MANY local merchants have received letters from the Dealers' Protective Association, of Philadelphia, asking them to vote for the Republican candidates because the platform of that party pledges the repeal of mercantile assessments levied by the state. The letter closes thus: "As a purely business matter every dealer in the commonwealth should vote and use his

JUDGE GREEN has been vindicated. The Chronicle has made a full retraction of the charge it made against Judge Green and Eckley B. Coxe in a comment on the Shepp vs. Coxe case. "We desire to make the fullest retraction of these charges" says the Chronicle.

WADLINGER will be obliged to run pretty fast to keep within a respectable distance of Judge Green on election day.

WOLL has not been pulled over the eyes of the voters in this county. Ben Smith is all right.

JUDGE GREEN is on top.

The Minstrels Coming.
Al. Field's Minstrels opened the season at the City Opera House Saturday night to an immense audience and gave a performance that was among the best minstrel entertainments ever presented here. The first part was new and unique and a decidedly pleasing change from anything seen heretofore, while the programme as a whole was rich in good things and spiced with real fun. It gave general satisfaction to a discriminating audience. We predict for Field's Minstrels a most successful season. —Shenandoah Gazette. Field's Minstrels will appear at Ferguson's theatre to-morrow night.

The Milonowicz Inquest.
Deputy Coroner Brennan and his jury last night concluded the inquest in the case of John Milonowicz, the man from Plymouth who was killed by an excursion train at the Lehigh Valley depot on Sunday night. The Ladder at the Wrong Window.
MCKEESPORT, Pa., Oct. 29.—At an early hour yesterday morning the cry of "Police! Murder!" was heard from one of the rear windows of the Hocker residence in this city. A young man was discovered on a ladder at the window of Mrs. Hocker's room. The police succeeded in capturing him. At his hearing he said that he had an appointment at the house with an inmate. By a mistake he put the ladder up at the wrong window.

SCHOOL BOARD!

A SPECIAL MEETING HELD LAST NIGHT.

ARRANGING THE NIGHT SCHOOLS.

Six Teachers Elected for a Term of Four Months—Consideration of Complaints by Parents Considered.

A special meeting of the School Board was held last evening, Messrs. Boddall, Conry, Muldoon, Gallagher, Bachman, Gable, Owens, Butts, Williams, Trezise, Baird, Brennan, O'Hearn, Hanna and Davenport being present.

John H. Bainbridge appeared to ask that his daughter be transferred to another school, as the relations existing between the pupil and teacher are such that a change would be beneficial to all parties. The board decided to withhold its decision until next Wednesday evening, when the story of the teacher will be heard.

A similar request was made in behalf of Morgan Davis, the relations between his daughter, Mary, having become strained. In this case the teacher was present and stated her side of the case, after which the board decided to sustain the teacher.

The night school question was then taken up. There were twelve applicants for election. The board decided to elect six night teachers for a term of four months, the salaries to be the same as last year.

The election resulted as follows: Miss Jennie Gunter, 15 votes; Miss Ida Lewis, 14; Miss Katie L. Burns, 14; Miss Hattie Shaffer, 13; Miss Mahala Fairchild, 10; Miss Carrie W. Faust, 8. These six young ladies having received a majority of the votes cast were declared elected. Messrs. R. C. McHale and J. W. Burke received seven votes each and M. P. Whitaker 2.

The evening schools will be opened in the Union, White and Lloyd streets school buildings on Monday evening, November 2, at 7 o'clock. Pupils will be admitted without tickets to the same schools they attended last year. The school held in the Centre street building last year will be transferred to room No. 12, in the Lloyd street building. New applicants for admission can procure tickets at the superintendent's office, in the Main street building, at 6:30 o'clock Monday evening.

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved.
From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Groton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all, eight bottles; it has cured me, and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at C. H. Hagenbuch's drug store, regular size, 50c. and $1.00.

