STUBBORN FACTS.

The Harrisburg Telegraph says: "There must be some amusement in the cry of the free trader that tin plate cannot be made in this country, or he wouldn't keep it up. Day in and day out, like the Bowers Parrot's cry of 'The Tariff's a Tax,' the free trader shouts, 'You can't make American tin.' And he must enjoy it, or he wouldn't keep it up. There are tin plate factories in Missouri, Ohio, Maryland and Pennsylvania, and what is more they give employment in the new industry to a large number of American workmen and get a good price for their wares."

A few days ago a charter was issued at the State Department in Harrisburg to the Blairville rolling mill and tin plate company, of Blairville, Indiana county, with a capital of $75,000, the directors in which are all gentlemen of Blairville. They know that they can make American tin and they are going to do it.

The Middletown, (Dauphin county) Journal, a day or two ago printed the following paragraph concerning a great event in the history of the busy borough:

"Artist W. H. Walborn is painting a sign bearing the following: 'This building is covered with genuine American tin by A. B. Croll.' The sign is to be placed on the large barn of Col. Young's Keystone farm on which Mr. Croll placed 5,000 square feet of this material."

We can add to this the fact that W. S. Hammond, the window spring manufacturer of Lewisberry, this county, has had the roof of his house covered with this same quality of tin of American make. The tin used is N. & G. Taylor's old style and Mr. Croll was at the works in Philadelphia and saw American tin made there. Here regards this tin as the best made anywhere. Free traders may squirm over it, but American tin has come and come to stay, no matter how much they may lie about it.—York Despatch

CITY TREASURER-ELECT of Philadelphia, George D. McCreary, has done a most sensible thing in reappointing Jesse Shiber, an old, disabled soldier, as messenger in his office. Shiber was removed by Pattison's appointee, Wright, to make room for a Democratic rounder who was afterwards tripped up on the charge of issuing fraudulent tax receipts.

Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. C. H. Hagenbuch, Drugist.

How the Many Different People in Town Observed Thanksgiving Day—Church Services and Entertainments.

Thanksgiving Day was not generally observed here yesterday, yet the town had a holiday appearance. Nearly all the business places were closed and very little business was done outside of the saloon, refreshment and cigar establishments.

The colliers started in the morning to wholly ignore the day and some of them succeeded. Turkey Run colliery struggled through a quarter of a day and then quit. West Shenandoah made half a day. The rest of the colliers managed to get along with reduced working forces.

Services were held in several of the churches, some in the morning, but the majority in the evening, on account of the colliers working.

Lady Harrison Lodge, No. 18, A. P. L. A., observed Thanksgiving Day by holding a supper in the evening in Robbins' opera house. It was a very successful affair and a large number of guests spent a very pleasant evening.

Major Jennings Council, No. 367, Jr. O. U. A. M., spent part of the day and all of the evening at Ringtown, where Advance Council, No. 684, presented a flag to the public school. The presentation address was made by C. T. Straghuber, member of Jennings Council, and the gift was acknowledged by the principal of the Ringtown schools, Mr. Stauffer. The ceremonies were preceded by a parade, in which members of the order from Mt. Carmel, Mahanoy City and other towns took part. In the evening an entertainment was held in the P. O. S. of A. hall.

It was of a literary and musical character and closed with a burlesque secret society initiation. The hall was crowded and the audience thoroughly enjoyed the entertainment. Two tableaux, "Virtue, Liberty and Patriotism," and "Equality, Justice and Education" were striking features of the programme. P. J. Geaghan, of town, appeared in negro specialties and W. J. Jacobs, also of town, furnished sentimental songs. An interesting address on the principles and objects of the Jr. O. U. A. M. was made by William H. Dettrey, of Jennings Council.

A Million Friends.

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million people have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. If you have never used this Great Cough Medicine, one trial will convince you that it has wonderful curative powers in all diseases of Throat, Chest and Lungs. Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money will be refunded. Trial bottles free at C. H. Hagenbuch's drug store. Large bottles 50c. and $1.00.

We Are for Home Rule.

The Herald is frequently asked to do printing, providing it can be done at the same prices asked in New York, Connecticut, Ohio, or some other state. It may as well be understood now as at any other time that the Herald is working for the benefit of the people of Shenandoah, Schuylkill county, Pennsylvania, and, in return, looks to them for patronage. In working for the benefit of the town we are not regulated by New York, Connecticut, Ohio, or any other place, but are guided strictly by home policy, and, for the printing which our townsmen may wish to give us, we do not propose to be governed by what the printers in those places may do. If you have any printing to be done, send it to us. We will appreciate the favor and will give you as good work as you can get at any place, but we reserve the right to make our own prices, with the assurance that they will be, at all times, reasonable. We can send out of town for many things we need and use, and get them at prices that would throw our town merchants into convulsions, but we are not mean enough to do that. We believe in patronizing those who patronize us.

THE ELECTRIC.

