"My Son, Deal With Men Who Advertise. You will Never Lose by It."—Benjamin Franklin

THE EVENING HERALD.
ALL THE NEWS FOR ONE CENT.

Has a larger circulation in Shenandoah than any other paper published. Circulation books open to all.

OHIO won't be Michigandized this year. The Legislature is Republican by a safe majority.

THE Republicans have New York Legislature by a safe majority, which is indeed gratifying.

KANSAS will be all right next year. No further trouble can be expected from the People's party.

IOWA is a Republican state and can be counted upon next year for either Harrison, Blaine or McKinley.

NEW YORK Democrats will attempt to steal the Legislature and the Republicans are on the alert to prevent them.

NOTWITHSTANDING the gerrymander in Michigan it is doubtful if the Democrats will succeed in their plan of stealing part of electoral vote next year.

MASSACHUSETTS elects a Democratic Governor, and that is all. The rest of the officers and the Legislature is Republican. Not much of a Democratic victory after all.

It is more than probable that English and German intrigues are at the bottom of the Chilean business. Both those countries are strong rivals of ours for South American trade, and are doing everything possible to antagonize our interests there, and invite enmity against us. They were much disturbed by the Pan-American Congress, which they were helpless to prevent, and are doubtless taking this opportunity to get back at us. English merchants have long had a controlling influence in Chilean commerce, and the Germans are exceedingly anxious to get a foothold there. They will make common cause to oust us, and then fight out the possession.

HORRIBLY BURNED.

Jonathan Wright, Esq., of Pottsville, the Victim.
At midnight last night a building in Pottsville occupied by Jonathan Wright, Esq., a well known and aged lawyer of that town, was discovered on fire. A neighbor hurried into the house and found the old lawyer in a sheet of flame at the foot of a stairway. The fire was extinguished and the victim was removed to a place where he could receive medical attendance. Mr. Wright is 73 years of age and he is so badly burned he cannot recover. He fell down stairs while carrying a lighted coal oil lamp in his hands.

New Shoe Store.

L. Goldman has just purchased a large stock of boots and shoes at a bankrupt sale at Bethlehem. These goods will be sold cheaper than the manufacturer can afford to make them. The opening will take place Saturday, November 7th, in Harrington's building, on East Centre street and Market alley. Look at the sign of the star.

To reach the store there are a few steps to climb, but it will pay you to climb them. Square dealing to all.
Be sure to be on time at the grand opening of the Star Shoe Store, Shenandoah, Pa.
L. GOLDMAN, Manager.

An Omission.

In our report of the entertainment of Maj. Jennings Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., the singing of a solo entitled "Orange Blossoms" by Miss Sarah Baugh was unintentionally omitted. The young lady acquitted herself creditably, as did also Miss Gertrude Sanger as "Virtue" in one of the tableaux. In the tableau "Equality, Justice and Education," Miss Jennie Williams presented a beautiful picture as "Justice," not moving a muscle during the entire tableau. Miss Ruth Williams and Kate Eisenhower presented a fine appearance as "Equality," with Miss Edith Morgan as "Education."

A Runaway.

A horse owned by George Folmer ran away yesterday morning and demolished the valuable buggy to which it was hitched. The horse started from the corner of Main and Lloyd streets and was not stopped until it reached the east end of Centre street. Fortunately no one was injured.

Died.

WILLIAMS.—On the 5th inst., at Shenandoah, Pa., Martha, daughter of Theophilus and Eliza Williams, aged 2 years and 2 months. Funeral will take place on Sunday, 8th inst., at 2 p. m., from the family residence, 130 North Main street. Interment in the Odd Fellows' cemetery. Relatives and friends respectfully invited to attend. 11 7-11

Look at These Bargains.

J. Coffee, having just returned from New York City with an entirely new stock of boots and shoes, is now prepared to offer the citizens of Shenandoah greater bargains in this line than ever before. He is offering these goods at such low prices that competitors cannot compete with him. Bring your boys and girls and get a pair of double-soled tip shoes at 60 cents, worth elsewhere $1.00. He is selling men's double-soled leather boots for $1.75, and the best rubber boots for $2.25. Remember that the place to secure these bargains is at Coffee's Bargain Store, post office building, corner Main and Oak streets. 11 5-9f

Exposition Buildings.

A folder illustrating the several buildings to be erected for the Columbian exposition to be held at Chicago in 1893 has been issued by the Chicago, St. Paul & Kansas City Railway Company. The illustrations are artistic gems. A copy of the folder can be obtained free of charge upon application to W. P. Cooley, 60 South Third street, Philadelphia.

With the 19th century dawned the era of wonders. It has also proven an era of surprises—for notwithstanding its giant strides toward knowledge, we are told that there are still in some places a few citizens who have not heard of salvation.