A Sneak Thief.
Yesterday five pairs of shoes mysteriously disappeared from J. Coffee's store, on South Main street. Later in the day two pairs of gum boots and one pair of leather boots were stolen from the boot and shoe store of Lamb & Co., on West Centre street. Policeman Ed. Williams and Constable Thomas Boland found the boots in the custody of a man from Mahanoy Place who said his name was Michael Kane, but the police recognized him as the man who stole shoes from Alf. Morgan's store, on West Oak street, about two months ago and gave his name as Michael McCann. Kane, or McCann, was taken before Squire Williams. He was recognized by J. S. Williams, for Lamb & Co., and one of Mr. Coffee's clerks. Squire Williams demanded $1,000 bail. The man was taken to the Pottsville jail this morning.

CHILDREN MALTREATED.

Cruelties Practiced by a Rector in an Orphanage.

DUBLIN, Oct. 29.—Some startling testimony was given yesterday at the trial of the Rev. Samuel Cotton, a rector at Carnoch, County Kildare, who was charged with criminal neglect and ill treatment of the children in the Carnoch Orphanage.

The Rev. Samuel Cotton, who has conducted the affairs of the orphanage for many years, has made many appeals to the public for financial aid and has received large sums of money by subscription for the maintenance of the orphanage. But owing to numerous complaints which have been made against that institution, the Society for the Protection of Children recently made an investigation into the manner in which the orphanage was conducted and thereby a horrible state of affairs was revealed.

The agents of the society found that the children were in an emaciated, filthy and ragged condition, and that they were covered with parasites. The toes of one of the children, it was testified to, had rotted off. Another, a girl, had been chained by the legs to a log. The rooms of the orphanage were also found to be in the filthiest condition.

In the kitchen was found a baby, six weeks old, covered with dirty rags and dying of cold and inanition. Other children were found in the same apartment crowded around a small fire, almost frozen and half starved. All of them were weak and sickly and their growth had been stunted by the treatment received under the Rev. Mr. Cotton's management.

The sanitary condition of the whole establishment was found to be perfectly horrible. Some of the beds used by the unfortunate children were merely old boxes and packing cases filled with stable hay.

It was also shown that all the children were kept in a perpetual state of terror by the Rev. Mr. Cotton, and that it would be difficult even to imagine a more deplorable state of things.

The Rev. Mr. Cotton was committed for trial, but, however, being allowed in order to enable him to attend the synod of the diocese, of which body he is a member.

THAT CERTIFICATE OF DEPOSIT.
Senator Quay Says He Had No Political Dealings With Bardsley.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 29.—Senator Quay arrived in Pittsburgh from Beaver last evening and repaired to his hotel. About the same time ex-Collector David Martin arrived from Philadelphia and met the Senator at the hotel. Mr. Martin came to consult the Senator regarding the certificate of deposit found among the Keystone Bank papers.

A reporter called at the hotel and talked with both Senator Quay and Mr. Martin on the subject of the certificate. Mr. Martin, when asked to explain the transaction, said:

"Senator Quay gave his note for $9,000 to Mr. Charles Porter and myself in Philadelphia to raise money on it where ever we could. We first tried two or three gentlemen without success. We then took the note to Bardsley and asked him if he could not get it discounted for us. Mr. Bardsley gave us a check for the amount, which was cashed at the Third National Bank of Philadelphia, less the discounting of the note, $123. A certificate of deposit was sent to Senator Quay at Beaver, who sent on a check for $9,000. Senator Quay had no dealings whatever with Bardsley in the matter. Mr. Porter and myself transacted the entire business. The note was afterwards paid and I took it to Senator Quay in Washington."

Senator Quay said: "I have never been acquainted with Bardsley and would scarcely know him if I saw him. I was not even acquainted with him politically, nor ever had any political dealings with him. He was not a party man, for whenever he ran for treasurer it was as a citizens' candidate."

Senator Quay had with him the check that he sent to Philadelphia in return for the certificate of deposit. This check has no special significance except, as the Senator said, it is confirmatory of the statement of the whole transaction.

