

The Evening Herald.

VOL. VI.-NO. 227.

SHENANDOAH, PA., MONDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1891.

ONE CENT.

THE SURE ROAD TO OPULENCE LIES KNEE-DEEP THROUGH PRINTER'S INK

Republican State Ticket.

AUDITOR GENERAL
GEN. DAVID McMURTRIE GREGG
STATE TREASURER
CAPT. JOHN W. MORRISON.

Delegates-at-Large to the Constitutional Convention.

A. S. L. SHIELDS, ISALAH C. WEAR,
WM. I. SCHAEFFER, HERMAN KREAMER
LOUIS W. HALL, M. L. KAUFFMAN,
FRANK REEDER, H. M. EDWARDS,
J. H. POMEROY, GEO. S. SCHMIDT,
H. C. M'COORMICK, CYRUS ELDER,
JOHN CESSNA, JOHN S. LAMBE,
WM. B. ROGERS, JAMES L. BROWN,
JOHN ROBERTS, T. V. POWDERLY.

County Ticket.

Judge—Hon. D. B. Green.
Sheriff—Benjamin Smith.
Jury Commissioners—Maj. William Clark.

Post Director—George Heffner.
Unexpired Term—Harry H. McGinnis.

Constitutional Convention Delegates.
ROBERT ALLISON, Port Carbon.
S. BURD EDWARDS, Pottsville.
JOHN J. COYLE, Mahanoy City.

For Judge, vote of D. B. Green.

VOTE for honest Ben Smith for Sheriff.

FIREMEN should vote for a Constitutional Convention.

GEORGE HEFFNER has proved that he was a capable and honest Director of the Poor. Re-elect him.

MAJOR WILLIAM CLARK is the Republican candidate for Jury Commissioner. He was a gallant soldier.

ONLY through the medium of a Constitutional Convention can ballot reform be secured speedily and surely.

REPUBLICANS should turn out in full force on Tuesday next and show their Democratic neighbors that their votes count for something. There has been entirely too many stay-at-home Republicans in the past.

NO BETTER ticket was ever presented for the support of voters than the Republican ticket, state and county.

45 CENTS PER YARD FOR a good home-made rug carpet. It is one of those extra heavy carpets, made of the best yarn and clean rags. Finest line of Velvet Brussels and Ingrain Carpets in Shenandoah at

C. D. FRICKE'S CARPET STORE.

Democrats as well as Republicans will show their appreciation of it by going to the polls in November, and electing every man.

VOTE for D. B. Green for Judge.

HARRY H. MCGINNIS, who is now filling the position of Poor Director made vacant by the death of Charles R. Kane, is a man of good business qualifications, honest and popular. He should receive the vote of every Republican and will receive many Democratic votes.

A CIRCULAR is being prepared and will be issued shortly to the volunteer firemen of the state asking all to vote in favor of holding a Constitutional Convention. W. W. Wunder, the secretary of the State Association, says that under the present constitution no legislation can be secured for firemen, and that if firemen want recognition they must vote for a new constitution.

ONE week from to-morrow is election day, and it behooves one and all to go to the polls and vote the entire ticket from top to bottom. Take your neighbors with you and help to roll up a grand majority for Green, Smith, Clark, Heffner, McGinnis and the whole ticket. A little effort on the part of every Republican voter in the county will elect the entire Republican ticket both state and county. Get to work at once, talk the matter up from now until election day and get out the entire Republican vote of your district.

POSTMASTER-GENERAL WANAMAKER thinks that free delivery in farming districts will pay for itself. Whenever it has been tried it has proved to be remunerative. If such a system should be adopted by Congress on the suggestion of Mr. Wanamaker, it would be one of the greatest boons to the villager and farmer that could be given them. To have their letters and papers delivered at their doors and thus avoiding a necessary visit to the post office, would be to these people a great benefit. The Postmaster-General is striving to make the post office department of more benefit to the masses than it ever has been. We hope Congress will give him the necessary aid.

BOROUGH ITEMS!

GLEANINGS BY THE LOCAL CORPS OF REPORTERS.

