"My Son, Deal With Men Who Advertise. You will Never Lose by It."—Benjamin Franklin

THE EVENING HERALD.

ALL THE NEWS FOR ONE CENT.
Has a larger circulation in Shenandoah than any other paper published. Circulation books open to all.

WHAT the Democrats may avoid another such crushing defeat as they sustained in this state, election day, we advise them not to use the single commandment—"Thou shalt not steal," as their campaign cry; let them associate with it "THOU SHALT NOT BEAR FALSE WITNESS AGAINST THY NEIGHBOR," and practice what they preach and the people may not consider it so necessary to administer such a stinging rebuke.

The Governor should at once issue his thanksgiving proclamation. How would the following suit: To all citizens. The Republican President of these United States having set apart, with partisan intent, Thursday, November 26th, as a day of Thanksgiving, I, the Governor of the State of Pennsylvania, through the good graces of Harry, do hereby recommend the same day to all the people of this state as one on which they can unite in praise of my holiness and the sanctity of the men who surround me. John Bardsley is in jail, while Boyer and McCamant have not been run in, they have been brought before an extra session of the Senate, and the state was saved from the speeches of many Senators, which would otherwise have been inflicted on a long-suffering public. Let the day be one of devout rejoicing, and remember that you have cause to be thankful that an extra session didn't cause the state three times as much as Bardsley stole. Given under my hand and Harry's seal.

NEIGHBORING NEWS.

Happenings in Near-by Towns Set Forth in Breezy Paragraphs.

David Tucker, for a number of years fire boss at Glendon colliery, Mahanoy City, has taken charge of the inside workings of a colliery at Silver Brook.

A charter has been granted to F. P. Spiess as president; Robert Harris, secretary; Hon. D. D. Phillips, treasurer; and J. R. Coyle, Esq., and C. B. Eberley directors, for a corporation known as the Tamaqua and Lansford Street Railway Company.

Tom Clark, of Philadelphia, has made Lansford his headquarters and is anxious to make a stab with any middle-weight in the Hazleton region. Clark was formerly known as Tom McCauley and a few years ago was a passenger brakeman on the Mahanoy division of the Lehigh Valley railroad. He distinguished himself one day by "knocking out" four barly tramps who insisted upon being dead-head passengers on his train.

The Hazleton Sentinel is urging its Borough Council to place a patrol wagon at the disposal of the town police.

It is rumored that A. A. McLeod will resign from the presidency of the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad Company to assume the presidency of an Illinois railroad company at a salary of $60,000 a year.

Look at These Bargains.

J. Coffey, having just returned from New York City with an entirely new stock of boots and shoes, is now prepared to offer the citizens of Shenandoah greater bargains in this line than ever before. He is offering these goods at such low prices that competitors cannot compete with. Bring your boys and girls and get a pair of double-soled tip shoes at 60 cents, worth elsewhere $1.00. He is selling men's double-soled leather boots for $1.75, and the best rubber boots for $2.25. Remember that the place to secure these bargains is at Coffey's Bargain store, post office building, corner Main and Oak streets. 11-5-91

Bickert's Opening.

Joseph Bickert, the well known and popular restaurateur, will open his new place at Mahanoy City to-morrow (Wednesday) evening. The place was formerly known as the City Hotel, but since Mr. Bickert has taken hold of it the identity of the old place has been completely destroyed and it will be opened now as a pin and under first-class management. Mr. Bickert invites all his friends in town and vicinity to attend the opening. The Grant Cornet Band, of town, and Citizens' Cornet Band, of Mahanoy City, will be present. All will receive a royal welcome. There will be a grand supper. 11-10-11

John Roxby Dead.

A telegram from Philadelphia this morning announced the death of John C. Roxby, formerly of town. Death was caused by paralysis of the brain.

With the 19th century dawned the era of wonders. It has also proven an era of surprises—for notwithstanding its giant strides toward knowledge, we are told that there are still in some places a few citizens who have not heard of Salvation Oil.

THE RAMBLER!

A COLUMN OF PITHY AND INTERESTING PARAGRAPHS.

GLEANINGS WHILE RAMBLING.

Thoughts Concerning a Sporting Editor—Members of Our "Fleet"—An Ashland Snap. Politics Sprouting Early.

Editor Doyle, of the S'ness, finds plenty time to go hunting. He is now making preparations to leave town to-morrow for an extended hunt. "Mike" is said to be an expert shot and bags his game every time he pulls the trigger. He lives on the game he shoots during the winter, thereby lessening his household expenses. In the summer he makes the fish suffer—as long as his pocket is bold out to bribe the Bearing Creek farmers, who, it is said, get rich on such fishermen as "Mike." If "Mike" is lucky on his present expedition and returns with half a dozen deer or bear we are to receive an ample share for this notice.