A Receiver Asked For.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 29.—F. C. Miller, for himself and others, yesterday filed a bill in court requesting that a receiver be appointed for the Dexter Spring Company. The total indebtedness, he claims, is $52,000. Many claims against the company are pressing and within 30 days at least $47,000 will fall due. The company is insolvent, the late president, Theodore Dorringer (the defendant school board treasurer), having fraudulently appropriated to his own use $13,000 of the company's money.

A Grounded Barge Stops Travel.
NORWALK, Conn., Oct. 29.—While the steam barge Hebe, Capt. Greenwood, from New York, with 200 tons of coal, was passing through the drawbridge at Westport yesterday she grounded and was left standing on a rock as the tide receded. A hole was stove in her bottom and she filled. Until the draw can be closed communication between the two sides of the river must be made by rowboats. Old mariners say the vessel may be in her present position for several days.

Hired Boys to Buy Liquor.
NEW HAVEN, Oct. 29.—Wednesday Judge Blydenburgh, prosecuting attorney, employed two boys, Walter Wynkoop and William McQuire, minors, to visit saloons and get drinks. They succeeded in getting drinks at 129 saloons. Yesterday Judge Blydenburgh made out warrants for the arrest of the 129 dealers, and many have already been served. The list includes some of the most prominent men in the city engaged in the liquor business.

THE "CHRONICLE" CRAWLS.
It Retracts Charges Made Against Judge Green.

The Pottsville Chronicle has published the following retraction of an infamous libel published in its desperate efforts to injure Judge Green in the present campaign: "In our issue of October 8th last, we published an editorial under the heading of 'Millionaires and Our Beach,' in which we stated that an application had been made for the continuance of the case of Daniel Shepp et al. vs. Eckley B. Coxe et al., recently tried in our courts. In that article we charged that a statement was made by counsel that detectives employed by Mr. Coxe, had been spotting and interviewing every juror on the panel. We charged Judge Green with having stated that there was nothing 'improper' in this.

"We desire to make the fullest retraction of these charges against Mr. Coxe and against Judge Green and to acknowledge that the publication was made without sufficient previous investigation of its truth; and, after full inquiry, further to acknowledge that there was nothing in the facts of the case to justify these charges or their publication.

"We received the information from sources that we considered perfectly trustworthy, and regret that we were misled in the matter."

The Result of Merit.
When anything stands a test of fifty years among a discriminating people like the Americans, it is pretty good evidence that there is merit somewhere. The value of a medicine is best proved by its continued use from year to year by the same persons and families, as well as by a steady increasing sale. Few, if any, medicines have met with such continued success and popularity as has marked the introduction and progress of Brandreth's Pills, which, after a trial of over fifty years, are conceded to be the safest and most effective purgative and blood purifier introduced to the public.

This is the result of merit, and that Brandreth's Pills actually perform all that is claimed for them, is conclusively proved by the fact that those who regard them with the greatest favor are those who have used them the longest.

Brandreth's Pills are sold in every drug and medicine store, either plain or sugar coated.

They are Square.
Dr. Gelletti, who was in town recently with a band of Indians in the interest of the Kickapoo Indian Medicine Company, was in hard luck and after trying to balance accounts at Frackville he gave up and instructed the company that he intended to abandon his route in this section. During his stay here and in Frackville Dr. Gelletti contracted several bills for printing, but before leaving the latter place an inspector employed by the company liquidated all claims there. Dr. Gelletti and his Indians then pulled up stakes and departed from the region. We regretted his unceremonious departure because we had an unsettled account of over $18 and we concluded that it would remain unsettled, but, to our surprise, we received from Healy & Bigelow, of New Haven, Conn., agents for the Kickapoo Indian Medicine Co., a check for the full amount due us. We make this statement because we wish to place credit where it belongs and Messrs. Healy & Bigelow, together with Dr. Gelletti, will please consider our hat off.