WHAT THE SCRIBES SEE AND HEAR

Rev. Powick Preaches an Interesting Sermon on Consecration in the Methodist Church. Large Attendance.

A large congregation in the Methodist Episcopal church listened last evening to a sermon on consecration from Romans XII-1-2, "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind." We have no proof that St. Peter ever saw Rome. The Roman church was probably founded by persons who were converted at Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost. The need of apostolic counsels led St. Paul to address them in this epistle. He uses the mercies of God as an argument in favor of thorough dedication to God. The consciousness of God's goodness in delivering us from sin, should lead us to do the same. When "attitude, latitude and platitude" become the substitute for experimental religion and hell begins to spew, as it did to-day, and men revel in its vomit, it is high time for God's children to take themselves to prayer and to present their whole powers as living sacrifices to God. We are not called on to die for religion but to live for it. To exemplify its principles and illustrate its doctrines in our daily life. Conformity to the world is inconsistent with the obligation laid upon us. It is often difficult to see the difference between the daily life of professors and un-professors of religion. It is a disgrace to a religious man to be governed by the spirit of the age and to cherish the same ambitions and possess the same aims as men of the world—such religion is vain. It was made the plain duty of the Christians of Rome, as it is of those of Shenandoah, to be transformed—transfigured—changed and made different from other men in their aims, principles, purposes, habits, etc. And when such fruits do not appear in their life it is because they are degenerate sons and daughters of a lifeless creed. One of the reproaches of our age is that in the sacred name of religion morality is often crucified by its own votaries. St. Paul says to Rome and to Christians of every age and every clime: "Be not conformed to this world." Live above it. Be superior to it. Do not imitate its methods. Refuse to resort to its expedients. But what response does Rome and the rest of the world make? A religion that does not make men better than those who are without it is worthless. And religious instructions that bid defiance to these apostolic admonitions are a delusion and a snare.

Next Sunday evening the pastor will preach a special sermon, by request, to the Jr. O. U. A. M.

The finest note paper and envelopes in the country at Max Reese's.

PERSONAL.

Joe Laughran, of Hazleton, spent Sunday here.
Stephen Goho, of Reading, is visiting friends in town.
Constable John Hall, of Delano, spent yesterday in town.
Miss Sadie Maberger, of Pottsville, is the guest of friends in town.
Col. Geo. L. Brown, of Frackville, spent several hours in town to-day.
County Commissioner Bowers, of Girardville, was in town yesterday.
Mrs. J. F. Finney and Mrs. O. A. Keim, are visiting friends in Philadelphia.
Contractor Eberle, of the Electric Railway, spent Sunday in Philadelphia.
William Thirwell and Will Steele, of Ashland, took in the Sunday parade.
Edward Mullen, of Shamokin, spent yesterday in town the guest of friends.
J. J. Watkins was among the Mahanoy City people who witnessed the parade yesterday.
Rev. J. W. Perkenpins, of Port Carbon, will preach this evening in the Methodist Episcopal church.
Miss Tillie Grosch and Bertha Staehle, of Fishbach, were the guests of friends in town over Sunday.
Rev. Wm. Powick returned on Saturday from Reading, where he attended the M. E. district convention.
Mrs. J. S. Boyer, of Tamaqua, and Mrs. A. A. Greenwald, of Pottsville, mother and sister of Postmaster Boyer, were in town yesterday.
District Attorney Koch, Assistant District Attorney Shay, J. J. Toole and John F. Whalen were among the Pottsville visitors to town yesterday.

"Mother, can I go out to fish?"
"No, no, my little sonny."
"You know you've got a swollen foot, My precious little honey."
But they got a bottle of Salvation Oil, and he went and caught an eel, and ate it like a man.
Ladies, if you want fine writing paper and envelopes to match, call on Max Reese

JUST CRITICISM.

