

MAY BE A LONG FIGHT.

The Contest for the Republican National Convention.

CLAIMS ARE NOW BEING HEARD.

The Meeting Was Called to Order at 11 O'clock by Chairman Clarkson.

New York, San Francisco, Omaha, Detroit and Minneapolis Still Confident of Winning. The Metropolitan Claims 29 Votes on the First Ballot. Detroit Men Have Assurances of Second Choice and Argue in Optimistic Vein.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Shortly after 11 o'clock this morning the National Republican Convention was called to order by Chairman Clarkson, and the great fight of selecting a place to hold the Republican National Convention of 1924 had begun.

The meeting is held in the big banquet hall of the Arlington Hotel, and all the available space is packed full of people, as the hearing of the claims of the various cities is open to the public.

Gen. Clarkson was made permanent chairman, and at this writing the credentials of the representatives are being presented. The vacancy from Pennsylvania caused by the resignation of Senator Quay may be filled by the State chairman, Waters, or Secretary Frank Leach. A contest is likely over the representation of Utah, which is claimed by both Judge McDevide and Judge Bartch.

One hour is allowed each city for speeches in its behalf, but in several cases it is not thought likely that the hour will be consumed. A ballot will be taken this evening.

It is regarded as very likely that the contest will be a prolonged one and that a great number of ballots will have to be taken before the result is reached.

The claims of New York will be presented by Senator Hiseck, seconded by Senator Hawley of Connecticut. Chairman H. Dewey will be unable to attend. The speakers for Minnesota will be Senator Clark C. W. Johnson of the Senate and Senator Sabin and Washburn.

Ex-Governor Foraker will speak for Cincinnati, Secretary Foster refusing to take part in the fight because of his connection with the administration. Congressman McKenna will plead the cause of California, General Palmer and Congressman Allen will argue for Detroit, and Judge C. R. Sells for Omaha.

The Detroit committee report a very encouraging outlook. They have assurances of second choice and they think there is now no first choice and that New York, San Francisco and Cincinnati are out of the race, and in the event of New York dropping out they hope to gain strength from that quarter. San Francisco, they say, will, on account of the Texas-Mississippi deal, favor Omaha if they see they cannot win.

Mr. H. De Young, of the San Francisco Chronicle, feels very much enthused over the prospects. The question of distance, he says, has entirely disappeared in the hands of the delegates, and the offers made by San Francisco and the cheap rates from all points of the country makes San Francisco a desirable city for the next convention.

The Minneapolis people feel certain of receiving not less than 14 votes on the first ballot and have no fear of falling below that number at any time. They have been putting out feelers among their Western competitors for a good second place, in case the fight becomes a long one, and in that event they hope to make a virtue of their enemies and come out victors. They consider Cincinnati their most dangerous rival, but do not think New York can match for the convention.

The New York delegation give out as an estimate of their strength on the first ballot, of the 43 members of the committee, 23 on the second ballot, 27; while on the third they expect Cincinnati's strength to come to New York.

Prof. Briggs an Admirer of Newman.

New York, Nov. 23.—Prof. Charles A. Briggs, D. D., lectured last night at the Church of the Covenant to over 1,200 people, on "The Bible and the Church." He defended the opening chapters of the Westminster Confession of Faith in its description of the Bible, and opposed any alteration or addition, as proposed by the revision in this respect. He spoke of the late Cardinal Newman as a representative champion of our day. "A man of the highest culture, deep insight into the things of God, a saintly man," said Dr. Briggs. "If it be heresy to take such a man at his word, then I glory in such heresy."

Oyster Dredging at an End.

Baltimore, Conn., Nov. 23.—The oyster dredging season is probably at an end for many months to come. The recent terrific storm is responsible for it and the aggregate loss will probably amount to several hundred thousand dollars. Generally the season ends with some storm which disturbs the mud in the bottom of the Sound and smothered the oysters. This year this was delayed until the water was thoroughly chilled and it is feared the oysters have been killed. If this proves to be true no oysters can be gathered until next spring's spawn matures, which will not be before the middle of July, even under the most favorable conditions.

Fatal Railroad Collision.

JACKSONVILLE, Ill., Nov. 23.—Yesterday the express on the Jacksonville & Southeastern Road, bound for St. Louis from Chicago, collided with an engine taking water at a water tank on the main line. The train of the express jumped in time to save himself, but Charles Haingrove, the engineer, was fatally crushed between the engine and tender. The passengers were considerably shaken up, but none were hurt. The accident was caused by the engine taking water on the express' time. The crew of the engine escaped unhurt.

