Washingron, Nov. 18.—Yesterday the United States Patent Office issued a patent to Emile Berliner, assignor to the patent to Emile Berliner, assignor to the Beil Telephone Company, for a combined telegraph and telephone, which had been pending in that office since June 3, 1887. It is understood that the Beil Telephone Company believes that this patent covers features which are necessary to the practical use of telephones. Inventors do not take that view of the patent. They think that when Beil's basic patent expires, March 7, 1803, they will be able to produce practical telephones not infringing on the Berliner patent. Berliner patent.
