midst of an exciting campaign. Big chances were taken by the two adepts who compose the Patrison cabinet, each of whom has filled the rele of chairman of the Democratic state committee, for they were playing for big stakes.

The hope that Republicans would waver at the desperate andacity of their action, and give them an advantage to be carried into the state campaign, spurred them on. They now see their mistake. The Republican majority in the senate met the issue squarely and manfully.

THE REPUBLICAN KEYNOTE, Lieutenant Governor Watres sounded the keynote when he declared that the Républican party would insist upon a prompt and thorough investigation of every charge that might be brought against state officials. His declaration that as crime was non-partisan, so should investigation, and punishment, where deserved, be non-partisan, was at once

Though both the Republican state and city chairmen were away up at Harris-burg part of last week, the work of the campaign has been going on at head-quarties without interruption. TO GET OUT THE STAY AT HOMES, The aim now is to look after tho Republicans who are frequently classed among the "stay-at-homes" in off years, It is the determination of Chairman Watres to impress upon every Republi-can the fact that this is not an "off year," that the campaign of '92 is al-reedy under way, and that defeat in Pennsylvania next menth would mean a terrible setback for the Republicans throughout the country.

Here is a warning which the chairman has just sent out to the county commit-

Bring Out the Stay at Home Vote. Bring Out the Stay at Home Vote.

If the Democrate carry Pennaylymia this year they expect to nominate Governor Pattison for president next year. That's what all the Democratic hise and cry means.

They hope to carry the state by the Republicans staying away from the polls.

Therefore, a Republican who does not vote, really casts half a ballot for a Democratic candidate for president,

A CAMPAIGN OF WORK,

While Chairman Watres has been prodding up the county committeemen, General Reeder has been looking after the arrangements for mass meetings through the state. It is intended that this shall be more of a campaign of this shall be more of a campaign of work in other directions than in the line of speechmaking.

Candidates Gregg and Morrison have been getting around preity well, but more in the way of greeting the people, grasping them by the hand and, in a conversational way, discussing the issues of the canvasa. They expect to be together at a grand raily of the war veterans of Pittsburg tomorrow. They will devote most of this week to the western part of the state. A meeting has been arranged for them at Beaver Falls on Thursday.

There's danger in a cough-more than ever when your blood is "bad." It makes things easy for Consumption. But there's a cure for it in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. A post-tive cure—not only for Weak Lungs, Splitting of Blood, Bron-chitis, Asthma and all lingering Coughs, but for Consumption itself in all its earlier stages. It's reasonable. All these diseases depend on tainted blood. Consumption is simply Lung-scrofula. And for every form of scrofula and blood-taint, the "Discovery" is a certain remedy. It's so certain, that its makers guarantee it to benefit or cure, in every case, or the money is refunded. With a medicine that is certain, this can be done.

There's a care for Catarrh, too, no matter what you've been led to believe. Poor Little Fellow, They Almost Worried Him to Death.

Copyrighted by Lee & Shepard, Boston, and ded by special arrangement with the The man across the way recently rented the upper part of his bonso to a family from an outside district. The head of the family came to secure the rent.
He was a talk bony man, with a smiburned face and light, tawny chin whiskers. He boked very much like a cross between a farmer and a planing He explained:

"What I want is a peaceful naber-bood; and the comforts of a nome I get myself. There's the ole woman, my wife and our boy. James is but seven years old. He ain't strong, bein given more to study than to work: but he's got a head on him, I can tell you. But I want a peaceful naberhood, and you look like the man that hin just supply the demand. We'll be around on time."

They moved in two weeks ago. On the close of the third day the boy James had succeeded in flooding the first floor by leaving a pipe running on the second, and had pulled off all the touratoes to throw against the barn. The man across the way mildly intimated to his new tenant what James had done. "He didn't eat any of them green ter-matys, did he?' inquired the parent. "I don't suppose he did," was the re-ply of the landlord, who was evidently trying to see the relevance of the query "And he didn't get his feet wet.