Anti-Civil Service League.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—An organization to be known as the "Anti-Civil Service League" has been organized in Washington, with C. Solon Stevenson as president, Robert H. Russell as secretary, and L. D. Westbrook as treasurer. The object of the organization, which is non-partisan, is the repeal of the Civil Service law.

A SENSATIONAL ARREST.

Contractor Missing for a Year, Returned, and Held on a Serious Charge.

WILMINGTON, Pa., Nov. 23.—The arrest of W. H. Shepherd, the wealthy contractor of this city, whose mysterious disappearance from home last January created a sensation throughout the country, has caused much excitement. He arrived here Saturday night, after seven months' absence. His coming was awaited, but in some manner he eluded those who were watching for him and went quietly to his home.

At 5 o'clock yesterday morning he was aroused from his slumbers by three detectives. He was at once placed under arrest and taken to the office of Justice Davidson, where he was charged with abducting the affections of Mayor Sutton's wife. The prisoner refused to make any statement, and was held in $10,000 bail for trial.

The arrest has caused a decided sensation. For five months after Shepherd's disappearance it was thought that he was dead and had been the victim of foul play. One day in May he started the whole community by sending a telegram to a friend here, stating that he was alive and living in Indianapolis.

A friend went to that city and found Shepherd lying ill at one of the hotels. Then it began to be whispered that there was a woman in the case, which fact, as well as the cause of his long absence, has been made apparent.

IT MADE HER MAD.

A Woman Who Believed in the Words of a Fortune Telling Conjuror.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Nov. 23.—The Catholic priests of this city have come out strongly against a popular "talking board," or mechanical contrivance for telling fortunes, by which Mrs. Eugene Carpenter, of Myrtle avenue, who placed faith in it, has lost her reason.

Although only 25 years old she has her share of trials. When quite young she married a drinking man, who soon after deserted her. Of late she had been receiving the attentions of a young brakeman, and he has not called since. Mrs. Carpenter grew melancholy.

She heard of the "talking board" and purchased one. With a friend two nights ago she pined the mysterious oracles with questions. Mrs. Carpenter learned, or thought she learned, that her husband would never return. This was as she supposed, but she looked again and read that she had also lost her brakeman's love.

Soon after she retired, complaining of a headache. Early the next morning a neighbor found her wandering in the street, her hair down her back, and clad only in her night clothes. Throwing her overboard around her he led her home, where the physician who was summoned found her reason had flown.

The Striking Miners in France.

PARIS, Nov. 23.—The striking miners met yesterday to consider the proposition of the Government that these mining operations, appointed by the State, should arbitrate upon the issues between the striking miners and their employers. The meeting was held at Lens, and in addition to the 133 delegates, an immense number of miners and their families were assembled in the place to learn the decision arrived at. Notwithstanding the advocacy of the Government proposition by several of the speakers, the delegates voted not to accept it. They insisted on nominating the arbitrators themselves, and chosen five miners for that purpose. It is thought that there is very slight prospect of the miners accepting this form of arbitration.

Abducted Girl Found.

ROCKVILLE, Conn., Nov. 23.—The missing Ryan girl, 16 years old, who was enticed from her home in Middletown a few days ago by the notorious J. Wesley Edmonds, an agent for a number of New York dives, has been returned to her home in Middletown through the good detective work of Capt. Cady of the Rockville police. She was found in Hartford, having been deserted by the man with whom she left home. The girl, who was found on a number of letters from Edmonds, who wanted her to go to New York with him, saying that she would not have to work and could live on the fat of the land.

The Influenza in Hamburg.

HAMBURG, Nov. 23.—Great dismay exists in this city over the spread of influenza, which is fatal in many instances. The number of deaths in the past week was 230 above the average, and there is no present sign of an abatement of the epidemic. The symptoms are said to be in many respects similar to those of the grippe. As to the origin of the disease some claim that it was brought here from Russia, and others brought here from America. The authorities incline to the Russian theory, and there is talk of establishing a quarantine against Russian emigrants coming to Hamburg.

Cotton Planters Organize.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 23.—The planters of Sea Island cotton in this State have organized the Sea Island Protective Union, the object being to secure the passage by Congress of a tariff on long staple cotton. Similar unions will be organized in Georgia and Florida. During the past summer an effort was made to form a combination of Carolina planters to prevent the sale of seed to Georgia and Florida planters, but this failed, and the present "combination" seems to be the outcome of the former effort.