The President of the Road Here Yesterday.

Hon. W. P. Sadler, of Carlisle, president of the electric railway company, and W. F. Sadler, Jr., and J. L. Kaufman, were yesterday in town and spent most of the day going over the route and inspecting the work done. They said that the progress made and the prospects for the road thus far exceed their expectations.

Public opinion at Ashland concerning the electric railway has been completely revolutionized. Even the flat rail and wide gauge people have flocked over and those who signed the petition that caused the Borough Council to change its ordinance in favor of that gauge and rail have now signed a petition for a "T" rail and narrow gauge road. A meeting of the Borough Council is to be held to-morrow night to act on the latter petition.

The electric railway has created a boom for the farmers of the Catwissa valley. All their teams are engaged in hauling poles and sills for the line. Other people who want hauling done find the teams at a premium.

Poles for the road are now distributed along Coal street as far east as Main street.

Superintendent Eberle left for Philadelphia this afternoon to arrange to have the boilers shipped for the power house. Mr. Eberle says the house will be roofed within two weeks.

One hundred additional hands will be put on the road next Monday.

Two gangs of pole strippers are "barking" poles on West Coal street.

PERSONAL.

Supt. Thomas Baird spent to-day at Pottsville.

Ex Postmaster S. P. Kindt was in town last evening.

Tim Conkley spent last evening in Mahanoy City.

W. A. Engle, of Mt. Carmel, was a visitor to town to-day.

R. T. Lewis, of Mahanoy City, was a visitor to town yesterday.

Edward Dodson, of Hudsondale, Carbon county, spent Thanksgiving in town, the guest of H. B. Hawley.

Prof. G. W. Weiss, of Schuylkill Haven, was in town on Wednesday, arranging for the County Institute.

Mrs. Ann Roberts, her son, Edward, and her grand daughter, Miss Annie Powell, arrived in town yesterday from Wales, where they spent several weeks the past of relatives.

We copy the following personals from the Shamokin Herald of yesterday: H. C. Folmer, of Shenandoah, put in a few hours here yesterday; M. Mallet, one of Shenandoah's most prominent citizens, called on Shamokin friends yesterday; J. J. Reilly, of Shenandoah, was entertained by friends in this place last evening. He is well pleased with the local electric railway and wished that the road between Ashland, Shenandoah and Mahanoy City was laid in and working order.

And it is Aggravating.

As a rule most people are intensely exasperated when, after wading through some exciting story in the newspaper which they have devoured with breathless interest, to find at the finish it is only a trap to advertise some wonderful soap or patent medicine. Of course it is disappointing, but just consider how cleverly it is done, and, by the way, what a wonderful industry has been developed in this mode of advertising. Some of the great medicine firms pay their advertising agent as high as ten thousand dollars a year, and a certain manufacturer of soap pays his advertiser twenty-five thousand. Just think of it, and while you are thinking just remember that "She Couldn't Marry Three" is the best show on the road.

IS A BAD OLD MAN

REMARKABLE CAREER OF A PENNSYLVANIA JUSTICE.

HIS CRIMES ARE VERY NUMEROUS

Latest Misdemeanor of E. B. Hollister, a Well-Known Politician and Writer—To be Tried for Burglary.

HONESDALE, Pa., Nov. 27.—E. B. Hollister of Hollisterville, this county, near the Lackawanna County line, who has been for more than a quarter of a century a Justice of the Peace in that county, although during that time he has been indicted for conspiracy, burglary, arson, and assault with attempt to kill, and was convicted once on a charge of burglary and sentenced to four years in the penitentiary, but escaped through a legal technicality, has just been indicted for burglary, this time by the grand jury of Lackawanna County, and will be tried at the next term of court.

Hollister is 70 years old and belongs to one of the most prominent families in Wayne County. Lieutenant-Governor Watres is a nephew of his, and he has for 30 years been conspicuous in the affairs of his section of the county. During the war there were many mail and express robberies and masked burglaries in that locality, and it was openly charged that Equivoque Hollister was the organizer and leader of a gang that committed these crimes.

In 1897 a burglary committed in the village of Waymart, ten miles from Hollisterville, was traced home to him, and he was arrested and convicted. The case was carried to the Supreme Court, where the judgment of the Wayne county court was reversed.

In 1879 Squire Hollister, his brother-in-law, George Burns, who had returned to Hollisterville, W. A. Meyers, and a young girl named Fannie Van Gorder, were arrested charged with conspiracy, arson, burglary and attempted murder. The charges against these parties were made by Theodore H. Baker, a merchant of Hollisterville. Squire Hollister owed Baker $3,000, for which the latter held a mortgage on the former's property. Hollister insisted on paying it, and the day the money was paid Baker sent it to a Scranton bank. That night a fire broke out in a barn near Baker's, and Baker ran to it, leaving his wife and child at home. While he was gone a masked man entered the house, and added by Fannie Van Gorder, beat Mrs. Baker into unconsciousness and took the wallet which had contained the $3,000 paid that day to Baker. Mrs. Baker said that she had recognized the masked robber as George Burns.