PERSONAL.

Miss Olive Le is spending a few days with Port Cartridges.

Messrs. O. Lewis and W. F. Richardson, of Mahan City, were in town yesterday.

Oscar Yost, a North Main street jeweler, went rit hunting yesterday and returned with a number of the feet-footed game.

John Bubbin Charles Radzewicz and John L. Hasle turned from the southern part of the court last night, loaded down with rabbits.

We were tired to an agreeable surprise by the appearance in our office, yesterday, of our old friend "Jack" McCarthy, of the Hazleton Herald. "Jack" is looking well and is very enthusiastic over the future prospect of Hazleton since the city charter was adopted.

M. S. Riggs' town on Thursday for Chicago, where he will spend a few days on business and pleasure. Mrs. Riggs accompanied her husband as far as Pittsburg, where she will remain a few days, the guest of Mr. Riggs' brother, who is manager for the Pittsburg Beef Co.

Barton Sessagave, now of this town, returned to Corningham, Luzerne county, his former residence, on Wednesday, expecting to stay short time with his grandparents, Mr. & Mrs. Culp. He met with an accident about four weeks ago, his horse running away. He now carries his right arm, which was broken at two places by being thrown violently out of the wagon, in a sling.

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Gettysburg, Pa., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all, eight bottles; it has cured me, and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at C. H. Hagenbuch's.

Stationary packages, 5 and 10 cents each, at Max Reese's.

Rambler's Rounds.

Go to one of the numerous churches in town to-morrow. All are invited.

Nice weather we are experiencing now. It must be part of Indian summer.

It is a wonder there are not more run-aways in town, through the carelessness of drivers in leaving their horses standing untied in the streets.

This is the last day for the Florida exposition in town. If you have not yet visited the car, do so before it leaves. It is located at the Cherry street crossing of the Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Get the Genuine.

If you suffer with lame back, especially in morning, Allcock's Plasters are a sure relief.

If you cannot sleep, try an Allcock Plaster, well up between the shoulder blades—often relieves—sometimes cures. Try this before you resort to opiates.

If any of your muscles are lame—joints stiff—feel as if they want oiling—or if you suffer with any local pains or aches, these plasters will cure you.

If you use them once you will realize why so many plasters have been made in imitation of them. Like all good things, they are copied as closely as the law allows. Don't be duped by taking an imitation when it is as easy to get the genuine.

If you always insist upon having Allcock's Plaster and never accept a substitute, you will not be disappointed. It is Florida on Wheels, corner Main and Cherry streets, Nov. 5, 6 and 7.

To Winter in the South.

J. G. Hutton is in town again, after spending several days in Tallapoosa, Georgia. Mr. Hutton is enthusiastic over that place and its prospects. He says it is a fast growing city and everything written about it is true, and that people who are interested in the place, among whom are a number of our townsmen, need have no fear for their investments. Mr. Hutton expects to return to Tallapoosa shortly and will remain there all winter. He will be pleased to furnish any information desired concerning the place.

Gratifying to All.

The high position attained and the universal acceptance and approval of the pleasant liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, as the most excellent laxative known, illustrate the value of the qualities on which its success is based and are abundantly gratifying to the California Fig Syrup Co.

TOWN TALKER!

THOUGHTS OF THIS AND THAT THREADED TOGETHER.

THEMES TERSELY TABULATED.

The Tattle of the Tattlers Timely Taken and Told Typographically in a Tasteful and Tempting Tone.

While the injuries sustained by Max Reese yesterday by falling down a set of stairs in his house were not of a dangerous character, they were, by no means trifling, and Max will be confined to his home for several days. Max's latest joke was sprung on election day. In the afternoon his store was crowded as he entered and exclaimed, with well-earned indignation, "It's a shame. It's enough to make one tired of citizenship."

"What's the matter, Max?" asked one of the loungers.

"Matter? All matter. I just went to the polls with my citizen papers, tax receipt and all, and they wouldn't let me vote."

"Why?" exclaimed another loungeer who seemed about to become indignant over the situation.

"Because I voted this morning," answered Max as he took a cigar from one of the loungers. "Gentlemen, stand in the market. Try 'em—it's you've got the money."

I see the S'news people are indulging in a little advertising for themselves. The idea is a good one. Even printers have much to gain by advertising. The greatest trouble the S'news will have will be to hold what the advertising may bring it. The life of that paper (the owners have the impudence to call it a family paper) in the average family is one Sunday. It is the Police Gazette of the coal region and outside of patch palvering it is worthless.

Hazleton is already experiencing a boom in consequence of the adoption of a city charter. New life has been instilled into the people and a half dozen projects for the city's good are already under way. The saloon keepers, alone, are disgruntled over the progressive step the town has taken and they have boycotted the newspapers. But it is an ill wind that blows nobody any good and in due time the newspapers will be more willing to have the boycott continued than the boycotters will be to sustain it. Boycotting has never thrived in this country and never will.