Reward Offered for Incendiaries.

COHENSACK, N. Y., Nov. 23.—The board of trustees of Houser #31—a reward of $500 for the apprehension of the perpetrators of the recent incendiary fire at that place. The streets and suburbs were patrolled from darkness last evening until daylight this morning by members of the recently organized vigilance committee. The general impression is that these crimes have been the work of boys, to get the fire department out.

Jersey Baker Assigns.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 23.—The assignment was announced yesterday of John S. Taylor, the largest restaurateur and baker in this part of New Jersey. The liabilities will run up into the thousands, he being indebted to Groff, Tully & Co., the most extensive grain and flour dealers hereabouts, to the extent of $5,000, and to other firms in proportionate amounts. His assets have not yet been announced.

A Great Invention.

One of our prominent citizens, A. A. Hesser, has invented a rubber water bottle, which is creating quite a furor among users of, and dealers in hot water bottles.

The "Marion" of New York City, which is the standard of the India rubber trade in the United States, as well as throughout the civilized world, writes the following complimentary notice editorially: "An indispensable household article is the Marion India rubber hot water bottle. The conveniences and results of its use are remarkable. In the old style, to place the soles of the feet on the bottles, the knees had to be brought to an upright position; something not always desirable in the sick room. And to obtain heat for the body the oval bottle had to be placed on the person. As a bottle with two quarts of water weighs five pounds, this was objectionable; besides, the old style was oval and of course did not have the heating surface of a flat bottle, such as the "Marion." To overcome all this A. A. Hesser has produced a bottle which is illustrated below. The heat can be applied to the body without pressure. For foot warming it is perfection. The nozzle is placed on top so as to prevent leakage."

The above represents the manner in which the "Marion" bottle is used. It is something which should be in every home as it will save money, a doctor bill and greatly relieve a sufferer. The demand for the "Marion" is constantly increasing, one man alone having just sent in an order for two gross, which shows that the invention has made a name for itself.

J. G. Benner, of Pottsville, is agent for the bottle, and has already sold a large number in Shenandoah.

Blizzard in Kansas.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 23.—A blizzard is raging over the whole State of Kansas. Last night it was snowing heavily, and the wind was still blowing almost a hurricane, driving the snow and sleet into drifts in every direction. Reports come in slowly from Kansas, as the wires are down in every direction. Trains on the Union Pacific, Santa Fe, and Southern Kansas roads are from three to five hours late. It is feared that the roads will undergo a complete blockade.

Wreck on the New York Central.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 23.—The East Coastbound express on the New York Central & Hudson River Railroad, which leaves this city at 8 p. m., ran into the rear end of a freight train about a mile and a half east of Canastota shortly after 9 o'clock yesterday evening. Engineer Thomas E. Park of the express, and his fireman, Edward Baird, were badly injured but not fatally. The engine of the express was wrecked. The wreck took fire and two of the express cars were burned.

Stabbed by Armenians.

LYNN, Mass., Nov. 23.—In a street quarrel Saturday night, two men, John Connor and William Cross, morocco dressers, were badly cut by a party of Armenian morocco workers. Cross received severe cuts in the face, and Connor was stabbed six times around the neck, neck and head, but neither is fatally injured. Although pursued by a large crowd their assailants are still at large.

Think She Murdered Her Husband.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 23.—The police think that Mrs. T. J. Finnegan is the murderer of her husband, who was found dead Saturday morning. His head was crushed in at the base of the skull, apparently with a blunt instrument. The wife said that her husband had fallen over a rocking chair, and that he would not allow her to call in a physician. Later an axe was found on the premises covered with blood and hair, and upon this evidence the coroner ordered the arrest of Mrs. Finnegan on suspicion of having committed the crime.

A picture of health—the woman who has faithfully used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. She feels well and she looks so. It's a medicine that makes her well, whether she's overworked and "run-down," or afflicted with any of the distressing diseases and disorders peculiar to her sex. It builds up—and it cures. For all chronic weaknesses, functional derangements, and "female complaints" of every kind, it's an un-failing remedy.

And it's the only one, among medicines for women, that's guaranteed. If it doesn't give satisfaction, in any case, you have your money back.

Can anything else be "just as good?"

"They're about as bad as the disease!" Not all of them, though. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are pleasant—both when they're taken and when they act. They cure permanently Sick and Nervous Headaches, Bilioussness, Costiveness, and all derangements of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels.