"Justice" Shows the "News" Editors Up in Their True Light

EDITOR HERALD: It strikes me very forcibly that Mr. Batteridge, member of the Borough Council, did an unwise act in allowing the bull-dozing triumvir of the News to give an exhibition of their black-mailing proclivities over his signature. Besides, it places the gentleman in an unenviable light in the eyes of all well-thinking men. These black-mailers of the characters of men whom the triumvir are so far beneath morally, socially, politically and otherwise, being aware of the unenviable opinion the public has in regard to their expressions on any important question, take advantage of the prejudices of a narrow-minded citizen to give expression to certain untruths that they, through either fear or knowledge of the fact that their own opinions would have no weight, would not father in their Paul Pry sheet. Mr. Batteridge is made to say that he was aware that such a petition was to be presented to council over a week previous to its appearance. Now, I am in a position to know that the black-mailing triumvir have caused Mr. B. to tell an untruth. The News' little coterie of followers may have anticipated such a petition from the societies in question in opposition to the desecration of the American Sabbath, for they well know that such a protest would not emanate from their un-American and bigoted minds.

Mr. Lamb's action as a member of the Borough Council needs no defense nor apology at my hands. His vote, as well as those members who sustained him, goes to show that he is truly an American citizen and a believer in the sanctity of the Sabbath. Had the matter come up for consideration after the parade of yesterday, there would have been more of the same opinion. And, after finding, according to the interpretation of the borough's legal advisor, that there was no law to sustain council in its action, he further shows his manhood and fair-mindedness by moving a reconsideration. Mr. B. might follow the example with much profit. Yesterday was certainly a desecration of the Sabbath, morally, if not legally, and the foresight of the petitioners to the Borough Council is to be commended.

Mr. Editor, a word in reference to certain parties who used the Lithuanian people as a mere tool by which to show their hatred for the P. O. S. of A. and the Jr. O. U. A. M. These parties try to make it appear that the societies in question were opposed to the dedication. Such was not the case, as a perusal of the petition will prove. They merely—and justly, too—protested against the playing of bands of music on our streets. To show that it is not an interference with their religious worship, the authorities in Mahanoy City took similar action and stopped the bands, yet the Polish church of that town was duly dedicated. Perhaps Mr. B. could explain how this is an interference with their religious worship.

Shenandoah, Oct. 26, 1891.

A fine stock of guns and ammunition for sale cheap at Max Reese's.

Another Acknowledgement.

To the Officers of the Home Friendly Society:

GENTLEMEN:—Allow me to thank you and your courteous superintendent, William T. Evans, and agent, Alfred Welch, for the prompt manner in which you have settled the claim of my beloved daughter, Catharine Baird. She was insured only twelve weeks in your company and I only paid sixty cents and received $28.75 in return, which is the full amount of the claim. I recommend all to join the Home Friendly Society, as they do exactly what they promise, and do it with dispatch. Thanking you kindly, I remain, yours

HUGH A. BAIRD.

Brownville, Pa., Oct. 26, 1891. 10-26-31

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The Best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever, Swellings, Itching, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by C. H. Hagentuch.

Phoenix Phair.

The Phoenix Hose Company will hold a grand fair in Robbins' opera house, commencing on Tuesday, Nov. 3rd, 1891. It will be one of the largest and best fairs ever held in this county. 10-11-4f

Best work done at Brennan's steam laundry. Everything white and spotless. Lace curtains a specialty. All work guaranteed.

A Surprise.

Keep your eye on this local, Keagey, the photographer, will have his new opening in a few days and will have something interesting that will surprise the people. If

"How divine a thing a woman may be made," when her cold is cured by Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Burchill's Restaurant.

Charles Burchill is now located at corner of Main and Coal streets, Shenandoah. Regular meals, at popular prices, served any time. Ladies' dining and refreshment rooms attached. 9-14-4f

Four linotypes for 25 cents, at Dabb's. 1f

1,900 MEN IN LINE

THE LITHUANIAN CHURCH CORNER STONE LAID.

THOUSANDS OF VISITORS IN TOWN

Droves of Humanity From All Parts Between Plymouth and Shamokin—Thirty Four Societies in Line.

