

THE GREAT FIGHT ON

Latest Election Reports from Many Quarters.

NEW YORK'S EXCITING CONTEST.

Both Sides Are Claiming Victory by Big Plurality.

A Close Race in Massachusetts—Democrats and Republicans Contest Altkin in Pennsylvania—McKinley vs. Campbell—A Stubborn Contest in Iowa—An Unusually Heavy Vote Being Polled.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Election day is passing off remarkably quiet. Up to noon reports from all the up-down voting booths indicate that a large vote is being brought out. Tammany men are working hard, but the Republicans are by no means idle. Only one or two disturbances have been reported to the police so far, and they were of little consequence.

A number of arrests have been made on the East side for attempted repeating and illegal registration. The men are arrested were conducted to the Federal Court, in the postoffice building, where they were either released on habeas corpus proceedings, or committed.

Ex-President Cleveland left his house on Fifth avenue shortly after 9 o'clock, and walking to his polling place deposited his ballot, after having been in the booth only one minute.

The number of votes sent back to the booths to receive their ballots are not properly filled is not so large as last year, but is sufficient to show that the new ballot law is not yet thoroughly understood.

The Democrats claim to be more than holding their own. The Republican leaders, however, do not appear discouraged.

Hon. William Croker said this morning that he estimated that Plowder would receive 70,000 majority for Governor.

THE FIGHT IN BROOKLYN.

BROOKLYN, Nov. 3.—Both parties are hard at work today and the result will likely be a considerably large vote. It was claimed at noon by some of Meyer's friends that the Republican candidate for Mayor was being traded for Fassett. The rumor about the defeat of Saratoga is not showing itself. Both sides are confident of electing their candidate for Mayor.

HOW IT IS GOING IN ROCHESTER.

ROCHESTER, Nov. 3.—The vote here up to noon has been rather light. Sutherland, the Republican candidate for Attorney-General, whose home is in this city, will run away ahead of his ticket in Monroe County as nearly as can be ascertained. The day is fair and cold, a fact which the Republicans claim will make victory for the State ticket certain.

JONES' ACTIONS IN DENVER.

DENVER, Nov. 3.—A large vote is being polled here and there is great enthusiasm. It cannot be told with certainty whether Lieut. Governor Jones' friends are killing the Democratic ticket. Governor Hill and Mr. Jones met yesterday and shook hands cordially, and from this it is argued that the Lieut. Governor is not working against his party, if he is not working for it.

IN SHENANDOAH'S HOMES.

RUFFALO, Nov. 3.—The fight here today is a hot one, and the vote will be unprecedented. The Cleveland Democrats are killing Sheehan to some extent, and Republicans are jubilant over the outlook.

IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Republicans Confident of Carrying the State by 45,000.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3.—The vote here is much heavier than either party anticipated. The Republicans are very confident. Chairman Warren, of the Republican State Committee, states that, in his opinion, the majorities for Greig and Morrison will be between 45,000 and 50,000. The Republican managers of the local campaign are likewise confident, and a majority of 35,000 is the estimate that is placed upon the Philadelphia vote.

Chairman Kerr, of the Democratic State Committee, claims that his party's ticket will win by about 15,000 majority, expecting that the recent Treasury exposures will win many supporters to the Democrats.

PITTSBURG'S LOCAL FIGHT.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 3.—An unusually heavy vote is being polled in this city, although the election is progressing quietly. Both parties are working like beavers. Dispatches from the neighboring towns indicate that the Republican State ticket in the western and the State is being helped on account of the local judgeship fight. The local Republican element is divided and a bitter contest is being waged on the county judgeship ticket between the "straight-outs" and the "regulars." The Democrats have no County ticket in the field.

THE CONTEST IN OHIO.

Excitement of a Close Election—Both Sides Confident.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 3.—The great gubernatorial fight is being stubbornly contested, and reports from all sections indicate that the result will be very close. A tremendously large vote is being polled, and both sides are working with the greatest enthusiasm.

The Democratic State Committee at 11 o'clock claimed a plurality of 10,000 for Campbell. This is based on the assertion that the opposition to him in Hamilton County, which was so pronounced in the beginning of the campaign, has largely melted away.