Baker, following alleged clues, was satisfied that Squire Hollister had conspired with Burns, Will Meyer, Fanny Van Gorder, who was Meyer's sweet heart, to fire the barn. The four prisoners were tried at Honesdale, and to the amazement of every one Miss Van Gorder and her lover were convicted, and Hollister and his brother-in-law, Burns, were acquitted.

A few weeks ago a daring burglary was committed in Danvers, a suburb of Scranton. Officers were put to work on the case, and the clues they found led them to Hollisterville, and finally to the arrest of Squire Hollister, his brother Hochel, Charles Engel, and William Snow. Besides being a Justice of the Peace and the political boss of his township, Squire Hollister is a witty newspaper writer. His brother, Dr. H. H. Hollister, of Scranton, wrote the "History of the Lackawanna Valley." His sister, Mrs. Watres, was a poet of more than ordinary merit, her productions during the war, over the signature of "Stella Lackawanna," being well known.

Russia's Chief Object.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 27.—The "Novosti," official organ, says that the visit of M. de Giers to Paris shows that Franco-Russian friendship does not value Germany, and that the chief end of Russia is not to ally itself with France, but to safeguard Russian interests.

Myra Gaines' Heirs Want Their Money.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 27.—Counsel for the Myra Gaines heirs called upon the Mayor yesterday to make provision for the payment of the judgment in their favor affirmed by the United States Supreme Court. The amount is about $900,000. A special tax will probably be levied for the payment of the judgment.

Gilmore Won on a Fool.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 27.—Jim Darran and Hugh Gilmore fought at Maltby yesterday morning for $500 a side. Eight rounds were contested when the fight was given to Gilmore on a foul. Both men were badly punished.

RAILROAD GOSSIP.

The Lake Shore & Michigan Southern has christened a new mail car just put into service on its line—Governor McKinley.

Last year the Pullman Car Company served 5,000,000 meals on the dining cars and the profit realized did not pay 1 per cent. on the money invested.

Still another fast mail train will be put into service between New York and Chicago beginning Jan. 1. It will be on the Pennsylvania road, and the schedule time between the terminal points is to be 24 1-2 hours.

MAHANOY PLANE.

Newly Lettured From a Reliable Correspondent.

Where are those electric lights which were to have illuminated our town on Wednesday night?

Frank Bobb, who had his foot crushed between bumpers some time ago, is around again.

The dancing school held in Murphy's hall on Monday evenings, will hereafter meet on Wednesday evening.

Rev. Laughran, pastor of St. Mary's church, returned from Philadelphia on Wednesday last.

American Hose Co., No. 2, of town, proposes to attend the ball of the Pottsville American Hose Co. on Dec. 8th.

The genial face of Wm. Hoiser wears an "all-wool-yard-wide" smile, since the advent of a bouncing baby boy on Monday.

The Edwards' blocks of dwelling houses on North Main street are being treated to a much needed coat of paint. Richard Fitzgerald, the popular furniture dealer and painter, has secured the contract, and is doing the work in artistic style.

It was expected that our electric lights would be in place and ready for work on Wednesday evening last, but the most that has been done was the running of the wires to the town limits. Wherefore this snail-like progress? The dynamo at Frackville station is ready for use, and, in fact, was connected with the plane lamps on Wednesday night, working them in place of the electric light car, of the P. & R. Co., which has been in use for about five weeks, but now that its occupation is gone it will soon be taken away.

List of letters remaining uncalled for in this post office Nov. 26, 1891: M. Williams, Samuel J. Willingall, William Gittinger, Jas. McLaughlin, Mr. E. E. W. Delrick, David Christ, Eddie Cassey, Daniel O'Connell, Michael Hennessy, Mahanoyville—B. F. Williams, S. G. Middleton 2, Andrew J. O'Connor.

Gratifying to All.

The high position attained and the universal acceptance and approval of the pleasant liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, as the most excellent laxative known, illustrate the value of the qualities on which its success is based, and are abundantly gratifying to the California Fig Syrup Co.

A Dog Gone Shamo.

Mine Inspector William Stein is an unfortunate speculator in dogs. A few days ago a fine Newfoundland dog belonging to him was poisoned and a day or two later somebody stole his setter. A friend then promised to make him a present of a Newfoundland pup, but before the gift could be made the pup was found dead in the friend's stable. But Mr. Stein is not discouraged. He thinks a change in his favor will follow an incident of a few nights ago. Mr. Stein saw a young man steal out of the stable of a neighbor, Clayt, Folmer, with three beagle pups under his arm. When told to halt by Mr. Stein the fellow started on a run. The Inspector then fired a shot in the air, which caused the young man to drop the pups and disappear. The pups were restored to their owner.
