What News Gatherers Take a Moment to Tell About.

Moonlight.

Long nights.

Cold blasts soon.

Freak coats are again in favor.

Cool weather is killing the flies.

Campaign orators will now take a rest.

Next year's campaign will be a lively one.

There are a good many sidewalks that need fixing before bad weather sets in.

As in business in marriage—the one who puts in the most money has the most say.

Ninety per cent. of railroad accidents in this country are caused by the spreading of the rails.

It is sadly but frequently the case that the man who hurrahs the loudest has the least idea of what he is hurrahs about.

Good Looks.

Good looks are more than skin deep, depending upon a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the Liver be inactive, you have a Bilious Look, if your stomach be disordered you have a Dyspeptic look and if your Kidneys be affected you have a pinched look. Secure good health and you will have good looks. Electric Bitters is the great alternative and Tonic acts directly on these vital organs. Cures Pimples, Blisters, Bells and gives a good complexion. Sold at C. H. Hagenbach's Drug Store, 50c. per bottle.

Coming Events.

The Gossoon.

The Irish comedy drama, "The Gossoon," was presented at the Academy last evening. Carroll Johnson in the title role was pleasing and effective and the other characters were well taken. The play is a clear and interesting one and the special scenery was quite a feature. —Today's Journal. "The Gossoon" will be produced at Ferguson's theatre to-night.

Locating an Evil.
A Danbury auctioneer writing a letter of advice to a young friend, closed up with the following astonishing information: "The evil that you do through life will come back to plague you on the day of your death, or, if stormy, on the first fair day thereafter."

Handicapped.
The following note picked up on the street Monday afternoon is a manly exposition of what narrowly escaped being a grievous wrong:
"Dear Jane—I hope you ain't mad because I didn't laff at you when you laffed at the last evening at the post office. I ain't proud, dear Jane, but I have got a bile under my arm, and I can't laff as I used to, as Heaven is my judge. Yours truly, HARRY."

Chances for an Opening.
There was a terrific thunderstorm last night, and in the mail this noon there were letters from nine different lightning rod men inquiring if there was any kind of an opening here for them. We don't doubt but that an opening could be made for them if they were here, as the frost is not deep.

The Pace That Kills.
One of the saddest sights is a young man who has waited outside the church of an evening until he has chilled through, only to see a girl walk off with some rascal who has been inside all the time toasting his sinful shins at the stove.
J. M. BAILEY.

Sparring To-night.
There will be a sparring match in Robbins' opera house this evening in connection with the Phoenix Hose Co.'s fair, between Peter Maher, the Irish pugilist, and Jake Kilrain. Sparring to commence at 8 o'clock.
