WAR SHIPS FOR VALPARAISO.

There Will Bs Nos of Them-Admiral Gherardi Will Command.

A Concentration That W: | Amount to a Naval Demonstration-The Selection of Gherardi Regarded as Significant-He is the Principal Diplomat Among Officers of the Navy,

Washisoms, Nov. 13.-It is quite evident that the President and Secretary Blaine do not propose to let Chill long remain in ignorance of the fact that the United States has made substantial progress in the building of a navy. The news leaked out yesterlay that there is to be a change in the assignments of a unumber of vessels, which will result in the concentration of such a fleet of war ships in the harbor of Valparaiso as to amount to a paval demonstration.

Orders have been sent to Rear Admiral. Gherardi, now un board his flagship, the Philadelphia, at St. Thomas, to procood at once to Valparaiso and assume communical of the South Pacific station. Rear-Admiral Brown, now in communus of that station, will be detached and placed on walling orders. Acting Rear admiral John G Walber will retain fifs flagship, the Chicago, and relieve Admiral Gherardi in command of the North At-ntic station. Thus fleet, however, will be out down from the imposing propertions of the White Squadron to the Chicago and the Old Kenrange. Bear Admiral L. E. K. Benham will be sent on board the Newsark to take command of the South Athutte station, with headquarters at Ric de Jaceire. The Atlanta, Concord and Bennington are all to sail on Sunday or Monday for Chillian waters. The Charleston has already been ordered to return from the Asiatic station to the

The order will result to placing under the command of Admiral Cherardi at Valparatso a fleet composed of the Phila-delphia (dagship), San Francisco, Char-leston, Boston, Baltimora (now already at Valparaiso, Atlanta, Yorktown, Concord and Bennington, while the Newark will be within comparatively easy call at His. This concentration of warships will bring together a formidmble array of men.

The Philadelphia carries twelve guns in heremain battery, the Baltimere ten, the San Francisco twelve, the Charleston eight, the Boston eight, the Atlanta eight, the Yorktown aix, the Concord six, the Rennington six. # TRIED TO KILL HIM

A Wife Who Wanted to be Rid of Her Husband.

POISONED HIM BY DEGREES

She Had His Life Insured and Wanted to Marry Again.

The Drugs Obtained from a Woman in New York, Who Also Appears to be ir the Plot-She Confessed to the Crime When She Thought She Was Dylog-A damages. Farmer Implicated.

TROY, N. Y., Nov. 13.—The police here have just begun an investigation of a remarkable case. In 1885 Charles Fietz, an employe in Guriey's Mathe-matical Instrument Works, married Christina Janeson, a Dane, who was employed as a domestic at Sinshelmer & Glock's Hotel Decho. Her reputation was not of the best, and it did not improve materially after her marriage.

Fietz and his wife resided at 209 Congress street, and for a long time the neighborhood has gossiped about them, and some went so far as to warn Fietz to keep a close watch on his wife. About a year ago Fietz and the woman quarrelied, and it is said that she then threatened to "have him under the ground before the snow fell"

About three months ago Fiets took ill. His health, always before of the best, began to fail him, and in less than a month is lest twenty pounds in weight. His heart and kidneys troubled him, and his system seemed to be broken up. He was weak, and exertion tired him exceedingly. No suspicion of the real nature of his allment dawned upon him.

About a month ago Mrs. Fietz was attacked with typhoid fever and was removed to the hospital. While his wife continued ill Fietz began to improve and was regaining his health. He visited Mrs. Fietz daily. She gradually grew worse and the doctors told her that her case was hopeless. Then she called her husband to her and made an astonishing confession. ishing confession.

She said that she had caused his life to be insured for $2,000, and proposed when he died to get this money and marry George Hidley, a farmer living near Wynantskill, from whom she had taken milk and farm products. Hidley is a widower. The woman he married about a year ago died recently. Investigation disclosed the fact that

Mrs. Fietz was in correspondence with a woman in New York city, from whom it is supposed she obtained the poison that she administered to her husband. Letters that passed between Mrs.

Fietz and that woman, who signs ber-

Fietz and that woman, who signs herself Hennetta Monkeith, are in the possession of the authorities, having been found in a hand bag belonging to Mrs. Fietz. The following is a verbatim copy of a letter written by Mrs. Fietz and addressed to "Hennetta Monkeith, P. O. New York city:"

TROY, N. Y., Sept. 8, 1891.

DEAR MRS. MONKEITH: I am very disappointed not to hear from you this morning, and I suppose you are very basy. I hope you got my letter that I wrote you last week. I hope you will come to Troy by next Sunday and I will pay your fare. If you only would come. I have got lots of things to tell you. I want you to come as soon as possible to want you to come as soon as possible to finish up the things-you know-with

His dangerous day is Monday and Thursday. This is the day he is around the machines. George, he wants to go away. He wants to go with him, and of course, if he goes, I am afraid I will lose money, and of course, you know yourself I can't go or do anything of the kind until the other thing is over with him. Of course, I don't blame him a bit that he doesn't want to stay homs any longer. Of course I see very well what his people are looking for.

Of course I don't want to say anything to him about it, and I want you to fix him what you told me, so as he cannot help himself. If I was only single to-morrow everything would be all right, and I hope you will come here and fluish it. So quick as finished I will pay you what I told you. His dangerous day is Monday and

So quick as finished I will pay you what

So quick as inneces answer me the 1 told yet.

Now, will you please answer me the same day you get my letter? I am vory anxious to hear from you. When will you be here, and when can lexpect anything going on? I wish they were all over.

Yours respectfully,

Mas. Fierz.

Hidley admits that he was on friendly terms with Mrs. Fletz; that it was his custom to take breakfast at her house, and that he owes her a little money but he indignantly denies that he has any knowledge of a conspiracy to kill Fietz, or that he knew that his life was insured.
