"My Son, Deal With Men Who Advertise. You will Never Lose by It."--Benjamin Franklin

BEFORE VOTING

$2,345,144 44 of state funds stolen and only one of the offenders behind the bars.

VOTE for the Constitutional Convention.
JUDGE HARVEY, in his address to the Democrats the other evening, stated that Governor Pattison was to be credited for the exposure of Bardsley and his punishment. Does the Judge think Shenandoah people are all ignorant and do not read the newspapers? It remained for a Republican Mayor, Stuart, and a Republican District Attorney, Graham, to bring Bardsley to trial and have him convicted, and a Republican Judge, Wilson, to sentence him.

THE S'news is whistling to keep up its courage. No one but a greenhorn in politics would claim 800 majority for Wadlinger in Shenandoah.

THE Democratic hatred to the soldier is shown in their bitter fight on the brave General Gregg and Colonel Morrison. Soldiers, stand by your guns, and show these soldier haters that you are prepared to stand by your friends now as you did for the flag during the dark days of the Rebellion.

TILDEN AND THE CATHOLICS.
From the Pittsburg Times.
It is said that the political farmer from Erie county, in one of his campaigns for County Commissioner, gave great offense to the Catholic voters there by certain severe strictures on their faith, and to set himself right this year he sent his daughter to a Catholic parochial school at Harrisburg, where she now is.

How THE Democrats figure out a majority for to-morrow is a puzzle. The same element that helped Pattison last year are not pulling the chestnuts out of the fire for him this year. Last year there was a split in the Republican ranks; this year the party is united. Last year Allegheny county gave scarcely 2,000 Republican majority; this year she will give no less than 12,000, perhaps 15,000. Last year Schuylkill county gave Pattison 4,200 majority; this year the Democratic party will be glad if they get 1,500. Here in two counties alone there will be sufficient to change the result of last year's election so far as Pattison's election is concerned, yet it should not be forgotten that both the Republican candidates for Lieutenant-Governor and Secretary of Internal Affairs were elected by handsome majorities. In other Republican counties where the vote fell off last year on account of dimensions in the Republican ranks, an old-time majority will be given and the Republicans have every reason to feel encouraged on the coming victory. It will be decisive enough for all purposes. There is no excuse for any true Republican to remain away from the polls to-morrow; let them come out and help swell the vote and have a claim in the victory to the Republican colors.

READ "Jack Smith's" letter in yesterday's S'news and you cannot keep coming to the conclusion that his views and the editor's views do not tally. The Republicans are on the run—to victory; that is true.

NOW THAT THE Democrats have given up trying to elect Wright, their corruption candidate for Auditor General, they are begging Republicans and Prohibitionists to vote for their farmer (?) candidate for State Treasurer.

urer, in order to save something out of the wreck.

THE victory is already won. It is now only a question of majority. Don't cut a single name on the ticket. Vote for every one from the hero of Gettysburg, General Gregg, down to the brave Major Clark for Jury Commissioner.

FOR once the S'news was interesting yesterday. With four active editors and two lay editors, and six days to work in, they succeeded in getting out a readable sheet.

SAME IN '92.
The "Herald" Political Poet on Deck Again.

Once more the bugle's sounding
And to our posts we fly,
Our officers are mounted,
There is victory in the sky;
March on with banners flying
Ye heroes brave and true,
Our victory is sure to-morrow,
We will be the same in '92.

March on, march on to victory,
We are the nation's pride,
And the boys in blue who fought so true
They are marching by our side;
The Democrats are lagging
Their bandanna rag they chew,
For our victory is sure to-morrow,
And is sure in '92.

I have traveled through this country,
From the east unto the west,
And from every town and village
The news is in the West,
So cheer up, all Republicans,
Each one your duty do,
Let's poll a vote to-morrow,
Like we will in '92.

The Democrats are trying
With slander and abuse
To cast stars on our candidates,
But they find it is no use;
Gregg and Morrison are gentlemen
And to them we'll be true,
For our victory is sure to-morrow,
We will be the same in '92.

Wright spoke the other evening
In the academy of laws,
The well known name of M. S. Quay
He tried hard to run down;
My people left disgusted
Before this man got through,
And they said our vote to-morrow
Will be the same in '92.

So cheer Hurrah! Hurrah!! Hurrah!!!
Such a victory we've seen,
And once again on Justice's throne
We'll place our old Judge Green;
The state and county best
They both will go right through,
For we'll poll a vote to-morrow
Like we will in '92.

Doing Good Work.
The "Y's" are doing a good work among the young people of town. Their meetings are largely attended and are made interesting by literary and social entertainments. On Saturday evening Rev. H. G. James, of the English Baptist church, was present and entertained the audience with a short address in his usual interesting manner, for which the "Y" returns thanks. Call again.

Pays Better than Fishing.
LONDON, Nov. 2.—The naval authorities at Plymouth do not express in such sympathy for the fishermen who claim to have had their catches damaged by the living practice of Her Majesty's ships. They claim that the fishermen are in the habit of sneaking their boats into some locality in range of the firing, so that the boats may be sunk by a stray shot and the fishermen be enriched by a liberal recompense. It pays, the naval people say, better than fishing.

Mrs. Joseph Unverzagt and Mrs. William Galce and daughter, residents of Philadelphia, are now enjoying their first trip to the coal region and are the guests of Miss Minnie Dipper, of Mahanoy City. They spent Saturday in town.

