AFFAIRS CAUGHT HASTILY
What News Gatherers Take a Moment to Tell About.

Hunters are on the go. Leaves nearly all down. Look out for a cold wave. A very pretty autumn so far. The high hat is not in favor this winter. Time now to put the ice houses in order. The small boy will soon be looking up his skates. A cup of hot water sipped at bed time is beneficial. Contractors are hurrying their buildings under roof. Keep your eyes open for a sight of the moon's eclipse on Sunday evening. Happy is the man with his coal and potato bins well filled for the winter. Manufacturers of shoes are paying more attention to the fittings than heretofore. The moon is billed for a total eclipse behind the shadow of the earth tomorrow evening.

Hard on Her.
A singularly painful circumstance attends the death of a Monroe gentleman, which occurred last week. Last winter he made an agreement with his wife to the effect that should she kindle the fire mornings for six months, he would do it for the same length of time. She had just completed her part of the contract when he died. It is a very sad affair.

Fair Warning.
A Division street lady stepped on a black cat while going down the cellar stairs, last evening, but didn't allow the interruption to deter her from continuing on into the cellar and over two boxes and a tub. We are not cognizant of the fate of the cat, but it would be well perhaps for the lovers of sausage to use extra caution for a few days.

Too Absentminded.
An absentminded resident of Wooster street shut down a window Monday and forgot to draw in his head. He was sailing for Helena Blaine when discovered.

Hardware merchants will soon be displaying their stock in skates. There is a big demand just now for powder and shot.

Tumblers To-night.
There will be extraordinary attractions at the fair of the Phoenix Fire Company to-night. Two tumblers, late of Barren's show, will astonish the patrons and two hands will furnish music. See the tumblers.

Letter List.

Beer Stolen.
On Thursday morning two sextles and one quarter of beer were missed from a freight car at the P. & R. freight depot. One sextle was found under the platform of the depot and last night C. & L. Police-men Shroy and Baker hit themselves to see who would call for it. After a patient watch the officers saw two young fellows named Frank Perry and William Zeltner take the sextle away. The two were placed under arrest and taken before Squire Williams, where each furnished $100 bail for trial.

FOR SALE BY

R. A. DAVENPORT,

No. 6 South Jardin Street.

ANTIQUITY can be measured in almost any thing but hats. If the head is out of date the rest of the body is pretty sure to follow suit. Nobody but a milliner or a genius can afford to wear ancient headgear, and even they take a good many chances when they do it. It will cost you no more to be up with the times than it will to be half a mile behind them. Everything about our $1.50 hat is modern, some but the price, and $1.50 for such a hat can scarcely be called any thing but a ridiculously low figure. The same can be said of our 25c neckwear. Our line of gents' furnishing goods is the lowest priced in the market.