They claim he will carry even Hamilton County by a 1,000 majority. On the other hand, the chairman of the Republican State Committee claims a plurality for McKinley of 20,000. This estimate makes McKinley carry Hamilton County by 8,000.

IN OHIO'S CAPITAL.

COLUMBUS, Nov. 3.—The greatest activity is being displayed by both great parties in getting out the full vote, and the result in this city is likely to be close. Advances from all quarters up to 11 o'clock show that the same interest is being manifested all over the State, and that a most bitter fight is in progress.

The Republicans regard McKinley's election as already decided, but the Democrats concede nothing. The preparations for receiving the election returns to-night are the most elaborate ever made in this city.

MASSACHUSETTS' CONTEST.

The Governorship Claimed by Both Democrats and Republicans

BOSTON, Nov. 3.—One of the largest votes in the history of the State is being polled to-day, and from the reports already sent in it is thought the total vote will reach 300,000.

The Democrats are confident that Governor Russell will be re-elected, and have some hope for the rest of their State ticket. The Republicans, on the other hand, have no doubt at all of the election of the candidates on their State ticket, save for Governor, and expect a plurality of at least 10,000 for Colonel Allen. Betting, as between Allen and Russell, is about even.

Maryland Conceded to the Democrats.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 3.—The vote here to-day is an average one, and beyond the usual number of slight disturbances, the day has so far passed without incident. Republicans generally concede the election of Francis Brown (Dem.) for Governor, although they say his majority will be small.

A Close Fight in Iowa.

DES MOINES, Nov. 3.—Both Democrats and Republicans are straining every nerve for success, and the vote is unusually large. Both sides are confident of winning. The Democrats claim Boies' election by 5,000 while Republicans say that Wheeler will be elected by 8,000. The election is a quiet one, on the whole.

HER HEART WAS BROKEN.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 3.—The true cause of the death of Isabella Murphy, the 20-year-old daughter of Merchant T. P. Murphy, at the hospital, was a broken heart. The physicians gave out that she was a typical fever victim.

Two months ago she created a great sensation by causing the arrest of W. J. Lewis, a professional nurse. Lewis was in attendance upon her father, Miss Murphy said Lewis had betrayed her.

The young lady's parents took the disgrace hard. Isabella was taken sick, and she was forthwith removed to the hospital.

Editors Sued by Senator Quay.

MILLSVILLE, Pa., Nov. 3.—R. B. Brown, editor of the "Messenger" (Dem.); Geo. H. St. John and L. J. Tucker, editors of the "Commonwealth" (Repub.) (People's Alliance), were arrested yesterday charged with libel by Senator M. S. Quay. The amount of damage claimed in each case is $3,000. The accused gave bail in $2,000 each. Senator Quay also sued Editor McKinnay, of the Titusville "American-Citizen," and has instructed attorneys to bring civil suits against the "Western Press at Mercer, Pa., for libel with damages fixed at $10,000.

Declared Guilty of Murder.

YONK, Pa., Nov. 3.—William Henry Painton was yesterday afternoon found guilty of murder in the first degree for the killing of Mrs. Michael Stronginger. The defense appealed for a new trial. Painton, with two other men, now under indictment, in burglarizing the house of Michael Stronginger gagged and bound the old farmer and his wife. When the aged couple were discovered by the neighbors Mrs. Stronginger was dead.

Italians Who Will Not Be Mores.

SCOTTSDALE, Pa., Nov. 3.—As a result of the riot at West Newton, two Italians will die. The affray was visited by a lot of coke workers and Italians. The Italians had liquor and were beaten by the cokers. A fight ensued and both parties were badly cut up. Two of the Italians followed the cokers to their homes, and while attempting to break into their houses were fired upon and fatally hurt.

Redmond Takes O'Brien to Task.

COOK, Nov. 3.—John P. Redmond says that another canvass of the electors will be necessary, as the priests have in many instances terrorized electors into breaking their promises to vote the Republican ticket. Redmond has authorized O'Brien to publish the story of the Boulogne negotiations. He says that O'Brien's course throughout the transactions was cowardly and dishonorable.

No Savings Banks Involved.