Mr. Wadlinger's "Smallness."
We are reliably informed that Mr. Wadlinger, who aspires to the exalted position of Judge of this county on the Democratic ticket, visited Bingleton last week on an electioneering tour. During his stay there he showed his ignorance of the principles of the order by trying to create the impression that he was a member of the P. O. S. of A. and American Mechanics. It shows to what straits Mr. Wadlinger is put to, and we have no doubt but that the members of the organizations in question will resent this action of his, in trying to bring them into politics, in no uncertain tones.

A Happy Birthday Greeting.
Every American citizen is interested in the poet Whittier who will celebrate his eighty-fourth birthday on the 17th of December. Frank Leslie's Weekly for November 7th has a very striking full-page portrait of the poet, accompanied by a discriminating article as to his position in American literature. This week's issue also has a page of illustrations of the Searles will case, and also illustrations of the star trotters of to-day. There is a page of pictures of foreign events, and an illustration of one of the famous mountain peaks of the Yosemite Valley, together with portraits of Mrs. Marshall O. Roberts, the prospective bride of Colonel Ralph Vivian, of the Scotts Guards; and of the late Captain Duncan N. Ingraham, hero of the Martin Kosuta affair. The leading editorial contribution relates to women in the state and labor market, and is furnished by Mrs. Anne Basant, of London, England.

Why Didn't They Use It?
Last week the S'news received an electrotypic of the certificate of deposit alleged to have been given by Bardsley to Quay. Why did the S'news fail to use it? Is it possible that the blacksmiling organ is showing the white feather on the Quay question?

SUNDAY SERMON.
REV. POWICK PREACHED TO THE JR. O. U. A. M.

UPON ITS SPECIAL INVITATION.
A Patriotic Sermon to a Patriotic Organization and a Large Congregation—The Bible in the Public Schools.

The Methodist Episcopal church was crowded to its utmost capacity Sunday night to hear the sermon delivered at the request of the Jr. O. U. A. M. The text was Jeremiah 29 7: "Seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captive." Peace, in the text, means welfare. The purpose of the command was to teach the captives in Babylon the duty of Patriotism. If it was the duty of unwilling exiles to seek the welfare of the home of their cruel captors and to pray for the same, much more is it the duty of voluntary immigrants to these hospitable shores to do the same. Webster defines patriotism as "the passion that aims to serve one's country." The politician defines it as "the passion that aims to serve one's self, or his party at the expense of his country." Among the perils which call for the exercise of the highest type of patriotism is that of unrestricted immigration. Prior to 1868 Great Britain and Germany furnished us with 85 per cent. of all our immigrants, now they furnish us with only 55 per cent. At that time the tide had not set in from Russia, Austria and Italy. Twenty years ago these formed only one per cent. of all we received, they now constitute 33 per cent. Thus, while we formerly received the bulk of our immigrants from the most enlightened, moral and prosperous parts of Europe, fully one-third we are now receiving are coming from the most degraded, ignorant, and down-trodden parts of the earth. They are coming faster than we can digest and assimilate them. But what makes the peril the more serious is the slavery to self-interest that often leads men to sell themselves and their country to the devil for the sake of the spoils of office. This leads men who are charged with the administration of law to wink at its violation to stultify their own convictions of right and to outrage every moral principle. See how our own Borough Council was made to cringe at the feet of a few unprincipled politicians lest their action should jeopardize the party on the eve of an election. Every self-respecting patriot would resent any interference with religious observances, however alien to his own, but according to St. Paul's instructions to the church of Rome the violation of civil law is not a religious privilege but a "resistance of the ordinance of God that brings damnation." A spirit of lawlessness is perhaps the gravest of our perils. There is no civilized country on the earth where law is so flagrantly defied as here, and for the very reason that owing to unrestricted immigration and a free ballot in the hands of purchasable voters the worst elements of society are generally in control of the politics of the land, and must pander to law breakers in order to catch votes. Our government of the people, by the people and for the people has become one of the saloons, by the saloon and for the saloon, which holds one party in the right hand and the other in its left. He had about as little respect for the average politician as one could well have, but they were exposed to unusual temptations and it is our duty to pray for them. The enthronement of God in the conscience is a safeguard that includes all others. Until a man is so linked to God that he can withstand such temptations he is not a Man, but a Slave, and unfit for public trust. Meanwhile, the Sabbath and the public schools are trusty bulwarks. No man can object to the bible being used in them as a text book of moral science, unless it is because his moral and religious notions are not taught in it. And if they are un-biblical they are un-American, impious and detrimental to our civilization. It is inconsistent to stigmatize the public schools as godless and then oppose the use in them of them of the only nonsectarian book of godliness we have. A religion that holds itself aloof from these burning questions is not that of the bible. We need to apply the principles of religion to political as well as other questions for our religious welfare is bound up with the welfare of the state.

Florida on Wheels.
"Florida on Wheels" is well worth a visit. The car is attractively filled up and contains specimens of the products of that state and is in itself a fair on wheels. The native woods, minerals, cereals, fruits, etc., are tastefully displayed, and the wonderful products of the state are set forth to better advantage than could possibly be done without an extended visit to the state itself. A visit to "Florida on Wheels" will be a revelation to most people and all who see it come away impressed with the idea that Florida is a better and greater state than they had any idea of. The Florida Rolling Exposition is doing a great thing in bringing Florida into notice and advertising the great advantages of the land of orange groves, fruit and flowers. Mr. W. S. Webb, in charge, is a member of the Florida Daily Times Union, of Jacksonville.—York Pa. Dispatch. "Florida on Wheels" will be seen in Shenandoah on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 5, 6 and 7.