Yesterday in town bore as much resemblance to the Sabbath as the Fourth of July does to Christmas Day. Never before in the history of the town, with, possibly, the exception of the time when half the town laid in ruins in 1883, has there been such a crowd in the town. The only semblance of the Sabbath was the closed (front) doors of the saloons and the occasional ringing of church bells, but the sounds of the latter were frequently drowned by the music of the bands. The music discoursed by the latter, by the way, was sacred only in one instance and that was a selection played by the Grand Band just before the corner stone laying ceremonies commenced.

The traffic over the Lehigh Valley railroad was tremendous. Station Agent Ferguson estimated the numbers of passengers at not less than 3,000. Mahanoy City, alone, sent over 500 people. This immense throng was handled so effectively that but one accident, and that was a fatal one, a man from Plymouth losing his life. Those who witnessed the departure of the visitors were surprised that the accidents did not roll up by scores. The Lehigh Valley depot, waiting rooms, platform, and all surrounding places, were packed with humanity and it was only with great difficulty that the tracks could be cleared to make room for trains to pull up to the platform. Those who have been at Coney Island or Long Branch, or Cape May, and have witnessed a scramble for the last boat can form but a slight idea of the scene at the depot last night. The screams of children, the cries of women and the oaths of men made a scene wholly uncommon for a Sabbath day, especially in this section.

The people commenced to flock into the town at an early hour and continued to stream in until after one o'clock. By that hour all thoroughfares were thronged. The members of the various societies scattered here and there and whiled away the time intervening between their arrival and the starting of the parade by visiting friends. Judging from the appearance of some of the visitors, their visits must have been numerous and the receptions accorded them very enthusiastic. Said one citizen to a reporter, "I can't see where they got it." But another citizen said to the reporter this morning, "If you had been in one of the halls at the corner of Main and Oak streets you would have seen plenty. There was enough on the floor for a ship to float on."

But, however that may be, it is due to the societies to say that there were no disgraceful scenes upon the streets and the day ended far more quietly than was expected. The parade started at 1:30 p. m., under the Chief Marshalship of Andrew Melusky, in the following order:

FIRST DIVISION.
Chief Marshal.
Mounted Marshals.
Clergymen in Carriages.
Grant Cornet Band.
Knights of Annunciation.
T. A. B. Society, Girardville.
St. Joseph's Legion, Girardville.
St. Patrick's T. A. B. Society, Mahanoy Plane.

SECOND DIVISION.
St. Patrick's Band.
St. Patrick's Society, Shenandoah.
St. Michael's Verein, Shenandoah.
St. Joseph's Pioneers, Girardville.

THIRD DIVISION.
Shamokin Band.
and Guardia Kosciusko Societies, Shamokin.

FOURTH DIVISION.
Franciska Sarafina and St. Jerezko Societies, Shamokin.
Guardia Walnochi, Mount Carmel.

FIFTH DIVISION.
Mt. Carmel Band.
Stanislavi Kostky Society, Guardia Kosciuski and St. Petro and Powilo Societies, Mt. Carmel.

SIXTH DIVISION.
Hazleton Band.
St. Petro and Powilo Society, Hazleton; Jurgio Karaiway Society, Mahanoy Plane.

SEVENTH DIVISION.
Pittston Band.
St. Kasimer and Jurgio Societies, Pittston.

EIGHTH DIVISION.
Plymouth Band.
Society and Guardia Narodowa, Plymouth.

NINTH DIVISION.
Freeland Band.
Guardia Kosciusko and St. Kasimer Society, Plymouth.

TENTH DIVISION.
Mahanoy City Band.
St. Jursup and St. Ludwiko Society, Plymouth.

THIRTEENTH DIVISION.

Band.
St. Petro and Powilo Society, Shenandoah.

FOURTEENTH DIVISION.

St. Jurgio Band.
St. Jurgio Society, Shenandoah.

A reliable count showed that there were 1,900 men in line, independent of the men in the fourteen bands, and it took the line twenty-two minutes to pass a given point on North Main street.

At the conclusion of the parade Rev. H. F. O'Reilly, of the Annunciation church, and the assistant clergymen alighted at the rear end of the foundation walls of the new church and, entering the space within the walls, proceeded with a short service. Rev. O'Reilly was assisted by Rev. J. J. Litorzynski, of Pittston; Rev. Abramajia, of Mahanoy City; Rev. Klonowski, of Mt. Carmel; Rev. Alexander Burba, of Plymouth; Rev. Paulienis, Baltimore; and Rev. Osborn, Mahanoy Plane, and Rev. Schutleboffer, of the German Catholic church, of town.

