AFFAIRS CAUGHT HASTILY.

What News Gatherers Take a Moment to Tell About.

Most of the leaves have fallen. Half of November gone.

Thanksgiving turkeys are now feeding well.

A man's watch can go on tick if he can't.

Bu ekwkat cakes and sausage and—dyspepsia.

The revival season is opening among the churches.

Thieves are making raids on the farmer's hen roosts.

The ice wagons are not as well patronized now as they used to be.

Half a lemon rubbed over a fish before cooking gives it firmness and flavor.

Game is being thinned out rapidly, and the hunting season will get a birthday next year.

THE KING MOUND BUILDER.

His Remains and Those of His Wife Believed to Have Been Discovered.

CHILMARK, O., Nov. 17.—Warren K. Morehead and Dr. Cresson, who have been prosecuting excavations here for the past three months in the interest of the World's Fair, have just made one of the richest finds of the century in the way of prehistoric remains.

These gentlemen have confined their excavations to the Hopewell farm, seven miles from here, upon which are located some 29 old Indian mounds.

They were at work on a mound 500 feet in length, 200 feet wide and 28 feet in height. At the depth of 14 feet, near the centre of the mound, they exhibited the massive skeleton of a man which was encased in a veritable copper armor.

The head was covered by an oval-shaped copper cap. The jaws had copper moldings and the arms were dressed in copper. Copper plates covered the chest and stomach. On each side of the head on protruding sticks were wooden antlers ornamented with copper.

The mouth was stuffed with genuine pearls of immense size, but much decayed by the ravages of time. Around the neck was a necklace of bear's teeth set with pearls. At the side of the male skeleton was also found a female skeleton, the two supposed to be man and wife.

It is estimated that the bodies were buried where they were found fully 600 years ago. Messrs. Morehead and Cresson consider this find one of the most important ones that they have yet made, and believe that they have at last found the King of the Mound Builders.

FATAL COLLISION.

A Brakevan Cremated and Several Others Seriously Hurt.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 17.—A fatal rear end collision between two Panhandle Railroad freight trains occurred just west of Bergetstown, about 20 miles west of this city, at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Fourteen cars of perishable freight with the caboose and engine of the second train were derailed and piled up in a heap, the mass of wreckage taking fire and burning up.

Brakeman Hardy, of this city was in the wreck and cremated alive. Thomas Whitesides, of Allegheny, engineer, and John McFarland, fireman, of Cullin, Ohio, on the second freight engine, received probably fatal internal injuries before being rescued from the burning debris.

The loss will reach $100,000. Trains will be run over the Cleveland Pittsburgh Railroad between Mingo Junction and Pittsburgh until the Panhandle tracks are cleared.

Want the Convention in New York.
New York, Nov. 17.—A number of prominent editors, hotel men, railway officials, politicians, etc., met yesterday to devise plans for securing the Republican National Convention for New York. Ex-Gov. Lounsbury of Connecticut presided. Gen. Collis was secretary and Col. E. F. Shepard and others spoke. Chauncey M. Depew was among those who favored the project, and he, on behalf of the New York Central Railroad Company subscribed $2,500 toward a guarantee fund. Several other subscriptions were made. It was proposed to pay the general convention expenses, but not the expenses of delegates. A committee was appointed to take further steps in the matter.

A Novel Plan of Suicide.
WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 17.—William Ruddy, a young man aged 26 years, committed suicide in a most sensational manner at his home in this city yesterday. It is alleged that Ruddy came home and found that his mother had drunk to excess, and this so troubled him that he resolved to make away with himself. Ruddy poured oil over himself, and, by thrusting his hand into the fire, became enveloped in flames. He then seized a sharp knife and stabbed himself over the heart, inflicting a wound that would in itself have resulted fatally. He was terribly burned, his flesh hanging in shreds, and in a short time death ended his excruciating sufferings.

A Duel that Didn't Come Off.
JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 17.—A duel was to have been fought yesterday at Monocler Springs, near here, between H. V. Sevier, editor of the "Evening Telegram," and Benjamin Harrison, editor of the "Standard," and a nephew of ex-Mayor Carter Harrison, of Chicago. The "Telegram" has been publishing a colored society column and Harrison ridiculed it in his paper. The "Telegram" retorted, reflecting on Harrison as a coward and liar. Harrison challenged Sevier. A warrant was sworn out by Father Kenny, for the arrest of the principals, and both men were arrested and put under $1,000 bond each.

Regarded as a Bluff.
MONTREAL, Nov. 17.—The threatened wholesale arrest of publishers, editors and correspondents of newspapers that have published revelations in connection with the Whelan Quebec Court House job, on charges of seditious libel, is looked upon as a piece of bluff on the part of the Mercier government. It is generally understood that the Mercier government is in desperate straits, and some movement had to be made to prevent a serious hit on the part of the Nationalists.

French Strikes on strike.
PARIS, Nov. 17.—A despatch from Lens, in the Pas de Calais department, announces that 12,000 of the 14,000 miners who were expected to strike, in that section, within the next few days, went out on strike this morning.