But speaking of Hazleton adopting a city charter, brings a blush of chagrin to our face. The HERALD opened the discussion of city charter advantages years ago, but the people failed to catch on. Some Pottsville people were more far-seeing and got the question far enough advanced for a vote, but the majority was against the adoption of a charter. Shamokin also tried and failed and Shenandoah followed both places into the soup. Now Hazleton is a city and we—well, that is some of us, are a group of short-sighted sluggards. Success to Hazleton and may the scales fall from the eyes of our people before long.

"Bob" Hagenbuch is painting the town (letter boxes) red and P. J. takes pride in the fact that when the L. V. R. R. Co's corps of painters completes its work the exterior color of the depot will match his hair.

Be on time, for prevention is better than cure. All coughs and colds, throat and lung affections are cured by Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Only 25c.

A Merchant Helper.

The Griffith combination cutter and printer is the latest merchant helper on the market. It keeps wrapping paper clean and prevents waste, and as it is unrolled your business card is printed on the sheet required for use. For convenience, economy and advertising it is certainly up to date. Messrs. Walbridge & Richardson, of Mahanoy City, have secured the agency for Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

Burchill's Restaurant.

Charles Burchill is now located at corner of Main and Coal streets, Shenandoah. Regular meals, at popular prices, served any time. Ladies' dining and refreshment rooms attached. 9-14-1f

POST OFFICE ROBBED.

Safe Blowers Pay a Visit to M. Carmel.

Yesterday morning burglars gained an entrance to the post office by prying the front door. The deed was likely committed between two and four o'clock, and while the interior was illuminated by electric light. Having secured admission to the main room it was an easy matter to force the door leading to the business apartments. Here the safe was blown open and the contents taken. A diminutive hole had been drilled into the combination and powder used. When Postmaster Stecker entered the building about six a. m. the room was filled with smoke, the doors having been securely closed after the burglars were admitted. The exit was made by way of the rear door. About $200 in cash and probably $25 in stamps were taken. No clue to the perpetrators has yet been discovered. Two Polishmen were arrested just as they were boarding a Lehigh train and taken before Squire Amour. They acted rather suspiciously. An examination was made but nothing of any consequence elicited. They were dismissed and the officers are out on another hunt. A post office inspector has made an examination of the state of affairs.

"Florida on Wheels."

The large, handsomely constructed parlor car that has occupied the Cherry street crossing of the Lehigh Valley railroad the past two days and which is known as "Florida on Wheels," has been filled day and evening by visitors anxious to view the objects attractively arranged in the car. The vehicle is so arranged that it forms an excellent miniature of "the land of flowers," with its immense fruits and plants. Samples of all the products of Florida are exhibited and a visit to the car should be made by all our townsmen who can spare the time. In half an hour one can learn as much of Florida as can be learned by weeks of study and the price of admission is but 10 cents. School teachers, clergymen and other professional people should certainly find the exhibition interesting.

Robbed the "Gossoon"ers.

During the performance of "The Gossoon" at Hazleton, Thursday night, thieves entered the dressing rooms of the company. Joseph A. Daily, who plays Dandy Darragh, claims to have lost two rings valued at $50 and $2 in cash. Hugh J. Wards, who plays Rody Dagan, says he lost $3.75. The Hazleton Sentinel says: "The opera house directors have never heard any complaints before but they will not let the matter drop no matter what it costs nor who may be implicated in the affair."

Music at the Fair.

Well, well; there was more fun at that pie eating match at the Phoenix Fire Company's fair last night than one could find in a hundred minstrel shows. Music night to-night. Big orchestra.

A Funeral Sermon.

The funeral sermon of the late John Whomsey will be preached to-morrow evening at the English Baptist church, by the pastor, Rev. H. G. James, and the singing will be in keeping with the sad occasion.

Sutherland's Sentence.

Rev. H. E. Sutherland, the local preacher of Hazleton, who was accused of sending libellous and obscene letters through the U. S. mails and convicted, has been sentenced to pay a fine of $600. The sentence was made as light as possible in view of the litigation having cost the accused about $7,000 in addition to the fine.

Child's Foot Crushed.

While at play, the two-year-old daughter of S. W. Yost, of North Jardin street, pulled the marble top from a small table and it fell upon one of the child's feet. The injury may cause the loss of some of the toes.

Colliery Changes.

Ross Tacker is now giving his entire attention to Maple Hill colliery. Daniel Brennan, of Girardville, has become inside foreman of Suffolk colliery. Best work done at Brennan's steam laundry. Everything white and spotless. Luce certifies a specialty. All work guaranteed.