After the service in the space within the walls the clergymen proceeded to the platform erected at the southwest corner of the site and Rev. O'Reilly formally laid the corner stone. Rev. Paulienis, of Baltimore, made a lengthy address and was followed by the other Lithuanian clergymen. Owing to the numerous addresses in the Lithuanian tongue Rev. O'Reilly did not speak.

Always go to Colet's, South Main street, for your prime oysters. 8-22-4f

EXCURSIONIST KILLED.

Mangled as He Was About Going Home.

John Milonowicz, one of the excursionists to town yesterday, was instantly killed at the Lehigh Valley depot last night, just before he was to leave for his home in Plymouth. The train was run down by an engine pulling one of the excursion trains up to the platform and his body was horribly mangled. It was so badly cut up that pieces were scattered along the track.

The deceased was 24 years of age and unmarried. He was a member of the St. Kasimer Society of Plymouth, and his remains were taken to that place by members of the society on the regular excursion train. An open face silver watch and $85 in cash were found near his person.

Deputy Coroner Brennan empaneled the following jury: Squire J. J. Monaghan, Joseph Temple, Thomas Mullahy, D. J. Conners, P. F. Burke and George Cox. The jury viewed the remains and adjourned to meet as soon as the witnesses can be secured.

P. J. Ferguson, the station agent, was an eye witness of the accident. He was so uncomfortably close to the deceased when the accident happened that he was knocked by the train.

Mr. Ferguson said last night: "The tracks were crowded as the train approached and we had difficulty in getting the people out of the way. The dead man and two others, who seemed to be under the influence of drink, refused to move. I ran across the track and shoved two of the men out of the way. As I did the other man was struck and the side of the engine knocked me down, outside of the track."

It was learned to-day that the $85 found near his body did not belong to the deceased, but to a man residing at Girardville. The latter has made claim to the money. He says that while he was helping to move the body from the track the bills fell out of his pocket. The claimant will appear before the coroner's jury to-morrow night and make a formal demand for the money, with proof of ownership.

Legal blanks of all kinds for sale at the HERALD office.

Stationary packages, 5 and 10 cents each, at Max Reese's. 1f

Fall of Coal.

A Poland residing in the First ward was seriously injured by a fall of coal in the Suffolk colliery this morning. He was taken to his home.

Buy Keystone flour. Be careful that the name Lisesto & Co., Ashland, Pa., is printed on every sack. 3-3-11aw

Oysters are in season and the best in the market are at Colet's. 8-22-4f

A fine stock of guns and ammunition for sale cheap at Max Reese's. 10-24-4f

WANT A FISH?

For Breakfast?
A Mackerel?
We have 'em.
White and fat.
Bright and sweet.
No oil. No rust.

1 lb, 1 lb, 1 lb, 1 lb, 1 lb

GRAF'S,

No. 122 North Jardin Street

HIGH GRADE GOODS!

Do you want a strictly choice article of BUCKWHEAT FLOUR? If you do we recommend our Fancy New Process Buckwheat Flour as the VERY FINEST in the Market. Ask for

"Riverside Buckwheat Flour!"

Just received a new lot of LARGE BLOATER MACKEREL. The Best we have had this season. Also New No. 1 Mackerel. Medium size—White and Fat.

Our first invoice of New Fruit is now open. New Currants, Raisins, Citron and Lemon Peel. Try our new Cleaned Currants. Free from dirt and stems. Ready for immediate use.

Our BEST MINCE MEAT is the Best we can buy. We keep no Common Brands.

Our "NORTHWESTERN DAISY" is made of the Best Grade of Minnesota Wheat. It is easily Baked and yields MORE and BETTER BREAD than ordinary Flour. It is sold AT THE SAME PRICE AS ORDINARY FLOUR.

Try "Old Time" white Wheat GRAHAM Flour.

AT KEITER'S.