SOUGHT DEATH FOUR TIMES. Wiola Greylock's Identity Revealed-A Stanta for Suicide.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 13.—Miss Viols Greylock, who attempted suicide by taking a dose of laudanum in New York on Monday, and was kept on a tramp for forty-eight hours to ward off death at Bellevus Hospital, is some other than Miss Annie Miller, alias Clara Greylock, who was taken to the German Hospital on Sept. 17, suffering from a like causa. On that occasion she gave the name of Greylock, although subsequently admitting that the name was assumed. She maintained a rigid silence when questioned as to her antecedents, just as she has done in New York, and it was only by the most searching inquiry that ber true identity came to light. Her mind is undoubtedly unbalanced. Beyond a doubt Viola Greylock is really Miss Anna Miller of Hobart, Orange County, § N. Y. If she is Miss Miller, as her friends in Philadelphia have every reason to believe, this makes her fourth attempt at anicide. Twins has she attempted to take her life in Philadelphia and ineach case laudunum has been her choice. Her last attempt was in the early part of September, when she was taken to the German Hospital, and there gave the name of Grey-

Twentleth street.

She made her third attempt at suicide on the 17th of September last, and it was then that she gave the name of Greyleck. Dr. Andrews examined her at the therman Hospital, and pronounced her insame. While negotiations were being made to have her placed in Kirkbride's Asylum Miss flow yishter the Hospital and took her away. She was afterward placed in the Presbyterian Hospital, where, being a young lady of refluences, she became quite popular with the young datars. She made her escape from there about a mouth ago, and disappeared entires.