BOSTON, Nov. 3.—The Commissioner of savings bank officials announces that none of the savings banks of the State can be involved in the failure of the Maverick Bank and that there is no occasion for any anxiety on the part of any depositors in such banks.

The Children Burned to Death.

WARSAW, Ill., Nov. 3.—Yesterday morning, Mrs. Eliza Ryle locked two of her sons, children, aged 2 and 4 years, in the house while she went on an errand. From some unknown cause the house was fired, and before assistance arrived the children were burned to death.

Over an Embankment and Killed.

LIMA, O., Nov. 3.—Yesterday afternoon while Mrs. Ketter and Mrs. Johnson were driving in the country their horse took fright and ran away, dashed down a 90-foot embankment, wrecking the carriage killing both ladies.

NEW ENGLAND BRIEVITIES.

The union printers of the Providence, Evening "Telegram" are on a strike. The celebration of the 100th anniversary of Methodism in Marblehead, Mass., will close to-night. The Narragansett Mill strikers at Fall River, Mass., met again yesterday and voted to remain away from looms until Thursday.

Col. Jonas H. French of Boston is preparing to make an assignment of all his property to Henry D. Hyde and M. F. Dickinson, Jr. Commandant Selfridge of the Charleston received instructions from Secretary Tracy yesterday directing that the cruiser Newark, now at Boston, be made ready for sea by Nov. 10.

The Old Colony railroad sheds at Marbleboro, Mass., in which were stored grain, straw, wood and coal owned by local dealers were burned yesterday by a spark from a locomotive. Loss, $50,000.

OFFICERS IN LIMBO

President and Directors of the Maverick Arrested.

THE EXCITEMENT AUGMENTED.

President Potter Said to Be Involved to the Amount of $1,500,000.

"Nervy" Evans' Friends Say That He Killed Himself to Save Mr. Potter, Who is Believed by Many to Be Responsible for the Suicide—Boston Banks Vote to Make an Assessment to Aid the Maverick.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 3.—Asa P. Potter, president; Col. J. H. French and Thomas Dana, directors of the Maverick National Bank, were arrested by United States Marshals last night. The former was arrested at his summer residence at Cohasset, and the two directors were arrested at their residences in this city.

It is understood that the warrants charge embezzlement and the violation of the United States banking laws, which forbid loans by a National Bank to any single individual amounting to more than 10 per cent. of its capital stock.

It is understood that the amounts involved will reach $1,500,000 in the case of Mr. Potter, $600,000 in that of Mr. French, and $300,000 in that of Mr. Dana.

The men were brought before United States Commissioner Hallett, who fixed bail in Dana's case at $75,000, which was furnished. Potter's bail was placed at $150,000, and French's at $100,000.

A rumor was prevalent yesterday that the Boston & Maine Railroad Company had $700,000 on deposit at the Maverick Bank, which amount was to be used to cover their November dividends. The officers of the railroad company say the amount is $400,000, and not the figures reported.

About $1,000 of the Freeman's Relief Fund was in the bank, as was also the John Boylston O'Reilly Fund, amounting to $17,000.

Proponents of a national bank are allowed by law to borrow only ten per cent. of the capital stock of the institution on the same collateral. In this instance it is alleged that Asa P. Potter owed $1,500,000; Jonas H. French, $800,000, and Thomas Dana, $400,000, a total of $2,700,000, although under law only $200,000 could properly be loaned to any one person.

The excitement over the failure of the Maverick Bank continues as intense today as it was yesterday.

The friends of Irving A. Evans declare that he offered up his life as a tribute to friendship. They say he was worth $800,000 one year ago and gave all that and more to save his friends. Checks were "killed" by him between New York and Boston and other enormous transactions and changes to make clearings between the two cities and assist the Maverick Bank to meet one draft with another. When this strain could no longer be borne, he overrode his account at the bank to make his own clients individually square, destroyed all evidence implicating any other parties and, declining to return to the city to effect a settlement upon his own account at the bank, he put himself out of the world to save Mr. Potter and the bank.

