AFFAIRS CAUGHT HASTILY.

What News Gatherers Take a Moment to Tell About.

Pay your bets. Scrapple is ripe. Wild fowls are flying. Oysters are getting better. More night now than day. The Thanksgiving turkey is fattening. Winter is gradually creeping down upon us.

Now that the election is over, let all be friends again and settle down to business.

Potatoes are disposed to get down in price rather than up this year for some reason.

A walk to the country these autumn days is truly exhilarating and delightful.

No matter how bad a man's handwriting is, the girl who is in love with him is always willing to puzzle out his letters.

Good Looks.

Good looks are more than skin deep, depending upon a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the Liver be inactive, you have a Bilious Look, if your stomach be disordered you have a Dyspeptic look and if your Kidneys be affected you have a piteous look. Secure good health and you will have good looks. Electric Bitters is the great alterative and Tonic acts directly on these vital organs. Cures Pimples, Blisters, B-ills and gives a good complexion. Sold at C. H. Hagenbuch's Drug Store, 50c. per bottle.

Ladies, if you want fine writing paper and envelopes to match, call on Max Reese.

Coming Events.

Nov. 18—Grand supper in Robbins' opera house for the benefit of the Trinity Reformed church.

November 20—Grand supper in Robbins' opera house, benefit of Lady Harrison Lodge, No. 16, A. P. L. A.

Legal blanks of all kinds for sale at the Herald office.

If so, call on Max Reese, Shenandoah, agent for the United States Employment and Business Agency, 44 and 46 Broadway, New York.

Florida on Wheels at Cherry street siding L. V. R. B., Nov. 5, 6 and 7.

NEW YORK NEWS IN BRIEF.

The condition of Miss Belsinger, who was murdered yesterday in White Plains by a tramp, is critical.

John Kramer, janitor of five flat houses in New York, shot his wife, Mary, yesterday morning, and within an hour was found hanging dead in an airshaft.

The case of Dr. Charles A. Briggs, charged with heresy, has been dismissed by the New York Presbytery by a vote of 94 against 29. The committee on prosecution will, however, appeal to the Synod.

Oysters.

Oysters are in season. Go to Schooner's. Families supplied. Parlors for ladies. 9-4-11

Rambler's Rounds.

The Eschenower property on South White street looks very pretty in its new coat of paint and trimmings.

Harness makers are experiencing a boom at present, every one in town having plenty to do.

The fellows who hold up the Lehigh Valley depot have lots of pain(s) for their trouble.

The Magazle property on South White street has been greatly improved. An addition has been built in the rear and new shutters put on in front.

Stout's residence next to the Presbyterian church on White street looks greatly improved since painters Haster and Boyer had charge of it.

Dressmakers have plenty of work just now and their services are in great demand.

Carpet rag parties are very popular just now.

The Paul Summa property at the lower end of Main street has been greatly improved in appearance.

The dwelling and shop, lately occupied by Butcher Hoffman, are empty, late occupant having removed to Chicago.

Were an election for a city charter for this borough held to-morrow it would carry by a large majority.

James Fox, of Wm. Penn, came to the Herald office yesterday and reported that his cow strayed from his premises two weeks ago, or was stolen. We believe there is a gang in this end of the county that make a practice of running off cows and slaughtering them for food.

Two weeks ago no less than four cows were reported missing from this same locality.

Women peddlers are on the increase in town and they seem to be a privileged class. Some of them are bold and insulting to those who refuse to buy.

The season for Florida oranges will shortly open, though signs reading "Sweet Florida Oranges" are seen on the fruit stands. The fact is that the Florida orange is not fit for market until late in November, and is then very far from being at its best.

The small oranges in the market are from California. They are immature, and consequently not very palatable, but still there are those who will buy them. The Florida orange crop will be a large one, and prices will be moderate.

The fruit market is still abundantly supplied.

Livery men are getting their sleighs and bells ready.

Have the fire plugs been looked after for the winter?

Sausage and scrapple are in the market. The Lehigh Valley depot looks much improved in red paint.

Passenger traffic continues brisk. The valley milk men get into town somewhat late these mornings.

Boys and girls, get out your skates. You will need them ere long.

Some of our doctors are unusually busy. Nothing serious however.

The slight fall of snow, yesterday, made the roads very muddy.

Keep your feet dry and you will have less cause for taking cold.

Have you visited "Florida on Wheels?" If not, do not miss the opportunity.

When it becomes necessary to hire a horse and buggy, whether on business or pleasure, misty people like a neat buggy and a nice, quiet, gentle horse that can travel pretty well; others like one that is quick, active and showy. THE NEW STYLES

ANTIQUE was devaluated in almost anything but hats. If the head is out of date the rest of the body is pretty sure to follow suit. Nobody but a millionaire or a genius can afford to wear ancient headgear, and even they take a good many chances when they do it. It will cost you no more to be up with the times than it will to be half a mile behind them. Everything about our $1.50 hat is handsome but the price, and $1.50 for such a hat can scarcely be called anything but a ridiculously low figure. The same can be said of our 50c neck wear. Our line of gent's furnishing goods is the lowest priced in the market.
