Kings Connty, and Richmond County, and Queens County, however, showed decided Democratic gains. These, taken in connection with the returns from districts throughout the State outside of New York County, made it seem certain that Flower's majority in the State would be 25,000.

Mr. Ziegler is the man who declined the Republican nomination for Mayor. It is said Mr. Ziegler is a resident of New York, and that he was illegally registered.

He appeared, however, bright and

"My claim to the Legislature and three close Democratic counties, Hardin, Hancock and Paulding, which have been Democratic and which I held in doubt, was not an idle boast. They have been won by the Republican candidates for the Legislature. The entire Republican ticket is elected by a good majority." Additional importance is lent to this election from the fact that the Legislature on joint ballot will select a United States Senator to succeed Henry B. Payne, whose term expires on March 3, 1893.
