FOUR LOST THEIR LIVES.

Horrors of the Fire in Jamestown-Nar-row Escapes of Several Persons.

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., Nov. 24.—The fire in the Old Homestead Hotel yesterday claimed four victims, and several of Tin the boarders narrowly escaped with and toffering.

the boarders narrowly escaped with their lives. The fire was discovered early in the morning, and had enveloped the whole house before the department responded to the alarm.

They at last succeeded in forcing the flames back from the lower floors of the house sufficiently to obtain an entrance.
On elimbing up the first flight of stairs, the first victim was discovered in the person of Maggie Wilson, a waiter girl.
The body was charred and bursed in a horrible manuer. The flash was dropping off in many places, leaving the bones bars. She occupied a room with three others of the female help in the third story of the building, and had succeeded in finding her way down stairs, when she was overcome by the smoke. Her home was in Rod Rock, Pa.

The first responded to the discovered

Byuum is Out of It.

Washington, Nov. 24.—Congressman Bynum is out in an interview withdraw-ing from the Speakership race. He said: "Yes I am out of it. I have been con-"Yes I am our of it. I have been con-templating the step for some time, but desired to consult with many of my colleagues before doing so. I had a con-sultation with Messrs. Brown, Parrett and Brookshire, who are in the city, and informed them of my intentions. I never present my candidacy, and con-sented only to the use of my name until it became evident that the contest was narrewest down between Mills and Crisp."

LABOR NOTES.

The months of November and December are the busiest time for shoomakers and just now incirorganizations through out the country are increasing their membership.

The organized canmakers of Maryland will ask the Legislature of that S ato to prohibit systems being shipped in quantities larger than a gallon, and the coopers' unions oppose the movement because they believe it would injure their trads.

The three hosiscy firms of Reading. Pa., which produce 18,000 stockings daily, have formed an alliance and expect to troble their number of employes (500) and double their autput. They will give all their help a banquet on Satzulas and the stocker of the stocke