It was understood by Mr. Evans' family, previous to his suicide, that Mr. Evans was insolvent, and that he owed the Maverick Bank $900,000 and had up $300,000 nominal collateral, and it was a settlement with the bank that his brother had arranged the day before the fatal act. It was reported to the bank that the house was only $25,000 under water, and if the bank took the collateral Mr. Evans' father and brother would make the amount good to the house and liquidate the creditors on the basis of 100 cents on the dollar. This settlement was executed a few days after Mr. Evans' death, and the bank directors voted to release Evans & Co. from all liability.

It is probable that the directors did not know the amount of the liability they were writing off, as the collateral was worth by this time more than $100,000, the loss taken by the bank on this account is about $500,000, but if the bank were otherwise good, this loss should only have reached the surplus by 50 per cent.

Mr. Potter says that at the time of the settlement he was offered a release for any personal liability he might have with Evans & Co., and he declined it because there was no such liability existing, nor had Mr. Evans any account upon which he was legally or morally responsible.

Mr. Tobey, a partner of Evans & Co., admits that he never sent a statement to Mr. Potter of the account upon which he believes Mr. Potter was liable. Col. Albert A. Pope said that he had no evidence that Mr. Potter was responsible for Mr. Evans' suicide, but he believed it, and if the evidence was good the joint account would be collected if it took the roof off some institution.

Asa P. Potter was worth $750,000 a few years ago.

An Assessment Voted.

The banking institutions of Boston have voted to assess themselves 3 per cent. of their loans. This will raise about $4,000,000 for loan to the Maverick Bank depositors.

President Potter, of the wrecked bank, has made an assignment of his individual estate to Postmaster Thomas N. Hart and Henry D. Hyde. Postmaster Hart said it would be impossible to get a detailed statement for some days as Mr. Potter is sick at his house.

Mr. Hart said that at present he did not know who the creditors are, nor has he any idea of the extent of Mr. Potter's personal assets and liabilities. Mr. Potter's property at Cohasset stands by his own name and is free from incumbrances. It is estimated that the property has cost him $150,000.

The Commonwealth avenue property stands in the name of Mrs. Potter. It is valuable. Mr. Potter has a large life insurance, the aggregate amount of which is said to be in the neighborhood of $500,000. Col. Jonas H. French is preparing to make an assignment of all his property to Henry D. Hyde and M. F. Dickinson, Jr.

Evans' Will Probed.

BOSTON, Nov. 3.—The will of the late Irving A. Evans was admitted to probate in the Suffolk Court yesterday morning without a contest. Under its provisions Wilcox H. Evans, a brother of deceased, is appointed executor.

A Peculiar Apple.

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa., Nov. 3.—Horticulturists who have seen it say that an apple which was picked the other day in E. P. George's orchard, New Franklin, could only have been produced by a peculiar grafting done by the bees in the apple-blossom season. Exactly one-half of the apple is golden russet, like the apples that grew on the same tree, and the other half is bright green pippin, such a variety as grow on trees 100 yards distant. In blossoming time a bee must have transplanted a part of a distant pippin blossom into the petals of the russet's flower. Dr. A. Grove has preserved his unique fruit in alcohol.

His Mind Said to Be Unbalanced.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Nov. 3.—Receiver Brodhead of the Ulster County Savings Institution has been out of town for several days, and stories have been circulated to the effect that his mind has become unbalanced owing to worry and excitement incidental to the wrecking of the bank, of which he was executive officer. His friends say he overtaxed himself in performing the duties devolving upon him and that his physicians advised him to take some recreation.

—your sufferings from All over. That is, if you go about it in the right way.

There are plenty of wrong ways, that perhaps you've found out. They may relieve for a time, but they don't cure.

Worse yet, they may drive the disease to the lungs. You can't afford to experiment.

But there is a right way, and a sure way, that does cure. Thousands of otherwise hopeless cases have proved it. It's with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. By its mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties, it permanently cures the worst chronic cases. Catarrhal Headache, "Cold in the Head"—everything catarrhal in its nature, is cured as if by magic.

It's a way so sure that the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Remedy offer, in good faith, $500 for a case of Catarrh which they cannot cure.

If it's sure enough for them to make the offer, it's sure enough for you to make the trial.

They risk $500. What do you risk?
