DRAWING THE LINE.

If there is any law preventing strolling musicians from playing on the public streets on week days why does it not apply when several bands fill the air with all kinds of music while playing on the streets on Sunday? Yesterday a trio of Italian musicians, who played very good music, were stopped by the Chief Burgess. Is there any law that allows such discrimination? The Chief Burgess has the floor.

THE Council's action on the parade business is not being used a political issue. It would prove a boomerang.

WHEN a few disgruntled and disappointed Republicans announce themselves in favor of Democratic candidates the Democrats throw up their hats and rejoice. There isn't much hat-throwing in this county now. The Democrats are coming out en masse for the Republican nominees and the indications point to a handsome majority for them.

AT KEITER'S.

WERE George D. McCreary a state candidate instead of a city candidate he would carry Shenandoah with a hurrah. As it is, Shenandoah people ask their friends in the city to vote for him. His kindness to our people after the great fire has not been forgotten.

REPUBLICANS have nothing to fear if they will only turn out and deposit their votes next Tuesday. A full Republican vote means a big victory, ensuring the election of a Republican candidate for President next year.

WHEN such men as ex-Sheriff Matz, Mason Wiedman, the Rahns and many other influential Democrats favor Judge Green there must be cause for walling and weeping in the Democratic ranks.

THE press generally seems to favor the Constitutional Convention, because it will benefit the farmer, the mechanic, the laboring man, everybody. And in that convention no one could more ably represent constituents than will John J. Coyle.

WHEN the small boys meet Editor Mike Doyle on the streets they shout "water!" Mike's nerves are frequently shocked by the expression, but after consideration he catches the point.

REPUBLICANS stand by your guns. The enemy is demoralized and preparing to retreat. Fire grape and canister and clear the field.

BEN SMITH, candidate for Sheriff, is putting in his big ticks this week. He makes friends wherever goes. Vote for him.

JUDGE GREEN'S Democratic friends are so numerous below the mountain that the Democratic papers have become furious.

SOLDIERS, stand by your colors and vote for Gregg and Morrison, true veterans of the war.

ELECTRIC RAILWAY SUPPLIES NOW COMING IN STEADILY.

THE POLES BEING DISTRIBUTED.

The Contract for Supplying Bricks for the Power Houses Awarded to a County Man—Superintendent Eberle Busy.

The first installment of supplies for the electric railway arrived yesterday and consisted of poles and sills, and two car loads of other material.

The poles and sills are being supplied by Abner Bittling, of the Catawissa Valley. Several loads were hauled to town yesterday and scattered along the proposed route between this town and Mahanoy City.

Two car loads of other supplies also arrived in town yesterday, via the P. & R. railroad. The material included ten miles of overhead wire.

Mr. Eberle, the superintendent of the construction, is one of the busiest men in the town and in a few days signs of go-ahead work will appear to console the occupants of the anxious bench.

Judge Sadler, president of the company, says there must be no unnecessary delay and that the work must be pushed as fast as the supplies arrive and the men can do it.

Bricks for the power houses will probably be the next material to arrive. Mr. Kerlin, the brick manufacturer of Port Clinton, was in town and said that he could ship 40,000 bricks on a moment's notice and furnish as much more as may be required and as fast as needed.

Applicants for work by bricklayers are pouring in upon Superintendent Eberle.

There is no longer the slightest doubt about the road being constructed. The people on the anxious bench are required to note this. Their questions are becoming chestnuts.

The Mahanoy Tribune has discovered that electric railways help to build up the towns and districts they pass through. It is very true. Almost any school boy could have told the astute editors of the Tribune that. The childish opposition the paper made against the road found little favor in its own community. Now that the Tribune has discovered the truth it is hoped that it will step from the ranks of ten-pots like the Snews and other papers.

THE HERALD has just learned that certain men who had determined to sell their real estate have changed their minds and that their properties are now withdrawn from the market.

If our people would only throw bigotry and jealousy aside and come together there would be some hope of expecting the advent of several good manufacturing industries with the completion of the electric railway. Why can't they get together? Why should we not have some factories here?

