MAHANAY CITY, PA.

D. B. Thomas, [Communicated.] D. B. Thomas left for Scranton yesterday, where he goes to accept a position as book keeper in the wholesale house of J. T. & G. T. Williams, of that city.

Mr. Thomas was one of the pioneers of Shenandoah, a good citizen, a staunch Republican and one of the pillars of the Welsh Congregational church.

His residence of 23 years in our midst has proved him to be honest and conscientious. We are loath to part with him. Our loss will be Scranton's gain. We trust that, in his new field of labor, he will enjoy many years of bliss and happiness.

can be tolerated in almost any thing but hats. If the head is out of date the rest of the body is pretty sure to follow suit. Nobody but a millionaire or a genius can afford to wear ancient headgear, and even they take a good many chances when they do it. It will cost you no more to be up with the times than it will to be half a mile behind them. Everything about our $1.50 hat is handsome but the price, and $1.50 for such a hat can scarcely be called anything but a ridiculously low figure. The same can be said of our 25c neck wear.