Officer Conners is again on regular night duty, after performing excellent services in the work of gathering taxes from evading residents.

Chief Amour is frequently complimented upon his fine appearance by strangers. "Dick" is a counterpart of New York's "Anax," both as to physique and service.

It looks as if Ashland people do not want the electric railway to run through their town. The last action of their council jeopardized the interests of the great number of citizens for the benefit of Lew Boligh, who will have the privilege of running coaches to the terminus of the electric railway, at the borough line.

The Tax Receivership of the town for 1892 is already attracting attention. The candidates will not be numerous on either side, as $100,000 bonds do not grow on the mountains. It seems that the bond required for the office is exorbitant and an attempt should be made during the next session of the Legislature to have the present law changed. It is safe to say that there are not more than half a dozen men in the borough who can secure the heavy bond and the taxpayers are therefore bound to nominate and elect one of the six. There are scores of worthy and reliable men who would seek the position if the amount of the bond was fixed at a more reasonable figure, but they draw the line at $100,000—not by choice, but of necessity.

It is the intention of the Citizens' party, if the resolutions of some of the leaders hold out, to nominate for the election next spring the best men of all parties that can be secured.

The only trouble in the way of good borough government is the spoils in the gift of the council. This apple of discord works to the disadvantage of the whole community. Had we a city form of government this condition of affairs would be done away with as the officials now elected by the council would be elected by the people. We suppose we will have to get along awhile yet and by the time we are permitted to vote on the question again our people will be ready to make the change, which, we are satisfied, they will find to be very desirable, by making themselves acquainted with the experiment in Lebanon, York, Easton and Hazleton.

There are no less than five candidates for Mayor of the new city of Hazleton, with many more to hear from. As the newspapers of that town made the fight and succeeded, the honor of being the first Mayor should be conferred upon one of the editors. Either of the papers could furnish an available candidate. They generally make model executives.

About a year ago friend Steels, of the Ashland Telegram, made great pretensions of securing free mail delivery for that ancient but enterprising borough, and it looked for awhile, judging from the tone of the Telegram, as if this great convenience had almost been secured. Of late we have heard nothing of the matter. Postmaster Keiper, who has made quite a success of his office, deserves to have his ears lashed and the people accommodated. We see but one way to secure the benefits of free mail delivery and that is to have Girardville attached to Ashland, but we do not think Postmaster Eberley, of the last named town, will care to relinquish his cosy office.

Since the departure of the car "Florida on Wheels," we have heard many comments on the fine exhibition of the products of the alligator state. There is scarcely a thing that Florida does not grow or manufacture and we believe the car was the best advertisement the state authorities could have sent out to advertise for emigrants, something other states could follow with profit.

Those who can afford it, and there are many poor men that can if they cut off some of their vices, ought to have an accidental policy of insurance. For $10.00 per year, payable quarterly, you will receive in case of an accident, that will keep you from following your regular occupation, $50 per week; in case of death from accident, your family will receive $10,000; for the loss of a leg, an arm, or both; an eye, etc., you will receive several thousands of dollars. Were this fact more generally known more people would hold an accidental policy. For $12 per year, payable quarterly, amounting to just $1.00 per month, you would receive $25 per week in case of injury, and your family $5,000, in case of death.

Life insurance should not be overlooked. Every head of a family ought to be represented in some good company. Of course you get nothing on account of sickness or injury, but your family will get the amount you are insured for in the event of death. It costs more than accidental insurance, but then there is scarcely one paid in 100 in an accidental company, while in the life companies the losses occur often.

Young men should take advantage of life insurance. It costs them less. The older they are the higher the rate. A ten year enjoyment policy for a young man of 21 would give him a nice start when he became 31 and the amount he had paid in in that time he would scarcely miss. Were he to die any time within the ten years, the amount would be paid to whom he made it payable to. Even were he to pay in in the ten years, as much as he would receive it would be that much saved, but his payments would not be more than half of the amount he would be insured for. Young men, study this matter carefully and act.

In the death of Daniel L. Krebs, of Pottsville, the county has lost one of its most valued citizens. He was always agreeable and obliging, and never considered it any trouble to do one a favor. He was honest, reliable, and well posted in business affairs, especially in banking and post office affairs, and his advice was often sought after. At one time he was prominently mentioned in connection with the Assistant Postmaster-Generalship.

Gratifying to All.

The high position attained and the universal acceptance and approval of the pleasant liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, as the most excellent laxative known, illustrate the value of the qualities on which its success is based and are abundantly gratifying to the California Fig Syrup Co.