Was He Prepared?

The day of rest has passed and gone. The coronation is laid. But many broke commandments That God himself had made, In Holy Writ he teaches A lesson we should learn, Ourselves day in the depths of hell Our mortal souls should burn. A drunkard, so the bible says, Shall never wear the crown That Jesus Christ wore on the cross, When He his life laid down. He bore the cross to Calvary Mount And, while they tortured him, he prayed "O, God! have mercy on his soul, They know no better," he said. On Sunday night I saw a sight— I could not help but say, "O, God! have mercy on his soul," As upon the track he lay. There, in death's embrace, a man— From his lips came not a groan; I wondered, then, but this man said For him it was a coronation.

The Result of Merit.

When anything stands a test of fifty years among a discriminating people like the Americans, it is pretty good evidence that there is merit somewhere. The value of a medicine is best proved by its continued use from year to year by the same persons and families, as well as by a steady increasing sale. Few, if any, medicines have met with such continued success and popularity as has marked the introduction and progress of Brandreth's Pills, which, after a trial of over fifty years, are conceded to be the safest and most effective purgative and blood purifier introduced to the public.

This is the result of merit, and that Brandreth's Pills actually perform all that is claimed for them, is conclusively proved by the fact that those who regard them with the greatest favor are those who have used them the longest.

Brandreth's Pills are sold in every drug and medicine store, either plain or sugar coated.

Another Acknowledgement.

To the Officers of the Home Friendly Society:

GENTLEMEN:—Allow me to thank you and your courteous superintendent, William T. Evans, and agent, Alfred Welch, for the prompt manner in which you have settled the claim of my beloved daughter, Catharine Baird. She was insured only twelve weeks in your company and I only paid sixty cents and received $28.75 in return, which is the full amount of the claim. I recommend all to join the Home Friendly Society, as they do exactly what they promise, and do it with dispatch. Thanking you kindly, I remain, yours

Still Another.

GENTLEMEN: This is to certify that I have this day received the full amount of death claims upon my son Walter, who died this morning. Only a few weeks ago I entered my child with Fredrick Acornley agent for the above company, and to-day I have seen the benefit of being protected in time of distress. Therefore I would cheerfully recommend this company to all.

Yours,

A Stolen Horse Returns.

During the heavy rain storm last night a bay mare was stolen from the Merchants' hotel stable. The horse was stolen while the hostler was making his report at the hotel office. As Daniel Neisewenter, the hotel proprietor, was about to start in pursuit of the thief, or thieves, the horse walked into the stable. Mr. Neisewenter suspected a man residing in Kingtown and he drove to the man's house last night. His suspicions were confirmed by finding the man absent from his home and failing to learn his whereabouts. Mr. Neisewenter said to-day, "As I lost nothing I will not go to the trouble of prosecuting the parties I suspect, but if I am troubled again I will make things warm for them."

A Plan by Which the Jr. O. U. A. M. and P. O. S. of A. Can Build a Home of Their Own. Will They Act?

During the past year the P. O. S. of A. and Jr. O. U. A. M. of town have made rapid strides to the front, and the suggestion has been made that the two orders above mentioned, together with the G. A. R. and Sons of Veterans, form a stock company and erect a handsome and substantial home of their own. At the lowest estimate the numerical strength of these organizations can be placed at 1,200. With shares issued at $10 each, would give the company $12,000 to start with. Quite a number of the individual members would undoubtedly subscribe for from five to ten shares. Besides it would afford an opportunity for a profitable investment of the surplus cash now lying in the treasuries of these organizations.

There is no question but that such a move on the part of these organizations would be a paying investment. Shenandoah is in great need of lodge accommodations, and we suggest the members discuss the advisability of such a movement. There are several available sites that can be purchased. It would afford lodge rooms for each of these societies, and the first floors could be used for business places.

We would suggest that a joint meeting be called to consider the matter. What say you? Shall Shenandoah have a public building which would be a credit to both the societies and the town. Get together, gentlemen.

Amateur Photographers.

This week's issue of Frank Leslie's Weekly will be found to be of great interest to amateur photographers in the up-country of four pages, which shows the beautiful work done by American amateurs, and there is no question but that the prizes of $500 have been fairly awarded. Miss Catharine Weed Barnes, whose name is a household word with all amateurs, has written an article on "Practical Hints for Amateurs" in the same number. The consecration of the Rev. Phillips Brooks, of Boston, deserves a beautiful front page which will make this number especially attractive to Episcopals. In the same number are also some of the character sketches which are making Frank Leslie's Weekly so famous. It also contains a page on the Republican State Committee in New York, another page on the hearing at which it was decided to try Professor Charles A. Briggs for heresy; and a most remarkable editorial by a well-known professor of Mexico on the subject: "Seismic Disturbances May Be Foretold." Frank Leslie's Weekly has ordered five thousand pairs of skates, which it intends to give to all bright boys and girls for a small amount of work.

Is It Right?

EDITOR HERALD:—Is it right and just that our borough authorities should allow the playing of numerous bands, the parading and maneuvering of military companies carrying side arms and dressed in uniforms similar to those worn by them in foreign lands, on the American Sabbath, thereby annoying the religious services held by other denominations, and at the same time have a law that authorizes the Burgess to prevent the playing of traveling musicians on our sidewalks through the week? This law was enforced to day when the Burgess notified three Italians, who were discoursing the finest kind of music from two violins and a harp, to desist from doing so on our streets. Why taboo the Italian and the Little German Band? Perhaps it's because they have no political party at their back to help them out. After yesterday's celebration I say wipe all such laws out. AMERICAN. Shenandoah, Oct. 26-6, 1891.

POLITICAL.

Clerk of the Court Toole was among the "faithful" in town yesterday in the interest of Wadlinger for Judge. "Jack," our people have made up their minds and a big vote will be polled for Judge Green.

The near approach of election day finds the Republicans wide awake and ready for the fray. There won't be any trading this year.

The veterans of the late war should not forget to vote and work for these two brave soldiers, Gregg and Morrison.

Pensioners, do you want your pensions annulled? If not, vote the Republican ticket. The election of the Democratic ticket will mean a notice to the Democratic Congress to repeal existing pension laws. Vote for General Gregg, Colonel Morrison and the whole Republican ticket.

Republicans should feel encouraged. The skies are bright for a grand victory in New York, Ohio, Iowa and Pennsylvania.

Fassett is doing glorious work in the enemy's camp in New York City and Brooklyn. He is not afraid of the Democratic tiger.

Pottsville Democrats will show their appreciation for Judge Green by giving him a big majority. Up here, north of the mountains, the Democrats who favor an impartial Judge, will do likewise.

The Snews editorials show the alarm felt by their editors of their coming defeat. "Jack Smith" failed to enlighten the readers of the Snews. Has there been a reaction in that gang?

McKinley's estimated majority has been put down at no less than 30,000, and that the Legislature is safe.

Pattison's boomerang has disguised all decent Democrats. Many of them question if Pattison is really a Democrat after all.

BOTH LEGS OFF.

Yet the Victim Has Chances for Recovery.

A Great Minstrel Entertainment.

A large and refined audience was elegantly entertained at the Grand Opera House last night by Al. G. Field's Minstrels. The entertainment was by all odds the best in the minstrel line that has ever appeared in this city, and it would be difficult to imagine in what respect it could be improved. All the parts were so perfect in themselves that it would seem unjust to particularize any one part without mentioning all, and this is not possible owing to lack of space. The show is simply great all around, affords an infinite variety of chase and wonderful entertainment, different from all precedents in minstrelsy, and is par excellence the most attractive and interesting entertainment of this character that is on the road to-day. Field's Minstrels are worthy of the heartiest words of commendation for their successful efforts to amuse and entertain the public, and should meet with a generous recognition, evidenced in big houses wherever they may appear. They are sure winners of popular favor.—Herald, Circleville, Ohio, Aug. 11. Will appear at Ferguson's Theatre, Friday, Oct. 31.