SHE STILL LIVES.

A CASE THAT MAKES THE PEOPLE MARVEL.

RALLIED AT THE BRINK OF DEATH

Mr. Lauterstein's Child Practically Dead Yet She Rallies and May Ultimately Recover—a Miracle, the Doctors Say.

The leading local topic is the case of the three-year-old daughter of I. Lauterstein. The child is beautiful and of more than ordinary intelligence. Several days ago she became ill and the sickness developed into a membranous croup of the most dangerous kind. Dr. D. J. Langton, with Dr. Halberstadt, of Pottsville, as consulting physician, attended the child, but eventually told the parents that they had no hope for its recovery. As a last resort a silver tube was inserted in the lower part of the child's throat to create an artificial means for breathing. On Friday morning last the child pulled the tube from its throat. Dr. Langton was hastily summoned. The doctor re-inserted the tube and told the parents that the chances for recovery were less than before. Friday afternoon the child again pulled the silver tube from her throat. When the doctor arrived he found the child in a most critical condition. The child was actually dying, and he so informed the parents, who, according to the Jewish custom, were requested to withdraw from the room. Every sign of death was present. Dr. Langton says the body was cold as ice and the toes and fingers had turned purple. The child remained in that condition for several hours, when, to the astonishment of those who had been sojected by the parents to keep vigil, it commenced to rally. Again Dr. Langton was summoned and when he saw the change he said, "This is not the result of medical skill. It is a miracle. The work of the Almighty power." In conversation with a Herald reporter this morning Dr. Langton said, "The facts you have gleaned in regard to this case are substantially true. It is really a remarkable one. The child is now doing fairly well and, should the danger resulting from exhaustion be avoided, I believe it will ultimately recover."

POLITICAL.

Secretary of State Harry declares that he does not want the chairmanship of the Democratic National Committee. What did the fox remark about a certain bunch of geese?

About the time the young Democracy got thr. such reading the Independent Democrats out of the party in this county, the Republicans will have a walk-over. In Philadelphia the same tactics will make that city 50,000 Republican next time.

Republicans did pretty well this fall after all. In New York they saved the Legislature, one branch of which was Democratic last year. In Iowa the Legislature is Republican on joint ballot. All of the state ticket, excepting the Governor, was elected in Massachusetts, and, in spite of the Alliance, Kansas, Nebraska and South Dakota were carried by decisive majorities. The outlook for '92 is good.

Treasurer Wright, Governor Pattison's reform pet of Philadelphia, has been very unfortunate in the choice of subordinates. One is in jail and another is in a fair way to get there. Now his messenger—for whom a piece was made by discharging a worthy veteran—is charged with forging tax receipts to make Democratic votes. It is evident that no mistake was made in electing McCreary Treasurer, who will not allow political bosses to dictate the choice of employees.

It is reported that Ohio Republicans, now that they have the Legislature on joint ballot, propose to thoroughly investigate the credentials of Senator-elect Brice, and ascertain whether or not he is a resident of the state, and, therefore, entitled to represent it at Washington. They certainly have cause for ill-feeling over the atrocious manner in which the Democracy in Ohio used its powers last year for the vilest partisan purposes. The gerrymander of the state, when its Congressional districts were set off, was indelible even from the standpoint of partisanship. If Mr. Brice is refused his credentials he will be getting a dose of his own medicine.

The political cranks are again reading Senator Quay out of the party. If they would use but a hundredth part of their talent towards building up the party and getting it in good fighting trim for 1892 they would be of some use. Let the Democrats have that part of the job in fighting successful Republicans.

Huntzinger Dead.

Washington Huntzinger, aged 35 years, who was injured by a fall of coal in the Suffolk colliery on Saturday, is dead. He was taken to the Miners' Hospital Sunday morning and died there Sunday night. His remains were brought to town yesterday. He will be buried to-morrow, his funeral taking place at 1 p. m., and proceeding to the Union cemetery, Ringtown. The deceased left a wife and four children, the oldest child being 15 years.

From Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher.

"O Orange St., Brooklyn, N. Y., Feb. 11, 1890.

"I have used Alcock's Plasters for some years for myself and family, and, as far as able, for the many sufferers who come to us for assistance, and have found them a genuine relief for most of the aches and pains which flesh is heir to. I have used Alcock's Plasters for all kinds of lameness and acute pain, and, by frequent experiments, find that they can control many cases not noticed in your circulars.

"The above is the only testimonial I have ever given in favor of any plaster, and if my name has been used to recommend any other it is without my authority or sanction."

The report was confirmed by the court.
